Cougars to Host Central Michigan, Utah State and Southern Utah

PROVO, Utah (March 4, 2003) -BYU's No. 24 ranked women's gymnastics team hosts No. 25 Central Michigan, No. 27 Utah State and Southern Utah Friday night for their first home quad-meet of the season. The competition begins at 7 p.m. in the Marriott Center.

The Cougars defeated Kentucky last Friday with a season-high score of 196.800. The Cougars also set season highs on vault (49.00), bars (49.275) and floor (49.450). Senior Lindsay Butterfield took the all-around with a career best of 39.325. The high scores moved BYU up six places in the rankings from No. 30 to No. 24.

Despite the big win and the season high score, the Cougars have had to remain focused and practice hard.

"Any team can score big," BYU head coach Brad Cattermole said. "What separates those teams from the best teams is consistency. Big teams hit consistently."

The Southern Utah Thunderbirds suffered their lowest score of the season last week after falling to Cal State Fullerton 194.800-192.975. However; the Thunderbirds are off to one of the best starts in the school's gymnastics history at 7-1.

Utah State fell to Ohio State last Friday 196.375-195.275, yet received a season-best score on vault (48.950) and a school record on floor (49.500). The Aggies are currently 6-6.

A season-high 195.850 gave Central Michigan a sweep over Michigan State and Ball State last weekend. No. 25 CMU is 18-1 this season.

Sophomore Jaime Mabray who has been injured since after BYU's first meet against Utah, will enter competition again this week. Jaime won the all-around against Utah and nearly broke the school's all-around record with her score of 39.650.

Cougars Overpower Wildcats; Butterfield Takes All-Around

PROVO, Utah (February 28, 2003) - In a spectacular performance by the BYU women's gymnastics team, the Cougars defeated the University of Kentucky Wildcats Friday night 196.8 to 192.475.

A crowd of 1,729 fans in the Marriott Center watched as the Cougars broke their previous season high of 195.9, and Senior Lindsay Butterfield took first in the all-around competition for the first time in her college career with a career-high score of 39.325.

The Cougars also received season high marks on vault (49.0), bars (49.275) and floor (49.450). The 49.075 BYU received on the beam was their second beam highest score this season.

"This is the kind of meet we have been capable of," BYU head coach Brad Cattermole said. "We just had to go out there and hit like we know we can—and we did."

On vault, BYU's Trisha Aston took first with a 9.925 and teammate Kirsten Pauga took second with a 9.900.

Butterfield, who was BYU's only all-around competitor in the meet tied for first place on bars with two of her teammates, Brogan Jacobsen and Kari Lords with a score of 9.875. The score is a career high for Lords and tied Butterfield's season high.

Butterfield also took first on the beam with a career high score of 9.900. Teammate Trisha Ashton took second with a 9.850. University of Kentucky's Michelle Gales received a score of 9.825, placing her at third on the beam.

The floor brought the biggest scores of the evening, and the biggest audience reaction. Three Cougars received career high scores on the floor. Brogan Jacobsen took first place with her career-high 9.925. Butterfield followed closely behind with a 9.900, and Lisa Willis, Candace Slater and Brooke Haskett tied for third place with a 9.875—a career high for Willis.

"The floor routines were really on tonight," Cattermole said. "The excitement builds, and the girls catch on to that. They feed off of each other."

The Cougars compete again in the Marriott Center next weekend against Utah State, Southern Utah and Central Michigan at 7 p.m.
