*DENOTES PLAYER OR PITCHER OF THE YEAR IN RESPECTIVE CONFERENCE

299 Division I schools are divided into 8 regions. The West Region encompasses 38 Division I schools. The 38 coaches nominate their players for recognition then vote to select a first and second All-West Region Team. First team selectees become nominees with the first All-Region Teams from the other 7 regions for All-America recognition.

Receiving All-America recognition for 2013 is;

First Team: Mark Appel - Stanford, Andrew Moore - Oregon State, David Berg - UCLA, Kris Bryant - San Diego, Michael Conforto - Oregon State, Michael Lorenzen - Cal State Fullerton

Second Team: Thomas Eshleman - Cal State Fullerton, Justin Garza - Cal State Fullerton

Third Team: Ryon Healy - Oregon, Aaron Judge - Fresno State, Zach Turner - San Francisco

2013 ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove Award Winner (West Region Selections);

Carlos Lopez - Cal State Fullerton, Pat Valaika - UCLA, Taylor Sparks - UC Irvine

West Regional honorees receive two certificates (one for the player and one for the institution – first and second team).

All American honorees receive two certificates (one for the player and one for the institution)

Certificates will be mailed to the above institutions within a few weeks
