This Week in BYU Soccer Home and Away This Week

The Cougars will play one away and one home game this week beginning Thursday on the road at USF and finishing with their last home game of the year on Saturday against USD.

Cougar Soccer Quick Notes:

- BYU's overall home record is 165-31-17 and overall road record is 110-53-14
- The Cougars are now 19-1-1 when junior forward Carlee Payne scores in a game
- BYU has not lost in its first three games of a season since 2009 when they lost to William & Mary
- The first eight goals of the 2011 season were scored by eight different players
- Head coach Jennifer Rockwood recorded her 250th NCAA career victory in 2010 when BYU defeated Weber State on August 27
- The Cougars have kept seven of their 2011 opponents to single-digit shots. Utah (3), Miami (9), Arizona (5), Idaho (5), Utah State (7), Portland (4), Pepperdine (7) and LMU (5). BYU, on the other hand, has recorded double-digit shots in all of their games this season, but one.
- Five games have seen overtime minutes for the Cougars in the 2011 season, three going into double overtime and two being decided in the first overtime.
- Jennie Marshall is leading the Cougar offense with four goals this season. She finished last year's season on top of the stats as well with seven goals.
- Senior goalkeeper McKinzie Olson became BYU's all-time career saves leader on 10/15/11 against Gonzaga with six saves to push her into first place.
- All-time record against San Francisco: 1-0 on the road: The Cougars have never been traveled to play the Dons
- All-time record against San Diego: 2-1
at home: 1-0

Did You Know?

Four players on the 2011 women's soccer roster are married: Lauren Cosby, Megan Fereday, Auna Doria and Nicole Jackson. Lauren's husband is also an athlete and competes on the men's track & field team.

Head coach Jennifer Rockwood was born and raised in Portland, Oregon.

This summer, three girls from the women's soccer team traveled to foreign countries. Carlee Payne spent time in India doing humanitarian work, Ashley Bazzarone spent time with her family in Greece, and Amber Wadsworth visited China helping to teach English in grade schools with her family.

Defender Lindsy Lisonbee has played with the U18 and U20 National Teams for two summers.

Geographical Breakdown:

6 players are from California: Katherine Snyder, Lauren Cosby, Rachel Manning, Carlee Payne, Jennie Marshall, Annie Amos

17 players are from Utah: Erica Owens, Dana Oldroyd, Cami Jensen, Megan Fereday, Colette Jepson, Kyleigh Royall, Stacy Bartholomew, Amber Wadsworth, Auna Doria, Lindsy Lisonbee, Niki Fernandes, Jaiden Thornock, Jessica Ringwood, Angelica Dickson, Marissa Nimmer, Hilary Smith, McKinzie Olson

1 player is from Texas: Lynda Hercules

1 player is from Georgia: Nicole Jackson

1 player is from Nevada: Kayla Varner

1 player is from Virginia: Ashley Bazzarone

Defender Stacy Bartholomew has suffered, and come back from, three ACL injuries. The first two on her right knee and last on her left.

This is head coach Jennifer Rockwood's 16th season and assistant coach Chris Watkins' 11th.

Five players on this season's women's soccer team attended Timpanogos High School in Orem, UT. Those players are: junior Dana Oldroyd, senior Megan Fereday, junior Stacy Bartholomew, sophomore Angelica Dickson and freshman Marissa Nimmer.

The BYU women's soccer team has played 13 games so far this season in front of 27,192 total fans. They're averaging 3,021 fans at their home games and 2,091 overall in all games.

The Cougars are 10-12 all-time against WCC schools before this year. They've played Santa Clara five times but only once, in 2010, was it a part of the regular season.

BYU has participated in the Mountain West Conference since 1999 until this season, which is their first in the West Coast Conference. As an MWC member, the women's soccer program won seven tournament championships in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2007, 2008 and their last season 2010.

There are three All-Americans on the current squad: Lindsy Lisonbee, McKinzie Olson and Lauren Cosby.

Seven new players were added to this year's roster, five freshman and two transfers. The two transfers are Niki Fernandes from San Diego State and Colette Jepson from UNLV, both schools BYU had previously been conference-mates with in the MWC.

Former players Carolyn Swenson, Andrea Willis, Sara Redding, Natalyn Lewis, Jessica Carter, Karen Wonderlick Robins and others are coaching soccer teams of their own now. Current assistant coach Aleisha Rose also played for BYU. Aleisha played with the U.S. women's national team.

Senior goalkeeper McKinzie Olson became BYU's all-time career saves leader on 10/15 of this season with six saves to push her into first place.

Jarom Jordan and Natalyn Lewis provide play-by-play commentary for most of the women's soccer games on BYUTv. Lewis played BYU soccer for four years, earning her an All-America honor and a four-year club scholar athlete recognition. Jordan is in his fourth year as the play-by-play for women's soccer on BYUTv.

The BYU women's soccer game vs. the University of Portland on Oct. 6th in Provo, UT was chosen by the NSCAA and Fox Soccer to be the featured "Game of the Week".

Play-by-play and color commentary for that game will be provided by Dean Linke and Kyndra de St. Aubin

Under Rockwood's tutelage, a long list of All-American soccer players has emerged from BYU's program. These athletes include Katie Larkin, Aleisha Rose, Shauna Rohbock, Maren Hendershot, Sara Reading, Andrea Willis and Staci Reynolds. Rohbock, Hendershot, Reading and Reynolds each went on to play in the Women's United Soccer Association.

Prior to becoming the head coach, Rockwood led BYU's highly successful club soccer team for seven years. In that time she amassed an overall record of 128-25-9, and the final two years she took her teams to the Western National Collegiate Club soccer Association (NCCSA) title and placed second in the NCCSA National Championships.

The Lake Oswego, Ore. native was a four-sport athlete in high school playing soccer, softball, basketball and track. After one year at Ricks College (now BYU-Idaho) on a basketball scholarship, she transferred to BYU where she became a four-year starter at center midfield on the Cougars' club soccer team and graduated in finance, business management. Rockwood has also coached the Utah ODP, youth club programs and the high school level.

2010 Season Review

The nationally-recognized BYU women's soccer team finished their 11-year stay in the Mountain West Conference by securing the Championship title with four All-tournament players and the tournament MVP. In her 16th season at the helm of the women's soccer program, head coach Jennifer Rockwood had again lined up a tough schedule for the Cougars. The team would face five Top-25 teams, seven tough conference opponents and five teams that saw action in this year's NCAA Women's College Cup.

The Cougars finished ranked No. 17 in the Soccer Times poll with a 16-3-3 record after going 5-1-1 in conference play and securing their seventh Mountain West Conference Championship title

A tough regular season schedule highlighted this year's team with four Top 25-ranked opponents and four teams that made an appearance in the post-season NCAA tournament.

The Cougars started the season with back-to-back shutouts against Long Beach State and Cal State Fullerton, a feat they haven't repeated since the 2005 season. Following the two shutouts, the Cougars added six more unbeaten games to secure an 8-game unbeaten streak to start the season. Included in that streak were wins over then-ranked No. 14 Northwestern and No. 21 Washington State.

BYU's first loss of the season came at No. 20 Texas in a 0-1 close game. Two more wins over Utah State and Idaho State in non-conference play rounded out the regular season.

The Cougars had already scored 25 goals entering this year's conference play. Last year BYU had netted 17 goals when they were preparing for league action. Payne received two more honors after her outstanding freshman season. From Soccer America, she was named to the All-Freshman Team for 2009 and from TopDrawerSoccer, she was named to the Freshman Team of the Season.

Lisonbee was named to TopDrawerSoccer's Freshman Second team of the Season with Willis being named to the Honorable Mention Team of the Season.

The conference race would prove to be more of a challenge than last year with San Diego State and New Mexico working hard to keep up with the Cougars. To kick off league play, a 4-1 victory over the Wyoming Cowgirls let the conference know that BYU meant business this season.

Two more victories over Air Force and TCU set the stage for a match-up between the then No. 25-ranked New Mexico Lobos and No. 8-ranked Cougars in Albuquerque. A double overtime 0-1 loss for BYU was just their second drop of the season.

After their first four conference games, the Cougars were tied with San Diego State for second place in the MWC race with New Mexico leading the pack. The Cougars rounded out the rest of conference action with a tie against UNLV, a shutout win over San Diego State and a 2-1 win at Utah.

Unfortunately for BYU, their one loss to New Mexico was just enough to keep them from the regular season conference title as they received second place after the first-ranked Lobos.

Earning themselves an automatic bid into the NCAA Women's College Cup, the Cougars only had to wait to see who their opponent would be and where they would play. They soon learned they would be heading right back to California to play UCLA in Bruin territory for the first round of the tournament.

The Cougars made their sixth straight NCAA tournament appearance, 13th overall, in California.

The Bruins and Cougars proved to be fairly evenly matched teams and played a close game that ended regulation in a 0-0 final.
