COUGAR QUICK HITS

- At 27-7, No. 24 BYU has tied for the best 34-game record in the 105-year history of the program. The Cougars have a chance to tie the program record of 28 overall wins achieved by the 1950-51 team that went 28-9.
- BYU became the first MWC team to win two outright league titles with a 14-2 record in conference play. The Cougars also won the MWC crown outright last season.
- BYU won its second straight league title with a one-game improvement over last year's 13-3 record, setting a league record with 14 conference victories. The Cougars also improved their margin from last season to this year, winning the title by two games over UNLV this year after just a one-game margin last season.
- With a 25-6 overall regular-season record, the Cougars set a program record for regular-season victories.
- BYU was 6-2 on the road in conference play, winning four straight between losses at UNLV and San Diego State. Overall, BYU is 8-5 in away games this season and 3-2 on a neutral floor. BYU's road victory marks in overall and league play tie MWC records.
- Two-time MWC Coach of the Year Dave Rose helped make BYU the second-most improved program in the nation in his first season with a 20-9 record and guided the Cougars to the outright MWC title and a top-25 ranking in his second campaign in Provo as the Cougars went 25-9 last season. The Cougars have also been nationally ranked in back-to-back seasons.
- Junior Lee Cummond became BYU's fourth MWC Player of the Year in the nine-year history of the league as he earned Co-Player of the Year honors this season along with New Mexico's J.R. Giddens. Cummond and junior Trent Plaisted were named to the All-MWC First Team while sophomore Jonathan Tavernari earned third-team honors.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

All interviews with BYU players or coaches must be scheduled through a BYU Athletic Communications contact. Postgame interviews will take place as noted below. Other interview requests, such as live television shots after a game, should be arranged in advance through a BYU Athletic Communications contact. News conferences will be conducted on the day before each game (see the schedule of events at left) and also immediately after each game. The host media coordinator will have the authority to designate and require any student-athlete to attend any news conference, but should work with the participating institutions' head coach and SID, as well as a designated member of the United States Basketball Writers Association, to select postgame press conference participants. Each participating institution shall make student-athletes available at all scheduled news conferences. All interviews at the facility shall occur in the media interview room or the locker room area.

CAMERAS, RECORDERS

All electronic media desiring to record the proceedings in the interview room will be required to use the connecting devices supplied by the NCAA designee, Hammond Communications. No individual filming of the interviews will be permitted.

TELEPHONE INTERVIEWS

Neither coaches nor student-athletes may conduct interviews via telephone until 30 minutes after the cooling-off period ends or until after their postgame obligations to all media have been met, whichever comes later.

LOCKER ROOMS

The locker rooms will be open to the media for a minimum of 30 minutes after the cooling-off period ends, provided media representatives are present the entire time. Student-athletes who do not play in the game may depart earlier. At the institution's discretion, the locker room can remain open for individual interviews with players who were held in the holding area prior to going on the dais and thus were unavailable while other players were interviewed in the locker room.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS, DAY BEFORE GAMES

Each coach and a minimum of two first-team student-athletes will participate in each news conference. Each team's top seven student-athletes who are not in the media interview room and any others requested by the media shall be available to the media in the locker room during the time the coach and selected student-athletes are participating in the news conference. A representative of each institution's sports information staff shall be in the area and will coordinate these interview requests.

NEWS CONFERENCE, POST-GAME

Cooling-Off Period: A "cooling-off period" has been set aside for a coach to be with the student-athletes in the locker room after each game. The period begins when the coach enters the locker room immediately after the game or after his interview with CBS or the radio network. The period will be 10 minutes for the winning team, 15 minutes for the losing team. A coach may shorten the cooling-off period, but may not extend it. The coach and student-athletes must report to the interview room after the cooling-off period ends. No interviews may take place during the cooling-off period, nor may representatives of the institution shoot video or conduct radio interviews on behalf of a media agency.

NEWS CONFERENCE FORMAT

Two minutes (maximum) – Overview by head coach

Eight minutes (maximum) – Questions to student-athletes (dismiss student-athletes at conclusion)

Ten minutes – Questions to head coach

BLOGGING

All media entities (including television and print publications) have the ability to blog during competition. Any blog representing an NCAA Championship must submit the appropriate link to ncaasports.com Blog Central. In return, all media entities entering a blog must post the ncaasports.com logo on their site. All blogs must be free of charge to the reader. A blog description includes in-game updates on score and time remaining in competition as well as description of the championship and competition taking place during the given time. Credentialed members of the media can post five blogs each half and one during halftime.

LAST YEAR IN NCAA FIRST ROUND — COUGARS' SEASON ENDS WITH LOSS VS. XAVIER

LEXINGTON, Ky. (March 15, 2007) – Despite a nine-point second half lead, the BYU men's basketball team was upset by Xavier in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, falling 79-77 Thursday in Rupp Arena. The Cougars are now 11-25 all-time in the NCAA Tournament and 7-15 in first-round games, having lost in their last five first-round appearances. BYU scoring was led by Mountain West Conference Player of the Year Keena Young's 24 points. Also scoring in double figures for the Cougars were Mike Rose with 15 points, Austin Ainge with 12 points and Jimmy Balderson with 10 points. Young also led the team with 10 rebounds. BYU started the game with back-to-back turnovers on its first two possessions, giving Xavier an early 2-0 lead before Young scored the Cougars' first four points of the game. Ainge went on to score the next five points, contributing to a 9-0 BYU run. Balderson's three-point play off a driving layin at the 15:36 mark gave BYU a 12-4 lead. With 12:20 left in the first half Justin Doellman's make from behind the arc brought the Musketeers to within one. Mike Rose's first bucket of the game came on a three-pointer to give BYU a 17-13 lead. The Musketeers scored to bring their team within two points only to be followed by a Balderson layup on BYU's subsequent drive. Mike Rose found his second three-pointer of the night on a pass from Balderson before Xavier answered with one of its own from the opposite end of the floor. The Musketeers closed in on a three by B.J. Raymond with 6:35 to play in the first half. BYU failed to score on its next possession, but a steal by Ainge and two made free throws following a Xavier reaching foul put the Cougars up by three. Doellman scored Xavier's next five points, giving his team a 28-26 lead, its first since the 18:14 mark. Young's made 12-footer tied the score again with 3:08 to play in the first half. The Cougars capitalized on a Musketeer shot clock violation when Mike Rose made a three off an assist by Sam Burgess. Ainge recorded a make from behind the arc, capping an 8-0 run to pu the Cougars up 38-32 going into halftime. Young opened the second half of play by driving to the basket and scoring on a running layin. He would go on to score BYU's first six points of the half. Mike Rose continued to find success from behind the arc when he drained his fourth three following a Doellman put-back dunk. A 13-6 Xavier run tightened the Cougar lead to two points, bringing the Musketeer fans to their feet. Reminiscent of its loss against UNLV last Saturday, BYU relinquished its lead and allowed Xavier to pull ahead. Young's jump shot with 9:02 to play in the second shifted the momentum back to BYU. Ainge cut further into the Musketeer lead and brought BYU to within one point when he scored inside at the 7:53 mark. The Cougars continued to be outrebounded on both ends of the floor. On his second trip to the charity stripe in less than one minute, Plaisted went 2-for-2, cutting into the Musketeers' 66-64 lead. After an offensive foul was called on Xavier's Brandon Cole, Cummmard's three tied the game for the ninth time with 2:31 to play in the second half. Young made two free throws to put BYU back on top 73-71. Cummmard's putback following a missed jumper by Young tied the game again before Xavier's driving layup put the Musketeers up by two points with 35 seconds remaining. Lavender went 2-for-2 from the free-throw line to give Xavier a 79-75 lead with 11 seconds to play. A basket at the buzzer from Young was too little too late as BYU fell 79-77.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...

BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

– "I think our guys fought really hard. It was anybody's game to win in the end. They just made more plays than we did."
– "It was a great game. Both teams battled. I think that it came down to just a couple plays at the end. I thought our guys were extremely focused and played relaxed and played with confidence. We played a very good team in Xavier, a very well-coached team. I'm very proud of our players because I felt like the effort they gave tonight, they left everything on the floor and that's all a coach can expect. Our guys fought really hard. You have to give Xavier credit. They were able to make more plays than we did."
– "We were having a hard time guarding them. They're an extremely physical team. We were in foul trouble. I thought we'd try to protect ourselves."
– "I told the team I was really proud to be their coach. They batted, they competed, they got ahead, they fell behind and they battled back."

Xavier Head Coach Sean Miller

– "I'd like to congratulate BYU on a great season. It was a tough, tough hard-fought game. It could have gone either way. As we watched a lot of film to prepare for this game, it became very apparent how well coached they were. They have such a unique team with their inside players. [Keena] Young is a terrific player, and he was terrific tonight. As a team, they are so dangerous from three in that they are very difficult to guard. I give our team tremendous credit because we had to really reach back deep in the second half to beat them."

TEXAS A&M'S LAST OUTING — AGGIES FALL IN BIG XII SEMIFINALS

KANSAS CITY (March 15, 2008) - Brandon Rush scored a career-high 28 points in front of his home town fans, sealing the deal with two free throws in the final seconds, and No. 5 Kansas beat scrappy but out-manned Texas A&M 77-71 Saturday in the Big 12 semifinals. The two-time defending champion Jayhawks (30-3) will meet Texas (No. 8 ESPN/USA Today, No. 6 AP) for the championship for the third year in a row. Kansas and Texas tied for the regular-season title, but the Longhorns bested the Jayhawks 72-69 in their only meeting. The Aggies (24-10) outrebounded Kansas 35-25 and hit almost 54 percent of their shots but could not stop Rush, the 6-foot-6 junior who was going to declare for the NBA after his sophomore season but was thwarted by knee injury sustained in a pickup game in May. Rush grabbed a defensive rebound and Darnell Jackson converted it into a 72-66 lead with less than 3 minutes left, then Jackson increased the lead with a free throw. But back came the Aggies, quickly slicing the lead to 73-71 on Beau Muhlbach's 3-pointer and a pair of free throws by Dominique Kirk with 54 seconds to go. Russell Robinson, one of four guards who powered Kansas to its fourth straight regular-season Big 12 title, dribbled around Texas A&M's packed-in defense for a one-handed layup. The Aggies hustled down court but Muhlbach missed a 3-pointer and Josh Carter's tip-in clanged off the rim. Mario Chalmers grabbed the rebound for Kansas, which beat the Aggies 72-55 in the regular-season finale. With 6 seconds left, Rush was fouled and made both free throws, triggering a huge roar from the pro-Kansas crowd the Jayhawks always enjoy in Kansas City. Jackson had 14 points for Kansas and Collins added nine. Bryan Davis had 16 points and Joseph Jones 14 for Texas A&M, which will hope to be at least the fifth Big 12 team to get an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament on Sunday. The Aggies closed out the first half on an 8-0 run, forging a 34-34 tie, with Jones getting three points and Kirk canning a long 3-pointer and following that with another a bucket. Kansas quickly went back on top after intermission. Rush's tightly contested 5-footer went in at the 9:21 mark for a 57-49 lead. Then the teams traded 3-pointers, with four going down in a span of 1 minute, 9 seconds starting with Bryan Davis' over-the-shoulder prayer that banked in at the buzzer. Rush came right down court and answered with a 3 from the top of the key, then Carter canned a long one for the Aggies and Sherron Collins again answered for the Jayhawks after taking a nifty pass from Chalmers, making it 63-55.

SERIES NOTES

This will be the second meeting between BYU and Texas A&M with the Cougars winning the first contest, 83-81, on Dec. 28, 1972 at the All-College Tournament. BYU is 0-3 all-time against Big XII teams in the NCAA Tournament with the last meeting coming in 1993 when the Cougars lost to Kansas, 90-76 in the second round. The game was BYU's last second-round appearance as the Cougars have gone 0-5 in the NCAA Tournament since.

BYU IN THE TOURNAMENT

With their championship game loss to UNLV, the Cougars have an 11-8 Mountain West Conference Tournament record. BYU advanced to the finals in the first two years of the MWC Tournament, winning the title over UNM in 2001 after losing to host UNLV in 2000. BYU then went five years without a finals appearance until losing to host UNLV in the 2007 and 2008 Championship games. BYU has won its quarterfinal game in six of the nine MWC Tournaments. BYU has a 4-2 semifinals record and 1-3 finals record in MWC Tournament play. During the six years the MWC Tournament has been played in Las Vegas (2000-03, 2007-08), BYU has posted a 10-5 tournament record, with four finals appearances and one title (2001). BYU had a 1-3 tournament record during the three years the championship was conducted in Denver (2004-06). Overall, BYU has a 23-21 record in conference tournament games, which includes a 12-13 record in WAC Tournament games. BYU has played every MWC team in the MWC Tournament.

MWC TITLE GOES THROUGH BYU

In eight of the nine years of the Mountain West Tournament, BYU or the team that has knocked the Cougars out of the tournament won the title, including championship game losses to host UNLV in each of the past two years. 2006 was the first time that trend did not continue as San Diego State won the title after BYU was knocked out by Utah in the quarterfinals. After losing in the title game to host UNLV at the inaugural MWC Tournament in 2000, BYU won the title in 2001. The next four years the Cougars were knocked out by the eventual champion. BYU was defeated by San Diego State in the 2002 quarterfinals before back-to-back semifinal losses to 2003-champion Colorado State and 2004-champion Utah. In 2005, New Mexico went on to win the title after defeating BYU in the quarterfinals.

BYU SEEDS AT MWC TOURNAMENT

BYU has been the No. 1 seed at the MWC Tournament in each of the past two seasons after winning back-to-back outright MWC titles. The Cougars are 4-2 as the top seed including their championship game loss win to UNLV this year (finals appearance in 2007 and 2008). BYU has been the second seed three times (5-2 combined record in 2001, 2003 and 2004, including 2001 title). The 2006 Tournament was the first time that the Cougars have been the No. 3 seed in the MWC Tournament (first-round loss to Utah). The Cougars have also been the fourth seed once (suffering a first-round exit with loss to eventual-champion San Diego State in 2002), the sixth seed once (advanced to the finals in 2000) and the No. 7 seed once (2005 first-round loss to eventual-champion New Mexico).

FRUITS OF THE SEEDS

In the nine years of the MWC Tournament, the teams with the No. 2 seed boasts the best mark at 16-5 while the No. 1 seed has gone 14-7. The No. 6 seeds have a combined 9-7 record while their first-round opponent No. 3 seeds have a 6-8 record. No. 4 teams have gone 9-9. Fifth-seeded teams are 4-7. The No. 7 team won for the first time in 2006 and now has a 2-9 record. The No. 8 seed has a 2-1 record in first round games and a 3-8 record overall. The No. 9 seed is 1-2 in the first round game and 1-3 overall. 2006 marked the first time the No. 7 seed advanced past the quarterfinals and the first time neither the No. 2 nor No. 3 seed advanced to the semifinals. The Tournament title has been won by the second seed four times (BYU in 2001, New Mexico in 2005 and UNLV in 2007 and 2008); the top seed twice (UNLV in 2000 and San Diego State in 2006); the third seed once (Utah in 2004); the fifth seed once (San Diego State in 2002); and the sixth seed once (Colorado State in 2004).

BYU TOURNAMENT TITLES

TCU is the lone team not to advance, but the Horned Frogs have only been MWC members for three seasons. New Mexico became the last of the other MWC teams to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament by winning the 2005 MWC Tournament. 2008 MWC Tournament Champion UNLV received the league's automatic bid this season while BYU was selected as an at-large team.

BYU AND MWC IN POSTSEASON

CUMMARD, PLAISTED NAMED NABC ALL-DISTRICT

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (March 4, 2008) – BYU juniors Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted were honored Tuesday by the National Association of Basketball Coaches as both were named to the NABC All-District 13 First Team. The dual honors marks the first time since 1988 that two Cougars were selected to the First Team in the same season.

In all, 150 student-athletes representing 15 districts were recognized as the nation's best men's collegiate basketball players as voted on by members of the NABC.

"Both Lee and Trent are very deserving of this honor," said BYU head coach Dave Rose. "They've worked really hard and greatly improved their respective games. They are a big part of the success of our team."

Cummard and Plaisted are two of seven student-athletes to represent the MWC and two of four players from a Utah university to earn all-district accolades this season.

Joining the pair on the District 13 First Team are New Mexico's J.R. Giddens, Nevada's Marcelus Kemp and Boise State's Reggie Larry. District 13 Second Team members include Lorenzo Wade of San Diego State, Stefon Jackson of UTEP, Kevin Bell of Fresno State, Brandon Ewing of Wyoming and Luke Nevill of Utah, both of whom also earned second-team honors last season. UNLV's Wink Adams was named to the District 15 Second Team, while Utah State's Jaycee Carroll was honored as a second-team member of District 14.

Student-athletes selected to the all-district teams are now eligible for the NABC Division I All-America teams to be announced at the conclusion of the 2007-08 NCAA regular season.

Located in Kansas City, Mo., the NABC was founded in 1927 by Phog Allen, the legendary basketball coach at the University of Kansas. Allen, a student of James Naismith, the inventor of basketball, organized coaches into this collective group to serve as Guardians of the Game. The NABC currently claims nearly 5,000 members consisting primarily of university and college men's basketball coaches.

BYU players have received all-district recognition 84 times by the NABC since 1950. Keena Young was the most recent addition to the list as he earned first-team honors last season. Prior to this year, BYU had not had two first-team selections since Michael Smith and Jeff Chatman were so honored in 1988.

USBWA HONORS CUMMARD AND PLAISTED

PROVO, Utah (March 11, 2008) – After leading the Cougars to their second straight outright Mountain West Conference title and the second-best record in program history, BYU's Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted have been named to the U.S. Basketball Writers Association District VIII Team.

The USBWA announced men's all-district teams in nine regions from coast to coast, based on voting from its national membership. Each team consists of a coach of the year and 10 student-athletes, including the player of the year. District VIII represents the top players from teams in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

Honors have poured in this season for the pair. In addition to USBWA All-District recognition, both were named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-District First Team. The Cougars' "dynamic duo" were selected All-MWC First Team.

Joining Cummard and Plaisted on the District VIII Team are New Mexico's J.R. Giddens, who was named the Player of the Year, along with fellow-MWC players Wink Adams of UNLV and Brandon Ewing of Wyoming. The team is rounded out by Utah State's Jaycee Carroll, New Mexico State's Justin Hawkins, Nevada's Marcelus Kemp, Boise State's Reggie Larry and Montana State's Carlos Taylor. UNLV head coach Lon Kruger received Coach of the Year honors.

Former Cougar forward Keena Young was so honored last season while Plaisted was selected in 2006, former center Rafael Araujo was honored in 2004 and former Cougar swingman Travis Hansen was named to the team in 2003.

BYU'S LAST OUTING — MWC TOURNAMENT TITLE STAYS IN LAS VEGAS

LAS VEGAS (Mar. 15, 2008) – History often repeats itself, and for the second year in a row No. 23 BYU (27-7, 14-2 MWC) lost to UNLV (26-7, 12-4) 76-61 in the championship game of the 2008 Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Championship in Las Vegas on Saturday. Freshman Jimmer Fredette scored 17 points off the bench to lead the Cougar offense, and All-MWC Tournament Team selection Lee Cummard followed with 11 points, four assists and four rebounds. BYU head coach Dave Rose complimented his team on its effort and congratulated UNLV on its victory. The fans came out in droves to support the home team at the Thomas & Mack Center and became an effective "sixth man". UNLV jumped out to an early 7-3 lead, but sophomore Jonathan Tavernari scored BYU's first eight points on 3-for-3 shooting with two three-pointers to keep his team in the game. The Cougars made their first five buckets from downtown and led for the final 16 minutes of the first half. Senior Sam Burgess had nine points in the first period, making all three of his attempted shots, including two triples. Cummard also had nine points in the half, shooting 3-for-4 from the floor with three rebounds and three assists. Freshman Chris Collinsworth fulfilled his first-half role on the defensive end, hit his second three-pointer of the tournament and threw down a huge two-handed dunk over a Rebel defender in only nine minutes of play. In total, BYU was 12-for-20 from the field in the first half and 6-for-8 from behind the arc. As a team, the Cougars were also 7-for-8 from the free-throw line and had 14 rebounds. UNLV was 12-for-30 overall and 4-for-9 from the three-point line as the Cougars took a 37-33 lead into the locker room at the break. The Rebels regained the lead 1:36 into the second half at 39-38 after scoring six of the first seven points. UNLV rolled on to score the next six points on back-to-back threes from Utahn Joe Darger. It was a run from which BYU would not recover. After Darger's three-pointers, UNLV made only six field goals in the remaining 17:20 of the game, including going 8:18 without a bucket from the floor and only four points from the line. However, the Rebels were 16-for-22 from the charity stripe in the same time frame. UNLV's Curtis Terry was 8-for-10 by himself from the line in that time. Fredette did all he could to keep BYU alive in the second half. He scored 13 of his 17 points in the half, and senior captain Trent Plaisted had all of his nine points in the half as well. The Cougars were only 7-for-11 from the free-throw line in the half and 1-for-10 from three-point land. When all was said and done, BYU shot 44.4 percent from the field and had a 38.9 three-point percentage. UNLV shot 41.8 percent from the floor and 45.0 percent from downtown. The Rebels won the battle of the boards, 36-25, and had only seven turnovers to the Cougars' 12.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

– "I thought it was a hard fought game. Both teams played well. They played with a lot of energy in the second half. They played really great and deserved to win."
– "Wink (Adams) put in a lot of hard work in the summertime. He's one of the best players in our league. We made a few defensive mistakes, but for the most part he was just making big plays in a big-time game."
– "We shot the ball very well in the first half. Our effort was really terrific in the first half. I thought the second half the game was a lot more physical. It was tougher for us to get the ball where we're more comfortable."
– "I think the feeling I have right now is similar to last year. It's tough to lose. This is a very competitive group. What we need to do is get home and get back out on the practice court and get after it."
– "They do what they do. They're extremely aggressive defensively. They're an active, athletic defensive team. They don't allow you to get open catches and open shots. You have to create things. I thought we did a good job of that for the most part, but in the end it kind of wore us out."
– "It's frustrating, but I'm very proud of our players because we battled and competed. We came up a little bit short, but it's because UNLV is a great team. We give the credit to them."

– Tavernari scored the first eight Cougar points in the game with two treys and a scoop in front of the basket. He then assisted the first bucket scored by a teammate, a three-pointer from Burgess.
– The Cougars came out firing to begin the game, going 8-for-11 (.727) from the field in the first 10 minutes and making their first five three-pointers.

COUGAR SEASON TOP IN SCHOOL HISTORY

BYU has a 27-7 record through 34 games this year. With a win in the NCAA Tournament, the Cougars could tie the program record for wins in a season. That record is currently held by the 1950-51 team that achieved 28 victories while racking up a 28-9 overall record. BYU's current 27-7 mark is tied for the best 34-game record in the 105-year history of the program. (SEE CHART AT LEFT) The 2007-08 Cougars are only of only seven teams in program history to play 34 games in a single season.

20-WIN SEASONS

At 27-7 so far this season, BYU has achieved the program's 31st 20-win season, including three straight for Cougar head coach Dave Rose in his first three seasons at the helm. Last year, the Cougars finished 25-9 following a 20-9 campaign in 2005-06. BYU has averaged 20 wins every 2.6 years (BYU has played 80 seasons in which it has played at least 20 games in a season). Rose is the third Cougar head coach to win 20 games in each of his first three years, joining G. Ott Romney and Roger Reid. However, Rose is the first Cougar head coach to win 20 games in each of his first three years after taking over a program with less than 13 wins the prior year. BYU was 9-21 in 2004-05 before Rose turned the program into the second-most improved team in the nation in his first season.

20-Win Seasons at BYU

Stan Watts had 6 seasons of 20 wins in 23 years of coaching
 Roger Reid had 6 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 G. Ott Romney had 5 seasons of 20 wins in 9 years of coaching
 Steve Cleveland had 4 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 Dave Rose has 3 seasons of 20 wins in 3 years of coaching
 Ladell Anderson had 3 seasons of 20 wins in 6 years of coaching
 Frank Arnold had 3 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 Floyd Millet had 1 season of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching

REGULAR-SEASON BENCHMARKS FOR NCAA INVITES

Winning 20 or more games in the regular season has proven to be a significant indicator for receiving an invitation into the NCAA Tournament. Since the first NCAA Tournament in 1939, BYU has had 21 seasons with 20 regular-season wins, including this year's team. In those 20 years, BYU has earned a postseason invite each season, including 18 NCAA bids, three NIT berths (BYU played both NIT and NCAA in 1950-51) and one NAIB (1948-49) invite. In the modern era since the NCAA Tournament became the predominant championship over the NIT, BYU has had 16 seasons when it earned 20 or more wins during regular-season games (prior to starting the conference tournament). The Cougars have received an invite to play in the NCAA Tournament in 15 of those seasons, with the lone exception being the 2005-06 team that finished the regular season 20-7 and fell to 20-8 with a loss at the MWC Tournament before receiving an NIT invitation. Including this year, BYU has reached 21 regular-season wins during 12 of those 16 seasons and has been invited to play in the NCAA Tournament in each of those 12 years.

COUGARS IN CONFERENCE

With their win against Wyoming, the Cougars secured their 27th regular-season league title. The outright Mountain West Conference crown is the second straight for BYU, making the Cougars the only team in league history to win two outright conference crowns, let alone back-to-back titles. Prior to their current run, the last time the Cougars won back-to-back outright league titles was in the 1978-79 and 1979-80 seasons. With four total MWC titles (two outright and two shared), BYU has tied Utah (one outright, three shared) for the most MWC crowns. BYU basketball boasts a remarkable record of conference success during its history. After earning its 27th regular-season conference championship in 2008, the Cougars are tied for ninth among all NCAA Division I programs for most regular-season league titles won (SEE CHART AT LEFT). Including conference tournaments, BYU has claimed a conference championship trophy during 28 seasons. The Cougars won the 1991 WAC Tournament after a second-place regular-season finish. Other conference tournament titles in 1992 (WAC) and 2001 (MWC) have followed up regular-season rings, as was the case with conference playoff wins in 1924 and 1933 in the Rocky Mountain Conference. BYU won six Rocky Mountain Conference titles in 20 years, earned five Skyline championships in 24 years, recorded 12 WAC crowns in 37 years and has garnered MWC honors in four of the league's first nine seasons. BYU won the in-state title against rivals Utah and Utah State during 10 of the 12 years before the Cougars first joined a conference in 1918.

COACH ROSE OWNS TOP MWC MARK

With a 39-9 record in Mountain West Conference games since taking the helm of the BYU program for the 2005-06 season, Dave Rose is currently the winningest MWC coach in league play in the past three years. UNLV's Lon Kruger is 36-14 and SDSU's Steve Fisher is 32-16. In addition to this year's 14-2 MWC record, Rose coached the Cougars to a 13-3 league and 25-9 overall record last year, earning Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year honors for the second consecutive season. He was named the MWC and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year in his first season after coaching BYU to a second-place MWC finish at 12-4 while turning a 9-21 team into a 20-9 success—which proved to be the second-best improvement among all Division I programs.

COUGARS SET RECORD FOR REGULAR-SEASON WINS

This year's BYU team set the program record for regular-season wins, becoming the first Cougar squad ever to achieve 25 victories prior to the start of postseason play. Three BYU teams reached the 24-win mark while last year's Cougars racked up 23 wins in the regular season. (SEE CHART AT LEFT)

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID ...

RICK PITINO, LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH

"Tavernari was terrific. He takes a lot of challenged shots. If you have a guy making big shots like that, it is a big help. BYU is a very good team. We were looking forward to play UNC too, but I think that BYU is a better team."

ROY WILLIAMS, NORTH CAROLINA HEAD COACH

"BYU is a big-time basketball team ... It was a hard-fought game all around. BYU is very sound fundamentally. They were able to box out on the boards just as well as anyone we have seen so far."

"Plaisted was sensational in the second half. Our plan coming out of the locker room was not to double team in the post because he is a good passer too, but he took it to us with a superb second half."

"I told both Tavernari and Plaisted that they are big-time players. I can admire the way that Tavernari plays. You look at Plaisted's numbers, 24 and 17, those are big-time numbers."

TOM IZZO, MICHIGAN STATE HEAD COACH

"I am very impressed with BYU ... This was a good road win versus a very quality opponent that I fully expect to be in the NCAA Tournament. This is a very good BYU team. I think they can go a long way, and I am sure they will."

DINO GAUDIO, WAKE FOREST HEAD COACH

"I thought that was a terrific, terrific win for us against a very, very good basketball team. That's an NCAA tournament team. They'll be back in the Top 25. I thought they were very, very good. They'll be dancing in March."

DICK VITALE, ESPN ANALYST

"I'll tell you what my friends, he (Trent Plaisted) is the best big man in America nobody knows about. Remember that name, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted."

"(Plaisted's) been dominant on the glass, scored big in the second half and showed an assortment of moves. I gotta believe he's going to be the best big player in the Mountain West Conference. I can't believe anyone could be better."

"Dave Rose, a former Houston Cougar, is doing a heck of a job now at BYU ... They're going to have another big year this year ... What an outstanding basketball team. I don't care what the score ends up here ... that club is going to be a factor (in the NCAA Tournament)."

"When you look at BYU, they're one of the most outstanding teams in America nobody knows about. They have some outstanding players who can really run the court."

"Tavernari can flat out shoot the jumper ... Tavernari has done a great job."

"Cummard really fills up the stat sheet. Nothing spectacular, just steady play."

"I love the way they move the basketball. They share it, and it's a team concept."

DAN SHULMAN, ESPN ANALYST

"After tonight, he (Plaisted) is going to be the big man in America that everyone knows about."

"The score will not reflect how close this game was tonight."

BYU AND THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

The BYU men's basketball team re-entered the top-25 rankings in the prior three weeks before dropping out of the polls after losing at UNLV in the MWC Title game. BYU is listed 27th in this week's ESPN/USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll and 28th in AP. The Cougars previously fell out of the top-25 polls released on Dec. 31 after a 73-70 road loss at Boise State. BYU appeared in the top-25 rankings the previous five weeks. In the Dec. 24 polls, BYU was ranked 20th in the AP Poll and 21st in the Coaches Poll. This season BYU first entered the national rankings on Nov. 26, earning the program's earliest appearance in the national polls since the 1980-81 season when the Cougars entered the rankings at No. 21 in the AP Poll and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll. In his third year guiding the program, Rose has seen his team earn the respect of the national voters for the second consecutive season. Last year, BYU entered the polls on Feb. 19 to receive the program's first national ranking since 1993. BYU finished last year ranked No. 24 in the final AP Poll, something a Cougar team had not accomplished since 1988. BYU has now been ranked in back-to-back season for the first time since 1980-81 and 1981-82. The Nov. 26 entry into the national rankings marks the earliest the Cougars have been included in the polls since receiving a No. 18 ranking in the 1980-81 AP preseason poll. It also marked the first time BYU's football and men's basketball teams have been nationally ranked the same week in the AP poll since Dec. 28, 1992. The Cougar basketball program has now been ranked in the AP Poll during 16 seasons since its first national ranking in 1950-51 (see list below).

BYU AS A RANKED TEAM

BYU owns a 142-58 record as a ranked team. The Cougars are 81-12 at home, 38-29 on the road and 23-17 at neutral sites when nationally ranked. BYU's victory at Portland on Dec. 1 marked the Cougars' first road win as a ranked team since an 84-63 victory at UTEP on March 4, 1993 when BYU was ranked No. 21. BYU is 15-6 as a ranked team under Dave Rose.

VS. RANKED TEAMS

BYU's victory over No. 6 Louisville on Nov. 23 marked the highest-ranked team the Cougars have defeated since beating No. 2 St. Joseph's, 103-83, on Dec. 21, 1965. BYU is now 50-111 all-time against teams ranked in the Associated Press Poll and 1-2 this season including a 73-63 loss to No. 1 North Carolina in the championship game of the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Invitational on Nov. 24 and a 68-61 loss to No. 9 Michigan State at EnergySolutions Arena in Salt Lake City on Dec. 8. Prior to the UNC game, the Cougars had not faced the nation's top-ranked team since Dec. 23, 1992, an 89-66 loss to No. 1 Duke at the Maui Invitational. The Cougars were 3-3 in their games vs. ranked teams last year with a 78-70 loss at then-No. 25 and eventual Sweet-16 participant UNLV in the MWC Tournament Championship game, a 62-58 victory at then-No. 20 Air Force, a 90-63 win over then-No. 25 UNLV, a 61-52 win over then-No. 13 Air Force, an 82-69 loss at then-No. 5 UCLA and a 76-61 neutral court loss against then-No. 25 Michigan St.

PLAYING THE BEST

BYU's game against No. 9 Michigan State on Dec. 8 was its third game in three weeks against a top-10 opponent, including a victory over No. 6 Louisville on Nov. 23 and a loss to No. 1 North Carolina on Nov. 24. BYU has played at least three regular-season games against top-10 opponents in a season just six times previously in program history with the last coming in 1983-84. Only twice previously have the Cougars played three top-10 teams during a three-week stretch, once in 1990-91 with a loss to No. 9 Utah on March 2, a win over No. 8 Utah on March 9 in the WAC Tournament and a loss to No. 8 Arizona on March 16 in the NCAA Tournament and once in 1980-81 with a victory over No. 9 Utah on March 7 in the WAC Tournament, a win over No. 10 UCLA on March 14 in the NCAA Tournament, a victory over No. 7 Notre Dame on March 19 in the NCAA Tourney and a loss to No. 5 Virginia on March 21 in the NCAAs.

DEFENDING THE HOME COURT

BYU has won a school-record 47 straight games in the Marriott Center. The Cougars set the record with their 67-59 win over Utah in the Marriott Center on Feb. 20, their 45th straight home win. The streak also ranks first nationally. The Cougars are 16-0 at home this year and won 17 home games last season after going 14-1 at home in 2005-06. BYU's last home loss was in the 2005-06 season opener against Loyola Marymount. BYU has since won 23 straight over nonconference opponents and 24 consecutive over MWC foes. BYU's last league loss at home was its season finale in 2005 to UNLV. BYU is 419-116 (.783) all-time in the Marriott Center, and Cougar head coach Dave Rose is 47-1. Prior to the current streak, BYU's longest homecourt victory streak was 44 games from Feb 19, 2000 to Jan 16, 2003.

ON THE ROAD

The Cougars are 8-5 in true road games this year with a 6-2 record in Mountain West Conference play, tying league records in both categories. With a 3-2 record on neutral courts, BYU is 11-7 this season away from home. The Cougars have won eight of their last 10 contests away from the Marriott Center. BYU won five of its last seven games on the road last season including a win at then-No. 20 Air Force (62-58), snapping the Falcons' 30-game home winning streak. BYU was 6-7 on the road last year and 5-3 in conference play, becoming the only MWC team with a winning record on the road in league play last year.

BOUNCEBACK COUGARS

With the Cougars' 70-69 win at New Mexico coming on the heels of a loss at San Diego State, BYU has bounced back from all six of its losses this season with wins. BYU recovered from a setback against No. 1 North Carolina with a victory at Portland, a loss vs. then-No. 9 Michigan State with a win over Lamar, a loss at Boise State with a triumph against Loyola Marymount, a defeat at Wake Forest with a victory over Colorado State and a loss at UNLV with a win at Utah. The Cougars have won their bounceback games by an average margin of 16.3 points. BYU head coach Dave Rose has only lost back-to-back regular-season games once in his Cougar career (vs. then-No. 25 Michigan State and at Lamar in 2006-07).

MAGIC NUMBER: 70

BYU is 22-1 when scoring at least 70 points this year and 23-2 when holding opponents under the 70-point mark. The Cougars' 55-52 win at Utah marked the first time this season BYU has won a game when scoring less than 70 points. BYU has since won six of its last eight games when scoring under 70 points. The Cougars have scored 90 or more points in five games this season, reaching 100 against Jackson State, and are 10-0 when scoring over 80 points on the year.

CLEANING THE GLASS

BYU has won the battle of the boards in 23 games this year, going 21-2 in those contests. The Cougars have tied an opponent on the boards twice this year, both times against SDSU. BYU is besting opponents by an average of 4.8 boards per contest, leading the league in rebounding margin and rebound average (39.0). The Cougars posted a season-high +19 rebounding margin (38-19) against Hartford as four Cougars pulled down at least five rebounds. BYU began the season with a 55-40 rebounding advantage at Long Beach State, matching last year's season high of 55 boards against Seton Hall. Five Cougars posted at least six rebounds in BYU's win over Lamar, marking the first time since Jan. 8, 2005 that feat has been done.

BALANCED SCORING

BYU has had five players score in double figures in a game five times this season, surpassing last year's total of three games in which at least five players reached double digits. Five different Cougars have led the team in scoring with Lee Cumnard pacing BYU a team-best 16 times.

FOUR FRESHMEN

Four Cougar freshman are making an impact this year as Chris Collinsworth, Jimmer Fredette, Michael Loyd, Jr. and Nick Martineau have all made a difference for BYU. Collinsworth is fourth for BYU with 4.9 rebounds per game while ranking tied for 13th among MWC players in conference play at 5.3 rpg. He has started six games. Fredette is fifth on the team in scoring with 6.9 ppg and tied for third in steals with 27. Loyd is averaging 8.8 minutes per game and has posted 37 assists on the year. Martineau has 14 assists to 9 turnovers in his 20 games played.

TOP OF THE HEAP

Lee Cummard has done as much for his team in the most variety of ways this season than any other player in the MWC. In conference play, Cummard ranked in the top 10 in nine of the 12 MWC statistical categories. New Mexico's J.R. Giddens ranked in the top 10 in eight categories and Utah's Luke Nevill ranked among the top 10 in seven categories. BYU's Trent Plaisted is joined by two other players—Lorenzo Wade (SDSU) and Brandon Ewing (Wyo)—with six top-10 rankings. Cummard not only produces more numbers across the stat sheet than anyone in the conference but also does so more efficiently, averaging less playing time per game than Giddens, Wade and Ewing.

FROM DOWNTOWN

With 278 three-pointers this season, the Cougars have set a new program record, surpassing the old mark of 256 treys set last year. BYU has posted double-digit triples in a game 11 times this year and has made at least five three-pointers in 32 of 34 games this season. The Cougars recorded the sixth-best three-point shooting percentage in program history with 81.3 percent accuracy (13-of-16) against New Mexico, which is also an MWC record in league games. Individually, Lee Cummard and Jonathan Tavernari have each made a three-pointer in 31 of 34 games this season while Sam Burgess has done so in 27 contests and Jimmer Fredette in 23. Tavernari broke the Cougars' single-season three-point record of 74 with 85 treys so far this season. The mark is also a Mountain West Conference sophomore record. Including 85 from Tavernari, 58 from Cummard and 56 from Burgess, this season marks the first time in program history that a Cougar basketball team has had three players with at least 50 threes in the same season.

FOR STARTERS

Seniors Ben Murdock and Sam Burgess along with juniors Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted have started all 34 games this year while sophomore Jonathan Tavernari has made 28 starts and freshman Chris Collinsworth has started six contests.

BYU PLAYER OF THE WEEK

LEE CUMMARD (MARCH 17) — Junior guard Lee Cummard earned All-Mountain West Conference Tournament honors last week for his efforts in leading BYU to the MWC Tournament Championship game. In BYU's three games, Cummard averaged 16.3 points per game, 5.7 rebounds per contest and 4.7 assists per outing, leading the Cougars in scoring and assists. He shot 59.3 percent from the field, including making 6-of-9 (.667) three-point attempts, and went 11-for-12 (.917) from the free-throw line. The MWC Co-Player of the Year began the week with a game-high 18 points vs. Colorado State in BYU's 89-62 quarterfinal victory. He went 6-for-9 from the field, including 3-for-4 from three-point range, and dished out a team-best seven assists. He once again led the Cougars with 20 points in a 63-54 semifinal win over San Diego State, his 11th 20+-point outing of the season, while going 6-for-6 from the free-throw line. He also brought down seven rebounds. Cummard scored in double figures for the 31st time in 34 games with 11 points at UNLV in the Championship game and once again led BYU with four assists.

1,000 POINT CLUB

Junior Lee Cummard will join the 1,000 Point Club with his next point as he currently has 999 career points. With 22 points against Lamar, junior Trent Plaisted became the 37th member of BYU's elite 1,000 Point Club, joining such Cougar greats as Danny Ainge, Michael Smith, Devin Durrant, Fred Roberts, Kresimir Cosic and Andy Toolson to score at least 1,000 points in their Cougar careers. Plaisted now has 1,359 career points, 14th on BYU's all-time scoring list. Before Plaisted, Keena Young was the most recent addition to the club as he posted 1,068 points during his three-year BYU stint from 2005-07. Of four-year players, Plaisted is just the 10th Cougar to reach the 1,000-point milestone as a junior. The last four-year player to reach 1,000 points as a junior was Mark Bigelow with 1,312 following the 2002-03 season. Plaisted also has 671 career rebounds, making him just the 11th player overall to record at least 1,000 career points and 600 career rebounds.

BURGESS COMIN' UP BIG

Senior co-captain Sam Burgess is making the most of his final BYU campaign as he is fourth on the team in scoring (8.8), fourth in field-goal shooting among players with at least 60 attempts (.445) and third in assists (2.0) while ranking second on the team in three-point shooting (.424). He has increased his scoring total from last season by 5.2 ppg while averaging 17.3 more minutes per game. His 15 double-figure scoring games this year has more than doubled last year's mark of four double-digit scoring outings. Burgess has started all 33 games this season after starting just one game in his two prior seasons as a Cougar. He is averaging 10.6 points and 4.5 rebounds per game in the last eight contests.

.800 CLUB

BYU boasts four players who are making 80 percent or more of their free-throw attempts this year (Jimmer Fredette, .854; Jonathan Tavernari, .867; Lee Cummard, .855; Sam Burgess, .826). Lee Cummard made a career- and team-season-high 21 straight free throws before missing his first attempt vs. SDSU. He earlier had made 19 straight before a miss against Southern Utah, meaning he had made 40 of 41 attempts (97.6 percent) over that stretch. He has been perfect at the line in 14 of 27 games he has gone to the line this year.

WINNING BIG

The Cougars' 27 victories this year have come by an average margin of 16.9 points, including a season-opening 40-point road win at Long Beach State (74-34), one of 20 double-digit wins for BYU this season and one of nine victories by over 20 points. The win over the 49ers marked BYU's largest margin of victory over a Division I opponent since defeating Morgan State by 41 points (110-69) on Dec. 28, 1995. Including BYU's five losses, the Cougars still boast a scoring margin of 11.7 points this year. With that mark, the Cougars are on pace to record their highest margin of victory since 1966 (+12.6) and the third-highest in program history. BYU won 17 games by double-digits last year, including seven by 20 or more points, and was the only team in the Mountain West Conference to not have a regular-season game decided by less than four points.

VICTORY STREAK

BYU had a season-best nine-game win streak end with a loss at SDSU. The victories were at Utah, vs. San Diego State, vs. New Mexico, at Air Force, at Wyoming, vs. TCU, at Colorado State, against UNLV and vs. Utah. That mark was tied for seventh nationally and was the Cougars' longest victory string since also winning nine straight in the 2003-04 season. BYU won six straight games after the SDSU loss until losing at UNLV in the MWC Tournament Championship game.

THIS YEAR'S LOSSES

BYU's seven losses this year have come on neutral floors against then-No. 1 North Carolina and then-No. 9 Michigan State and on the road at Boise State, at Wake Forest, at UNLV and at SDSU. BYU held double-digit leads over Michigan State, Boise State and UNLV and battled the top-rated Tar Heels through six second-half lead changes. North Carolina (32-2), Michigan State (25-8), Boise State (25-8), Wake Forest (17-13), UNLV (26-7) and San Diego State (20-12) have a combined 145-50 record for a .744 winning percentage as of games played March 15.

FROM THE FIELD

BYU is shooting 46.0 percent from the field this season while allowing opponents to shoot just 38.6 percent from the floor (No. 1 in the MWC). Overall, the Cougars have shot above 50 percent in 11 games this year. BYU has shot above 50 percent in the first half of 11 games this season and in the second half of 14 contests, totaling 25 halves of play with a shooting percentage of 50 percent higher, including eight above 60 percent. The Cougars posted a season-high 62.5 percent efficiency against Colorado State in the MWC Tournament bolstered by 73.9 percent shooting (17-for-23) in the second half. Individually, Lee Cummard and Trent Plaisted rank No. 1 and No. 3, respectively, among MWC players in field-goal percentage at 56.9 and 54.1 percent and 30th and 51st, respectively, in the national rankings as of March 13.

HALFTIME REPORT

The Cougars are 25-3 this season when leading at the half with 15 of the 28 advantages coming by double digits. No. 1 North Carolina, Wake Forest, UNLV, San Diego State and New Mexico are the only teams this season to post a halftime lead against BYU. The Cougars are besting opponents by an average of 7.2 points in the first period of play while scoring at least 40 points in the first half of 10 of 34 games this season. BYU has scored at least 30 points in the first half of 27 of 34 games while holding opponents under 30 points 22 times. The Cougars' 36-12 lead at the break at Long Beach State marked their largest halftime advantage since being up by 28 points (51-23) against Western Oregon on Dec. 22, 2006. The 12 points given up by BYU in the first 20 minutes of the game at LBSU marked the fewest points allowed in a half by the Cougars since allowing a record-low 10 points against Air Force in 2003. BYU has topped 40 points in the second half of 14 games this year while surpassing the 50-point mark in the second half four times.

PAINTING THE TOWN

The Cougars have outscored their opponents in the paint in 18 games and equaled them in two others this year, recording a +3.2 margin in that category. BYU has posted a double-digit margin in 11 games, including a season-best +38 margin (54-16) against Jackson State. The Cougars are 17-1 when besting opponents in the paint while six of BYU's seven losses on the season have come when the Cougars have been outscored in the paint.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE MISCUE

Despite recording a -0.6 turnover margin with their opponents on the year, the Cougars have outscored foes in points off of turnovers in 21 games this season, posting a +3.3 scoring margin in that category. BYU scored a season-best 26 points off of turnovers against Loyola Marymount and equaled that mark in its win over Colorado State in the MWC Tournament quarterfinals.

FAST AND FURIOUS

BYU has outscored opponents in transition in 24 games, equaled them three times and been outpaced only seven times. The Cougars average 4.2 more fastbreak points than their opponents. The Cougars scored a season-best 20 fastbreak points against Jackson State while tying their season high with a +16 margin. Five of BYU's deficits in that category came in losses against No. 1 North Carolina (0-4), against No. 9 Michigan State (0-4) and at Wake Forest (0-8) and wins at Air Force (0-2) and at New Mexico (2-6).

FROM THE BENCH

BYU's reserves have outscored the opposition's bench only 13 times this year, but they have done it in 11 of the last 23 games after seven straight contests with a scoring deficit off the bench. On the whole, the BYU bench is tallying 628 points or 18.5 points per game. BYU's leading scorer off the bench is freshman guard Jimmer Fredette, who is averaging 6.9 points per game. He had 14 points against Utah, his highest scoring output in conference play. He stepped up at Wake Forest, tying for team-high honors with 15 points off the bench and posted 17 points at UNLV in the MWC Championship game. Chris Collinsworth had a career-high 12 points off the bench in BYU's win over Colorado State in the MWC Tournament quarterfinals.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

Including a game-high lead of 11 points at UNLV in the MWC Championship game, the Cougars have posted a double-digit lead in 26 of 34 games and have led by more than 20 points in 16 games and more than 30 points in five contests. The Cougars have led wire-to-wire in 14 games this season.

REDSHIRTS

IVANOVIC TABBED FOR SERBIAN NATIONAL TEAM

BYU senior Vuk Ivanovic was selected to play on the Serbian National Team for the European Championship. The 6-foot-10 forward/center was one of 32 players on the Serbian roster, including NBA veterans Marko Jaric (Minnesota Timberwolves), Darko Milicic (Memphis Grizzlies) and Sasha Pavlovic (Cleveland Cavaliers). "Vuk answered my call while he was in the lab and couldn't believe that I was calling him to play for the national team," said newly appointed Serbian coach Zoran Slavnic in an interview reported by PA SportsTicker. "We need that kind of patriot, those who love their country, who are ready to play for it and who are great players." Serbia played in Group A of the EuroBasket, which began on Sept. 3, along with defending-champion Greece and Russia. Due to his commitment to the National Team, Ivanovic did not participate in BYU's foreign tour to France Aug. 15-25.

SUMMER FOREIGN TOUR A SUCCESS

The BYU men's basketball team completed a five-game, 11-day foreign tour of France and Monaco in August with a perfect 5-0 record. The Cougars impressed the opposition by scoring 89.2 points per game for a 23.4 average margin of victory. "It was a great trip," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "From a coach's perspective it went just as we wanted. Everyone got to play, and we really played well and shot the ball well." Sophomore forward Jonathan Tavernari paced the team in the scoring column, pouring in 21.4 points per game. Junior forward/center Trent Plaisted followed in point production after his injury-shortened final outing dropped his scoring average of 20.6 over the first three games to 17.5 points for the trip. Tavernari shot 47.8 percent on the trip, including .439 accuracy on threes while making a team-high 15 triples. He added 5.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. Plaisted converted a blazing 65.1 percent of his field-goal attempts and pulled down a team-best 10.3 rebounds per game. Junior guard Lee Cumnard recorded three double-double outings and nearly posted a triple-double while averaging 14.4 points and 9.8 rebounds. Cumnard added 4.6 assists per contest while shooting 60.9 from the floor. He had highs of 19 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists. Senior guard Sam Burgess scored in double figures in every contest, including 22 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead the team in its last game, which BYU played without Plaisted while he nursed an ankle sprain. Burgess averaged 15 points, 3.6 rebounds and a team-leading 5.2 assists while shooting .615 from the field and .421 from long range. Senior Ben Murdock ran the point while averaging 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists and made a team-best .474 from behind the three-point arc. Junior forward/center Gavin MacGregor had a strong showing with averages of 10 points, 8.2 rebounds and a team-high .710 shooting percentage. Recently returned missionary Chris Miles, a sophomore forward/center, added 4.2 ppg and 4.2 rpg while senior point guard Chase Ulicny pitched in 0.8 ppg, 1.6 rpg and 1.2 apg. BYU started the trip by defeating the Paris All-Stars, 90-68, on Aug. 17 before earning an 89-59 victory over Lyon BBC on Aug. 20. The next night the Cougars played again in Lyon, defeating Saint Etienne, a Pro B level squad, by a score of 92-73. BYU downed Golfe-Juan in Cannes, 89-68, on Aug. 23 before finishing with an 86-61 victory over AS Monaco on Aug. 24. The team also had the chance to do some sightseeing in France and Monaco. The Cougars spent time in Paris visiting the Eiffel Tower and other sites such as the Louvre Museum and Notre Dame Cathedral. They enjoyed the opportunity to attend Church in Paris. The Cougars also visited Cannes and Monaco before returning home. "The trip was great," Tavernari said. "We got a lot closer as a team, and we got to see some sites. But most important was that we got to practice and play games and get an early start on the season as we get ready to defend our Mountain West Conference title."

MEN'S BASKETBALL HONORED FOR HIGH ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The NCAA honored the BYU men's basketball team with a public recognition award for the Cougars' Academic Progress Rate scores. BYU posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country. "The athletes have really worked hard at striving to be good students," said E.J. Caffaro, Student Athlete Academic Center director and men's basketball academic coach. "We've worked hard to put together a strong academic program. Their high score is a result of their hard work and the success of that program." Out of the 336 Division I men's basketball programs in the country, BYU is one of 35 to be honored by the NCAA and the only basketball team from Mountain West Conference to receive the recognition. The Cougars are also one of only 10 teams to earn high academic achievement and also qualify for the past year's NCAA Tournament. Other NCAA Tournament teams who also received public recognition awards were Belmont (NCAA No. 15 seed), Holy Cross (No. 13 seed), Davidson (No. 13 seed), Illinois (No. 12 seed), North Carolina (No. 1 seed), Notre Dame (No. 6 seed), Pennsylvania (No. 14 seed), Villanova (No. 9 seed) and Xavier (No. 9 seed).

BURGESS, CUMMARD, PLAISTED NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

BYU men's basketball head coach Dave Rose has announced that senior Sam Burgess and juniors Trent Plaisted and Lee Cummard have been selected to serve as captains on this year's team. "Each of our captains have qualities we really want in all of our players," Rose said. "Sam is a hard worker and tough competitor who leads by example. Trent and Lee have proven their leadership ability both on and off the court over the past two years." Both Cummard and Plaisted are two year starters who received all-conference accolades last season after helping the Cougars win their first outright league title since 1988 and achieve their first national ranking since 1993. A two-time All-MWC Second Team selection and Freshman All-American, Plaisted was second on the team last year in both scoring (12.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.2 rpg). The junior forward/center from San Antonio scored in double figures 21 times while posting three double-doubles on the year in 33 starts. Cummard was named to the All-MWC Third Team last season after starting every game for the Cougars. He averaged 9.4 points, third on the team, on a team-best .553 shooting mark from the field. The junior guard from Mesa, Ariz., also led the team in steals and minutes, was second in assists and blocks and was third in rebounds with 5.6 per contest. He ranked among the top 15 in the conference in seven statistical categories. After redshirting the 2005-06 season, Burgess provided a spark off the bench for the Cougars last year, playing in 31 of 34 games and averaging 3.6 points and 1.5 rebounds in 10.2 minutes of action. The senior guard from Alpine, Utah, came on especially strong during BYU's run to the conference championship, playing double-digit minutes in eight of the Cougars' last 12 outings. The best-conditioned perimeter player on the team the past two seasons, Burgess averaged 15.0 points and 5.2 assists per game while shooting .615 from the floor during BYU's successful tour of France over the summer.

SIGNING DAY

Forward Noah Hartssock and guard/forward Charles Abouo (pronounced a-BOO-oh) have signed National Letters of Intent while guard Jackson Emery has signed a scholarship agreement to return to the Cougars. Hartssock, who previously signed with BYU out of high school, and Emery, who played for the Cougars as a freshman in 2005-06, are both currently serving as missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. "I feel really good about this group of players," Rose said. "Jackson was an important part of our success as a freshman and got a lot of good experience that he will build upon when he returns. Noah and Charles are both talented student-athletes who will add a lot to our program." A native of Bartlesville, Okla., the 6-foot-8 Hartssock had the third-best scoring average in the state with 27.6 points per game as a senior at Bartlesville High School in 2005-06 while earning 6A Coaches Player of the Year and Tulsa World Player of the Year honors. Oklahoma's Jim Thorpe Award winner and a McDonald's High School All-America nominee, Hartssock added 8.0 rebounds and 3.7 blocks per contest as a senior. An extremely athletic wing from Logan, Utah, Abouo is averaging double figures, including a team-high 17 points in his last outing, for Brewster Academy (Wolfeboro, N.H.) this year after helping Logan High School win Region 11 titles in each of his three varsity seasons. The 6-foot-4 swingman was named the 3A MVP by the Deseret Morning News last spring after averaging 21.1 points, 10.2 rebounds and 3.2 steals per game as a senior at Logan High School. Described as explosive and athletic, Abouo was a two-time first-team all-state selection at LHS who also earned All-Valley Player of the Year honors as a junior in 2005-06 when he averaged 15.6 ppg, 7.7 rpg and 1.1 bpg. Known for his competitiveness and clutch play, Emery is a quick player and solid defender with outstanding leaping ability. The Alpine, Utah, native provided a consistent spark for BYU and was a top perimeter defender as a true freshman in 2005-06, playing in 28 of 29 games with six starts. He averaged 2.8 points and 1.5 rebounds while scoring in double figures twice and leading BYU in rebounds and assists once each. A good shooter from long range, Emery also has the athleticism and creativity to convert inside when going to the basket. The 6-foot-3 guard out of Lone Peak High School was named the top player in Class 4A in 2005 and received the 2005 Mr. Basketball Award (Deseret Morning News), given to the athlete considered to be the top high school player in Utah.

INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS AT BYU

- Including junior transfer Archie Rose, 27 international players have played basketball at BYU.
- The Cougars have had an international player on their varsity roster in 36 of the past 56 years.
- In the last six years, BYU has rostered seven international players, including three on this season's team – Vuk Ivanovic (Serbia), Jonathan Tavernari (Brazil) and Archie Rose (Bahamas).
- Foreign players at BYU have received eight all-conference citations, two conference player of the year awards (Timo Saarelainen – 1985, Rafael Araujo – 2004) and eight All-America citations (Kresimir Cosic – 1972 and 1973, Rafael Araujo – 2004).
- According to a book about basketball in Finland by Mikko Simon, BYU has the distinction of being the first NCAA Division I school to have an overseas player on its roster when Timo Lampen, a native of Lahti, Finland, took the court for the Cougars in 1960-61.
- BYU also boasts the first foreign All-American in Kresimir Cosic, whose BYU jersey was retired on March 4. The Zadar, Yugoslavia, native played on the Cougar varsity team from 1971-73 and earned six All-America citations and three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference awards. He is the only BYU player to be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. Cosic passed away in 1995.
- During the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, CBS Television analyst Billy Packer singled out Cosic during a discussion of the quality of international players now playing college basketball. Said Packer, "Kresimir Cosic, who played for BYU, was really the first great international player to play basketball in the United States."

COUGARS BRING CHRISTMAS CHEER TO LOCAL FAMILIES

PROVO, Utah (Dec. 19, 2007) – For the ninth year, the BYU men's basketball team joined the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation in an effort to raise money for families who have children with cancer and participate in the Foundation's annual Christmas party for those families. The Foundation has been collecting monetary donations and unwrapped toys since the beginning of December. One hundred percent of all donations to the Foundation went directly towards the Christmas party, which was held Wednesday for more than 90 families who have children with cancer living primarily in Utah County. A large portion of the money donated purchased hundreds of toys that will enable these parents to have gifts under the Christmas tree for their children. In addition to all of these toys, there was food, free entertainment, such as games and ornament decorating, and local celebrities including Santa, Cosmo and the BYU men's basketball team. This is the ninth year BYU coaches, players and their families have volunteered for the Christmas party. BYU head coach Dave Rose served as Honorary Chairman for the third year. "This has always been a cause I feel strongly about," said BYU coach Dave Rose. "It has been such a positive experience for the coaches, players and families and is a tremendous opportunity for community members to be involved in brightening the holiday season for these children." Cheryl Rose, vice chairman of the Foundation and wife of coach Rose, discussed the challenges these families face financially and how the Foundation hopes to help these families now and in the future. "For many of these families, it is financially impossible to always have food on the table, a roof over their heads or even have Christmas," Cheryl Rose said. "We want to create a Christmas experience that they will never forget and hopefully in the future help families meet those basic needs that they can't on their own." In addition to the presents the families received, Rose said the event is also a blessing for all of those involved. "This is the most exciting part of my job as the coach's wife," she said. "It's such a joy to be involved. Our lives are blessed so much by what happens here. We love these families and these children." Of course, the party, which started with just 15 families 10 years ago, would not be possible without the donations made by community members. "The support we get from the community makes this event possible," Cheryl Rose said. "We couldn't serve these children without the donations of time, money and gifts we receive. We even had some school children this year who drew pictures for the kids because they didn't have any money to donate but wanted to help. It's such an amazing experience to see the outpouring of love and support we get from the community. It really helps these parents know that they're not fighting this fight alone."

INJURY UPDATE

Senior Vuk Ivanovic will be out indefinitely due to a foot injury suffered in practice prior to the start of Mountain West Conference play. An MRI exam conducted revealed a fracture in his left foot. The 6-foot-10 senior forward/center from Pancevo, Serbia, played in BYU's first 15 games this season. He averaged 3.3 points and 2.4 rebounds off the bench for the Cougars this year while recording season highs of 10 points and nine rebounds. Junior center Gavin Macgregor has been out all season with a foot injury. Junior Archie Rose missed one game with a broken nose and is wearing a protective mask.

A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Dave Rose has guided BYU to consecutive 20-win seasons and the program's first national ranking since 1993 after succeeding Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose coached last year's team to a 25-9 overall record and the MWC regular-season title (13-3) while earning his second consecutive MWC Coach of the Year award. He was district and conference coach of the year in his first season at the Cougar helm in 2005-06. Taking over a 9-21 team, Rose's Cougar squad was picked to finish last in his first season in the Mountain West Conference (preseason poll of MWC media members) but BYU instead earned a 20-9 record and NIT bid in 2005-06.

06 under Rose's tutelage, including a 12-4 conference mark to tie for second place. His team ranked second nationally for the most improvement over the year before.

Rose was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year and received honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com. He was named MWC Coach of the Year by the league's media and coaches and by CollegeInsider.com. In a column on ESPN.com, Pat Forde listed Rose as one of the top first-year coaches in the nation, ranking Rose No. 3 among the nearly 40 first-year coaches in college basketball in 2005-06.

Rose, who served the prior eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant in Provo, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. Rose served as BYU's associate head coach for five seasons and took over the Cougar program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 with Cleveland, Rose played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play in seven of the past eight seasons, including four NCAA bids, while claiming three MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. BYU was the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the four seasons Rose oversaw the defense.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose managed BYU's recruiting efforts during his eight seasons as an assistant. Rose's success as a recruiter was evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top 20 nationally. Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 10 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 10 years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year. The following is the list of player honors earned the last 10 seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Jonathan Tavernari (2006-07 MWC Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Plaisted (2005-06 MWC Freshman of the Year, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-03 Newcomer of the Year, MWC media poll, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-02 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-01 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year, All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Sellaize (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational where BYU faced that season's NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, where he compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he has recruited and coached two NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA Tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82 and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first-team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion, hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first-team all-district and All-Greater Houston and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-03 and is married to Brock Reichner. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returned in August 2005 from a two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark., and married his wife Brooke in November 2006. Rose also has a daughter, Taylor, who is a seventh grader at Centennial Middle School.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."

- Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, playing professionally in Russia

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."

- Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, playing professionally in Spain

"Dave Rose has done an outstanding job of establishing BYU as one of the premier programs in the Western United States. He's an outstanding teacher of the game, and equally important, is an outstanding person who demands the most out of his players both on and off the court. He's a credit to the coaching profession, and BYU is very fortunate to have him as its coach."

- UCLA Head Coach Ben Howland

"I'm impressed with the preparation of BYU and the poise they demonstrate. That's definitely a credit to Dave Rose and his coaching staff. Rose looks young, but he's got a lot of experience. He's done a nice job as a head coach ... He has experience at the highest levels of college basketball, both as a player and a coach."

- ESPN Game Analyst Steve Levin

WORTH NOTING

- Dave Rose has a .745 winning percentage as a college head coach (239-82), including a 27-7 record this season, a 25-9 (.735) mark last year, a 20-9 (.690) season in his first year at BYU and a 167-57 (.746) record in seven seasons at Dixie State College.
- Dave Rose was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year each of his first two seasons, becoming the first-ever BYU men's basketball coach to win back-to-back league coach-of-the-year honors.
