SAN JOSÉ STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL FACT SHEET (Game #9)

Upcoming game: San José State at BYU
Saturday, October 28, 2017
LaVell Edwards Stadium
Provo, Utah, 1:00 p.m. (MT)/12:00 p.m. (PT)
BYUtv/ESPN3

San José State record: 1-7, 0-4 Mountain West. The Spartans lost at Hawai'i, 37-26, on October 14. San José State is winless in its last six games.

BYU record: 1-7. The Cougars lost at East Carolina, 33-17, on October 21. BYU is winless in its last seven contests.

San José State head coach Brent Brennan: In his first season as a major college head coach. Has a major college head coaching record of 1-7, all at San José State. Brennan returned to San José State after six seasons as a receivers coach at Oregon State. He was a Spartan assistant coach during the 2005 through 2010 seasons. Brennan is 0-0 as a head coach against BYU.

BYU head coach Kalani Sitake: In his second season as BYU's head coach. Has a coaching record of 10-11, all with the Cougars before the East Carolina game. He is 0-0 as a head coach, 2-0 as a University of Utah assistant coach and 1-0 as a player against San José State.

Sitake was a running back on the 1998 BYU team that defeated San José State, 46-43. He caught the Cougars first pass completion of the game from Kevin Feterik and gained 27 yards.

Series history: San José State leads the series, 10-7. This year's game concludes a home-and-home series that started in San José in 2015. BYU emerged with a 17-16 victory.

The Spartans' last win in the series was a 20-14 triumph in San José on November 17, 2012.

The last time these teams played in Provo, the Cougars won 29-16, on October 8, 2011.

Brennan & Sitake together at Oregon State: San José State head coach Brent Brennan and Oregon State head coach Kalani Sitake were assistant coaches at Oregon State during the 2015 season. Brennan was the Beavers' wide receivers coach; Sitake, the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

First team with eight games played: San José State was the first team among the 129 Football Bowl Subdivision teams to play eight games when the Spartans finished their game at Hawai'i on October 14.

Ten teams have played six games; eighty-four (84), seven games played; and thirty-five (35), eight games played this season.

A 13-game regular-season schedule: For the first time since the 2010 season and fifth time in school history, San José State has a 13-game regular-season schedule. The Spartans also played 13 regular season games in 2002, 1939 and 1937.

The 2017 San José State football team is the first in school history to play six games in a season through September 30.

Sirius Satellite and XM Radio also will broadcast the San Jose State-BYU game. A broadcast will be available on channel 143 for each outlet.

Television: ESPN3 will provide coverage of the San José State-BYU game. Dave McCann calls the play-by-play. Blaine Fowler provides analysis. The ESPN3 coverage begins at 12:00 p.m. (PT)/1:00 p.m. (MT).

BYUtv also will carry the telecast. BYUtv is available on:

Pau'u Family Ties: Brothers Butch and Neil Pau'u of the BYU football team are the sons of former San José State University two-time first-team all-conference linebacker Yepi Pau'u. The elder Pau'u played on the 1986 and 1987 Spartans that won two conference championships, had a 20-4 overall win-loss record and won the 1986 California Bowl.

Playing with a lead: The Hawai'i game was the first time since the September 2 win over Cal Poly that San José State had a lead in a contest. The Spartans were ahead 10-0 after the first quarter and trailed 14-13 at halftime before losing to Hawai'i, 37-26.

Season-high in total offense and passing yards: The Hawai'i game marked the first time this season San José State had at least 500 yards of total offense with a season best 504 yards. The Spartans also had a season-high 381 passing yards against the Rainbow Warriors.

In two of its last three games, San José State passed for at least 300 yards with 315 at UNLV on September 30.

Long gainers featured in passing game: In San José State's three previous games before facing Hawai'i, the Spartans had just four plays of 20 or more yards - all at UNLV (9/30).

Against Hawai'i (10/14), San José State had six plays, one run and five pass, of 20 or more yards involving six different players (quarterback Montel Aaron, running back Tyler Nevens, tight end Josh Oliver and wide receivers Tre Hartley, JaQuan Blackwell and Rahshead Johnson).

Kickoff return to the house: Rahshead Johnson became the first San José State player in five years to return a kickoff for a touchdown when he raced 96 yards against Hawai'i (10/14). Johnson's previous long was 70 yards against Nevada in 2016.

Johnson scores three for the Spartans: Rahshead Johnson became the first San José State player this season to score three touchdowns in a game this season. Besides his 96-yard kickoff return in the fourth quarter of the October 14 Hawai'i game, Johnson caught touchdown passes of 15 and 59 yards earlier in the game.

Johnson and wide receiver Bailey Gaither are the first two Spartans to score more than one touchdown in a game this season. Gaither scored twice on touchdown receptions in the season-opener vs. USF.

Busiest defense in FBS football: Seven games has a lot do with it, but San José State's defense has faced more snaps to date than any other Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) team in games played through October 14. Spartan opponents have combined for 660 snaps. Nevada is next closest at 634 for its eight games played.

Spartans in top-25 for defensive touchdowns: Heading into the BYU game, San José State is tied for 21st nationally with two touchdowns scored by its defense.

In the Cal Poly win, linebacker Jamal Scott picked up a fumble and ran 22 yards for a touchdown. More recently against Utah State, cornerback Jermaine Kelly scored a touchdown on a 68-yard interception return.

Texas, Duke, Wisconsin and Utah State share the national lead with four defensive touchdowns.

First to 40, 50, 60, 70, 80 and now 100: Linebacker Frank Ginda is the first Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) player this season to be credited with 50 tackles and now 100 tackles. Ginda has 115 tackles in eight games heading into BYU contest. He shares the national lead in total tackles and tackles per game.

Turnovers still plaguing Spartans: This season, Spartan opponents have turned 26 turnovers (12 interceptions, 14 fumbles) into 103 points. San José State had two turnovers in the October 14 game at Hawai'i.

Crawford sets San José State career and sets school single-season records: Junior Bryce Crawford is the first San José State kicker to kick four field goals of 50 or more yards in a season and a career with his 52-yard field goal at Hawai'i (10/14).

Austin Lopez, the Spartans' primary placekicker during the 2012 through 2015 seasons, kicked three 50 yards field goals in his San José State career.

His first three field goals of 50 or more yards in a season were 51 yards at Utah (9/16), career-long 53 yards vs. Utah State (9/23), and 51 yards vs. Fresno State (10/7).

Based on available records, Crawford is the first San José State player to attempt field goals of 50 or more yards in five consecutive games. He missed a 52-yard try at UNLV (9/30) and a 51-yarder at Hawai'i.

50-yard field goals at San José State: Junior Bryce Crawford became the tenth San José State kicker to convert a field goal of 50 or more yards when he kicked a 51-yard field goal at Utah on September 16. Crawford's 51-yarder was the first field goal of 50 or more yards by a Spartan since Austin Lopez's 50-yard field goal at Wyoming in 2014.

As an encore, Crawford kicked a career-best 53-yard field goal, the second longest in school history, at home against Utah State on September 23.

His four 50-plus yard field goals this season are the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th times in school history a San José State kicker made a field goal of 50 or more yards.

FBS kickers with three or more 50-yard field goals in 2017 (through 10/21)

Kicker, school	FGM	FGA	2017 long
Bryce Crawford, San José State	4	6	53
Daniel Carlson, Auburn	3	5	54
Matt Gay, Utah	3	4	56
Matthew McCrane, Kansas State	3	6	54

Streak ends: Bryce Crawford made 17 consecutive field goals over two seasons before missing from 52 yards at UNLV on September 30. The 52-yard field goal try was his second of the game after making a 28-yard try in the first quarter.

His streak is the second longest in school history trailing Austin Lopez (2012-15) who made his first 23 field goal tries covering his entire freshman and the first half of his sophomore season.

Crawford's last two misses are 52 yards at UNLV on September 30, 2017 and 50 vs. Hawai'i on October 21, 2016.

Oliver beginning to make a mark: Junior Josh Oliver has 14 receptions in the last three games and now is among the top tight ends nationally in pass receiving. Oliver has a single-season career best 26 receptions. He came into the season with just seven in two seasons.

30 pass completions: The San José State-UNLV game marked the first time since the 2015 season opener at home vs. New Hampshire on September 3 that the Spartans had at least 30 pass completions in a game. San José State was 30-of-49 with two interceptions for 315 yards and a touchdown against UNLV.

Eight games, four quarterbacks: In San José State's first eight games, four quarterbacks were used.

USF - Josh Love (starter), Montel Aaron
 Cal Poly - Josh Love (starter), Montel Aaron, Sam Allen
 Texas - Montel Aaron (starter), Sam Allen
 Utah - Montel Aaron (starter), Sam Allen, Josh Love, Michael Carrillo
 Utah State - Josh Love (starter), Sam Allen, Michael Carrillo
 UNLV - Josh Love (starter)
 Fresno State - Josh Love (starter)
 Hawai'i - Montel Aaron (starter), Josh Love

Based on available records dating back to the 1970's, Allen is the first known San José State player to play as a special teams defender and at quarterback in the same game. Allen did it in the Cal Poly game as a member of the Spartans' punt coverage unit. Freshman QB starters at San José State: Montel Aaron became the sixth San José State freshman to start a game at quarterback since freshman eligibility was reinstated in 1972 when he started the September 9 Texas game.

Other Spartan freshmen to start at quarterback since 1972 include current sophomore Josh Love in 2016 at Iowa State and Adam Tafralis.

Aaron's start at Hawai'i was the 15th time a San José State freshman started a game at quarterback since 1972. Doug Allen (1984, one); Greg Centilli (1988, two), Marcus Arroyo (1998, five), Tafralis (2004, three) and Love (2016, one) were the other occasions a freshman started at quarterback for the Spartans.

Aaron's current season totals of 730 passing yards and six touchdowns are the most by a San José State freshman quarterback. His 57.6 pass completion percentage is best among freshmen to play the position for the Spartans.

First timers: Heading into the BYU game, 21 freshmen and 13 others played in their first major college football game for San José State this season. Of the 21 freshmen, seven started at least once for the Spartans.

Young Spartans: The current San José State football roster consists of 48 freshmen. In the last eight seasons, the 2017 squad is the third one to begin a season with at least 40 freshmen. The 2012 (41) and 2013 (45) teams had more than 40 freshmen on the opening-game roster.

The fewest freshmen on a San José State opening-game roster since 2010 was 35 in 2013 and 2014.

Nate Velichko One of 181 national semifinalists: Offensive tackle Nate Velichko is one of 181 semifinalists named by the National Football Foundation for the 2017 Campbell Trophy honoring college football's top scholar-athlete.

On November 1, 12 finalists will be named. Each finalist will be awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and will be honored in New York city. The winner will have his postgraduate scholarship award increased to $25,000. Velichko is a senior from Foster City, Calif., majoring in kinesiology.

San José State football partners with TEAM Impact: On October 6, the San José State University football program and TEAM Impact, a nationally-recognized non-profit organization that seeks to improve the quality of life for children through the power of teamwork, announced that 16-year old Keannu Linnell from nearby Lathrop, Calif., will be a Spartan for the next two seasons. Linnell was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 2016 and is undergoing extensive physical therapy to regain strength and mobility.

The collaboration between the Spartans and TEAM Impact is another element of the team's Beyond Football initiative.

The Ellen Show honors San José State football: On the September 26 nationally-syndicated Ellen Show starring Ellen Degeneres, the San José State University football team was featured for community support, participation and involvement through its Beyond Football Program. Through the Ellen Foundation and Cheerios cereal One Million Acts of Good, Ms. Degeneres presented San José State University football $25,000 to continue its work in its Beyond Football Program.

San José State participated in Extra Yards For Teachers Program: San José State is one of the eight Mountain West schools participating in the College Football Playoff (CFP) Foundation's Extra Yard for Teachers Week honoring the contributions teachers make in the lives of children of all ages.

Teachers from 19 Bay Area schools were honored at the October 7 Homecoming game and one teacher received a $1,000 grant from San José State and the Mountain West to help support the teacher's classroom project listed in DonorsChoose.org.

It was hot: The September 2 game time temperature for the San José State-Cal Poly game at CFECU Stadium in San José was recorded as 108 degrees. Previously, the last time San José State played in a game with 100-plus degree weather was on September 1, 2007 in a 45-3 loss at Arizona State. The evening temperature was 101 degrees at kickoff.

Four hours, three minutes of football: For the first time since defeating #16-ranked Fresno State, 62-52, on November 29, 2013, San José State played a football game that lasted at least four hours in its season-opener against USF. The game had 189 plays, 39 possessions, 23 punting situations, and four replay reviews leading to a 4-hour, 3-minute contest. The 2013 San José State-Fresno State game lasted 4-hours and 9-minutes.

Lots of pass plays: San José State's 50 pass plays against #19-USF are the most attempts by the Spartans in a game since 51 passes in a 38-31 loss to Colorado State on November 1, 2014. USF tied a San José State opponent record becoming the third school to run 101 plays against the Spartans in a game.

Lots of punts: The San José State-USF game included 23 punts, 11 by San José State's Michael Carrizosa and 12 by USF. The last time the Spartans punted 10 times in a game was in a 48-0 loss to Boise State on October 16, 2010.

USF became the first San José State opponent to punt at least 10 times in a game since Utah State punted 10 times in a 30-7 Spartan victory on October 11, 2008.

The San José State-USF contest marked the first time since a 21-0 home loss to Louisiana Tech on November 8, 2008 that there were at least 20 punts in a Spartan game. That day, there were 11 by San José State and nine by Louisiana Tech.

New coordinators: Offensive coordinator Andrew Sowder and defensive coordinator Derrick Odum are in coordinator roles for the first time in their respective coaching careers. Sowder is in his ninth season of college coaching; Odum, his 22nd.

Two generations of Bernardis: First-year offensive line Joe Bernardi is a second-generation San José State offensive line coach. His dad, Gary Bernardi, now at the University of Colorado, was the Spartans' offensive line coach from 2010 through 2012.

The Bernardis are the second multi-generational football family to serve as San José State assistant coaches. Tom Quinn, current New York Giants special teams coordinator, had the same role with the Spartans during the 1999 through 2001 seasons. His dad, Mike Quinn, was San José State's special teams coordinator from 1976 through 1978.

Youth movement in the coaching box: Offensive line coach Joe Bernardi (30), offensive coordinator Andrew Sowder (29), linebackers coach Bojay Filimoeatu (27) and wide receivers coach Kevin Cummings (26) begin the season aged 30 and under. Filimoeatu and Cummings will be a year older in December.

Experienced offensive line: San José State's starting offensive line at the beginning the season consisting of tackles Troy Kowalski and Nate Velichko, guards Jeremiah Kolone and Chris Gonzalez, and center Keoni Taylor have 159 combined starts after eight games in 2017. That number is tops among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) schools.

Families that stay together: The 2017 San José State team has two sets of brothers and one second-generation Spartan. Cornerback Jermaine Kelly is the older brother of wide receiver Jeremy Kelly.

Linebacker William Ossai, a senior, is the older brother of freshman Isaiah Ossai. Isaiah is the third Ossai in the family to join the San José State football program. Their older brother, Onyeka Ossai, was a linebacker during the 2001 through 2003 seasons.

Defensive lineman Nico Aimonetti is the son of former San José State team captain and 1986 honorable mention All-America offensive lineman John Aimonetti.

New CEFCU Stadium playing surface: In 2017, San José State replaced its FieldTurf playing surface with its second artificial playing surface, AstroTurf, since CEFCU Stadium opened in 1933. For the first time, the Spartans' home field has a two-toned look with light and dark greens alternating every five yards from goal line to goal line.

Home stadium name history: San José State and Citizens Equity First Credit Union (CEFCU, pronounced SEFF-cue) are in year two of a 15-year naming rights agreement for the university's football stadium, built in 1933, to be called CEFCU Stadium - Home of the Spartans. CEFCU and San José State Athletics first became partners in 2011 with signage on the stadium scoreboard and at the West gate entry point.

New uniforms: In July 2017, San José State University began a six-year, all-sports apparel agreement with adidas.
