BYU HOSTS SOUTHERN UTAH FRIDAY AT 8 P.M.

BYU (2-1) host in-state foe Southern Utah (3-1) Friday at 8 p.m. MT in the Marriott Center. The game will be televised on the MountainWest Sports Network (the mtn.), while the radio broadcast can be heard on KSL Newsradio 102.7 FM and 1160 AM out of Salt Lake City and via the Internet at KSL.com. The Cougars are coming off back-to-back home wins over Idaho State and Portland while the Thunderbirds are coming off a home-opening win over Idaho Wednesday and already have two wins on the road this year, including a season-opening win at the University of Utah. BYU currently owns the nation's seventh-longest active homecourt winning streak at 16 games.

UP NEXT

BYU will go on the road to face Boise State Wednesday in Taco Bell Arena at 7 p.m. The game will be televised locally in Boise on KBOI.

COUGAR QUICK HITS

— Cougar head coach Dave Rose guided BYU to a 20-9 record and an NIT appearance last season in his first year at the helm after eight years as BYU's lead assistant. He was named the Mountain West Conference and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year. Rose coached his team to a second-place MWC finish — one game behind league-champion San Diego State — while turning a 9-21 team into a 20-9 success that proved to be the second-best improvement among all Division I programs.

— BYU was picked to finish second in the Mountain West Conference in the preseason MWC media poll behind reigning champion San Diego State.

— BYU's roster this season includes a solid core of returning players, including six seniors and Trent Plaisted, the MWC Freshman of the Year last year. One of nine returning lettermen, Plaisted was named a Freshman All-American after leading BYU in both scoring (13.6) and rebounding (6.9) one year ago. 2006 All-MWC Third Team forward Keena Young leads BYU this year in scoring (15.7) and rebounds (7.7).

LOOKING AT SOUTHERN UTAH

The Southern Utah Thunderbirds are 3-1 so far this season including a 76-73 win at in-state rival Utah, whom the Cougars will play at least twice this season in Mountain West Conference play, and a 77-68 loss at Boise State, whom BYU will play on Nov. 29. The Thunderbirds return five letterwinners, including one starter, from last year's 10-20 team that tied for fourth place in the Mid-Continent Conference with an 8-8 record. Senior guard Steve Barnes is SUU's lone returning starter after earning Mid-Con Honorable Mention last season. The Snow College transfer currently leads the team in scoring with 14.3 points per game on .525 shooting from the field and .500 from three-point range. Barnes also adds 4.3 rebounds per game, third on the team, while dishing out 5.5 assists per game. Daytona Beach transfer Nurudeen Adepoju, a native of Nigeria, is second on the team in scoring with 13.3 ppg on .676 shooting from the field. The junior forward is second on the team in shooting, trailing junior forward Tate Sorenson, who averages 9.8 ppg on .750 shooting from the field. Sorenson also paces the Thunderbirds in rebounds with 5.3 boards per contest. Southern Utah is without the services of its top three scorers from last season in Henry Uhegwu (13.5 ppg), Lubor Olsovsky (9.9 ppg) and Nate Janes (9.9 ppg). As a team, the Thunderbirds are averaging 71.2 ppg on .529 shooting from the field, including a .456 mark from three-point range. SUU opponents are averaging 67.0 ppg on .457 shooting from the floor. SUU outrebounds its opponents 30.5-28.3. Head coach Bill Evans is in his 15th season with the Thunderbirds and has a 196-210 overall record.

LAST OUTING — SOUTHERN UTAH DOWNS IDAHO IN HOME OPENER

CEDAR CITY, Utah (Nov. 22, 2006) - Nurudeen Adepoju scored 13 points to lead three Thunderbirds in double figures as Southern Utah used a stifling defensive effort to upend Idaho Wednesday night, 67-50. The Thunderbirds held Idaho to 16-of-44 shooting (36.4 percent), including a 7-of-21 effort in the first half when SUU built a 36-21 lead. SUU held Keoni Watson, who scored 30 and 26 in his last two games, to 12 points on 5-of-12 shooting and held the Vandals' second-leading scorer, Mario Mackey, to just four points on 1-of-6 shooting from the floor. The Thunderbirds also controlled the glass, out-rebounding Idaho 39-25, with a 12-6 edge on the offensive end. "I really liked the way we played defense tonight," SUU Coach Bill Evans said. "We did a good job getting after their shooters and I thought we disrupted what they wanted to do offensively." In addition to Adepoju, Southern Utah got double-figure scoring from Justin Allen, with 12 points and Steve Barnes with 10, while junior forward Swaney Cooper pulled down a career-best eight caroms to lead all rebounders. Cooper also blocked two shots for the Thunderbirds. "Our offense wasn't as crisp as it's been but the credit for some of that goes to Idaho," Evans said. "We didn't move the ball as well as we can but those are things you can work on in practice." With that said, Evans did note the Thunderbird shot-selection was good, pointing out the team's .500 shooting effort from the floor. "I thought we shot it better in the second half [when the team hit 11-of-21 attempts] but we took good shots for the most part," he pointed out. "We didn't do as well from the perimeter as we have, but sometimes that happens." Southern Utah wound up hitting just 4-of-12 3-point attempts, or 33.3 percent, its worst percentage of the season, but held Idaho to 2-of-11 from beyond the arc, 18.2 percent.

BYU VS. SOUTHERN UTAH SERIES NOTES

BYU has never lost to Southern Utah, owning a 9-0 all-time series lead with all nine contests coming in Provo. The two teams have met every year for the past seven seasons, including an 86-61 Cougar victory on Nov. 26, 2005 in BYU head coach Dave Rose's first season. The series began with two Cougar Classic meetings, the first of which came in 1992 with a 108-62 BYU win. The game marked the Cougars' largest margin of victory (46 points) and most points scored in the series. The Thunderbirds have never scored more than 70 points on the Cougars with their high of 67 coming in an 82-67 loss in 1994 while BYU has scored under 75 points just once in the series, a 58-52 win in 2000.

LAST YEAR VS. SUU — Hot Shooting Propels BYU over Southern Utah

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 26, 2005) - BYU extended its winning streak against in-state opponent SUU to 9-0 Saturday night with an 86-61 victory. The Cougars achieved their highest-scoring game on the season while improving to 2-1 overall. "The guys shared the ball well tonight," said BYU coach Dave Rose. "A lot of times we gave up a good shot for a better shot." Thirty-three of the Cougar's points came from behind the three-point line, with a team three-point percentage of .647, the fifth-highest three-point percentage in BYU history with a minimum of 10 attempts. BYU made a season-high 58.5 percent overall as the Cougars have now topped 50 percent shooting from the floor and from behind the arc in the past two games. The Cougars took a 37-25 lead at the half - the Cougars' highest scoring first half of the season. The Cougars started the second half with back-to-back-to-back threes, one by Broadus and two in a row by Reichner, to push the lead to 21 points. The Thunderbirds scored their first point of the half on a free throw to stop a 9-0 BYU run almost four minutes into the period, but the Cougars held them to without a field goal the first six minutes of the second half. Freshman Jackson Emery entered the game late in the half and immediately contributed to the Cougars' lead, scoring off a fast break assist by junior Austin Ainge to push the Cougar lead to 55-32. Emery also made two threes and two free throws and finished with a career-high 10 points, while Ainge totaled a career-tying eight assists on the night. The Cougars carried their momentum to the final buzzer and sent the Thunderbirds home with a 25-point defeat. The Cougars dominated the Thunderbirds across the court, finishing with 31 points in the paint compared to SUU's four. BYU added another nine off of fast breaks while SUU failed to convert in transition. "Coach Rose loves to play fast and he did," said SUU coach Bill Evans. "I think BYU shot the ball extremely well offensively. We were on the other end of the spectrum tonight." BYU had four players score in double digits, with freshman Trent Plaisted leading the pack at 13 points. Broadus added a career-high 11, while Reichner contributed another 11 and Emery tallied his career-high 10. Junior Keena Young led the Cougars on the boards bringing down five rebounds, while Ainge led the team in assists with eight. SUU was led by senior Nate Janes with 11 points and junior Henry Uhegwu with 10 points. The Thunderbirds fall to 0-5 on the year, having played all five contests on the road.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...

BYU Head Coach Dave Rose:

- "Defensively we played well tonight, but we fouled too much. Offensively we played a lot better in the second half. It took the post guys a while to get going, but once they did they played really well."
- "I was really happy with how Derek Dawes came in and played some quality minutes after not having played much. Malaman can play the three and four spot so he plays a lot of minutes. I think he is the king of minutes for us."
- "The guys shared the ball well tonight. A lot of times we gave up a good shot for a better shot."

Southern Utah Head Coach Bill Evans:

- "Coach Rose loves to play fast and he did. I think BYU shot the ball extremely well and played well offensively. We were on the other end of the spectrum tonight."

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING

- BYU's 86-61 victory gives the Cougars a 9-0 advantage in the series against Southern Utah.
- Eighty-six points is the highest point total for BYU this season and marks the most points the Cougars have scored in a game since Jan. 11, 2005 when they scored 110 against Montana State-Billings
- Junior center Derek Dawes saw his first action of the year against Southern Utah after sitting out the first two games of the season due to a shoulder injury. Dawes appeared in 29 games and started 13 games in 2004-05. Dawes also scored his first point of the season on a free throw with :57 remaining in the first half. He finished with five points.
- Redshirt freshman Jermaine Odjegba stepped onto the floor for the first time, playing for four minutes.
- BYU scored 37 points in the first half, making it the highest scoring first half of the season for the Cougars. BYU is now 2-0 when leading at halftime.
- The Cougars went on a 9-0 run in the first 3:26 to start the second half behind two three-pointers from Brock Reichner and one from Rashaun Broadus. The run was stopped by a Thunderbird free throw.
- Southern Utah did not score a field goal until 14:09 remaining in the second half.
- Rashaun Broadus scored a career-high 11 points, topping the nine points he scored in the season-opener against Loyola Marymount. Broadus went three-for-three from behind the arc.
- Freshman Jackson Emery netted a career-high 10 points on three-for-four shooting from the field and two-for-three shooting from three-point range.
- Rashaun Broadus, Jackson Emery, Brock Reichner and Trent Plaisted all scored in double figures. In last season's contest with SUU, five Cougars scored in double figures.
- Against Southern Utah, the Cougars continued their trend of getting stronger as the game goes on. Including exhibition games, BYU has yet to score 40 points in any first half, but has scored more than 40 points in every second half of play.
- As a team the Cougars shot .647 from three-point range. This is the fifth highest three-point percentage in BYU history with a minimum of 10 attempt. The Cougars made 11 three-pointers, which is the most the Cougars have made since Dec. 8, 2004 against Boise State. BYU has shot over 41 percent from behind the arc in each of its three games this season. BYU has shot 50 percent or better in the last two games.
- BYU's 58.5 percent shooting overall set a new season high, topping the 55 percent the Cougars made against Washington State on Tuesday.
- Junior Austin Ainge finished with eight assists and no turnovers to tie his career high. It marks the fourth time Ainge has totaled eight assists in a game.

BYU'S LAST OUTING — CUMMARD, BURGESS SET CAREER SCORING HIGHS TO PACE BYU

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 22, 2006) – Three Cougars scored in double figures as BYU defeated Portland, 79-50, in a 29-point rout on Wednesday in front of 8,022 fans at the Marriott Center. Lee Cumnard paced BYU with a career-high 14 points, while Keena Young and Sam Burgess each added 13 points. Young and Vuk Ivanovic led the Cougars with nine rebounds apiece. Sherrard Watson and Jamie Jones both tallied eight points apiece for Portland, and Kevin Field led all players with 11 boards. BYU got off to a hot start, jumping out to an early 9-0 lead, including five points thanks to three Cougar steals. Ivanovic netted a turnaround jumper on BYU's first possession, followed by a long two from Jimmy Balderson. On Portland's next possession, Balderson made his first theft of the night that resulted in a bucket by Young. Balderson again made a steal on the very next Pilot possession but stepped out of bounds while trying to advance the ball up court. The Cougars immediately got the ball back, however, when Austin Ainge capped the Cougar run by making a steal and feeding Cumnard for a three-pointer. Parker Emerson finally put Portland on the board at the 14:55 mark when he sank two free throws. Trent Plaisted was noticeably missing from the first five minutes of action as he is nursing a sprained ankle. On Plaisted's first possession, he netted a hook shot, extending the Cougar lead back to nine points, 11-2. Both teams traded baskets for several possessions until Walter Thompson hit a three-point shot with nine minutes to go in the half, cutting BYU's lead to two, 14-12. With 6:20 left in the first period Sam Burgess was fouled on a drive to the basket off a full-court pass from Ainge, extending the Cougar lead to five points, 22-17. On the next BYU possession, Ainge faked a three-point shot, waited for Brian McTear to fly by him and then nailed a three-pointer. Thompson hit a jumper with 15 seconds left to cut BYU's lead to seven points, 31-24, at the break. BYU continued to build on its lead to open the second period as the Cougars started the half with a 7-0 run off a free throw from Young, a bucket from Cumnard and a layup from Balderson, giving BYU a 12-point lead, 36-24. Burgess added a spark four minutes into the second period when he hit back-to-back-to-back three pointers, widening the BYU lead to 17 points, 45-28. Burgess took just 1:24 to hit all three buckets. The two teams spent a good portion trading baskets back-and-forth until the Cougars went on a 10-0 run with five minutes left in the game. Cumnard scored a tip-in basket, hit two free throws and sank a three-pointer, while Rashaun Broadus ended the run with a three-point play. BYU shot 44.4 percent from the field and 40.0 percent from behind the arc, while the Pilots shot 25 and 20 percent, respectively. The Cougars held the advantage in points in the paint (34-10), points off turnovers (21-6), second-chance points (25-4) and bench points (36-23).

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

– "We left a lot of points out there at the free-throw line and in transition. We were able to pull away in the end, but we have to work on those areas."
– "We wanted to establish Vuk (Ivanovic) as a starter with Trent Plaisted hurt this week at practice. He did well. (Rashaun Broadus) has been pressing a lot lately, but he played well tonight. Austin (Ainge) and Rashaun have a lot of experience, and they give us a lot of depth at that position."
– "We've been working on turnovers and defensive rebounds. We didn't want them to go to the line any more, so we went to zone. We haven't played a lot of zone, so we had a hard time rebounding in our zone defense."
– "Sam is just a tough competitive player. He plays with energy all the time, and he works hard all the time. I'm excited for him and our team that he had a break-out game tonight."
– "One of the strengths of our team is our perimeter shooting, but we can't go away from the inside game. We tend to do that some times, but we are working hard to establish our inside game."

Portland Head Coach Eric Reveno

– "It was a tough shooting night, and you can't let that affect other parts of your game. We were defended well in the half court, or we turned it over. You look at points off of offensive rebounds and points off of turnovers, and that's where they got a lot of their offense."
– "Once you dig yourself that hole and you're always playing from eight, 10, 12 and 15 down, then all of a sudden every basket feels so critical – especially on the road. You just have to get the mindset of taking it one possession at a time as cliché as that is. You've got to make a shot, and then make a stop. You can't just get it all back at once."
– "That was a stretch where I felt like our offense affected our defense. [BYU] can hurt you in a variety of ways, and we knew that. The scouting report is pretty easy. Just guard them like they're all shooters, and go from there. We let our offense affect our defense in that stretch."

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING

– BYU's starters were Austin Ainge, Jimmy Balderson, Lee Cumnard, Vuk Ivanovic and Keena Young. Ivanovic made his first career start while Ainge made his first start of the season. Ainge started four games last year. His last start was Jan. 25, 2006 in the Cougars' 89-80 win over TCU. Trent Plaisted and Rashaun Broadus started the second half for BYU making the second-half starters the same as the Cougars' starting lineup in their first two games.
– Having missed practice Monday and Tuesday with an ankle injury, Plaisted did not start Wednesday against Portland, marking the first game he has not started since the 2004-05 season. Plaisted started all 29 games last season for the Cougars. In 2004-05 Plaisted played in five games (starting none) before receiving a medical redshirt.
– Individual Career Highs: Sam Burgess – 13 points; Cumnard – 14 points.
– BYU scored the first nine points of the game over the first 5:05. BYU held Portland without a field goal for the first seven minutes of the game. The Pilots first scored with 14:55 to go in the half on two free throws.
– Portland's first field goal was made by Jamie Jones with 13 minutes remaining in the half.
– Seven different Cougars combined to score BYU's first 14 points. Ivanovic, Balderson, and Young each made two-point baskets before Cumnard hit a three-pointer. Trent Plaisted followed with a bucket, Rashaun Broadus made one-of-two foul shots and Sam Burgess made a reverse layup before Plaisted made a pair of foul shots to become the first BYU player to score on multiple possessions.
– Walk-on Gavin MacGregor made his first career appearance in the first half. In the second half MacGregor scored his first points as a Cougar. MacGregor also blocked a shot.
– Burgess went on a 9-0 run by himself for BYU early in the second half, hitting three three-pointers in a 1:24-span.
– BYU started the second half on a 14-4 run to give the Cougars a 45-30 lead.
– BYU forced 19 turnovers while only giving up the ball nine times. The Cougars scored 21 points off turnovers while the Pilots only managed six points off BYU turnovers.

TAVERNARI TO PLAY FRIDAY

BYU men's basketball coach Dave Rose announced Thursday that 6-foot-6 freshman forward Jonathan Tavernari will play Friday when the Cougars host Southern Utah in the Marriott Center. A native of Sao Bernardo, Brazil, Tavernari has not played in BYU's first three regular-season games as a potential redshirt while a review of his two years of high school in the United States was being conducted by the NCAA.

"We decided to redshirt Jonathan indefinitely until the matter was resolved," Rose said. "We received initial news from the NCAA that Jonathan would need to sit out three games and have been waiting to hear on the results of the complete review. We received word from the NCAA this week that their extensive review is now finished and that no further action is required. After sitting out the first three nonconference games, we have made the decision that he will not redshirt this season. He will dress and be ready to go Friday against Southern Utah."

Despite BYU seeking and obtaining appropriate approvals, Tavernari's three-game suspension stems from living with longtime family friend and current BYU assistant coach Walter Roese when Tavernari first came to the United States from Brazil.

In the spring of 2004, the Tavernari family contacted Roese, a fellow Brazilian and close family friend, to ask if Tavernari could stay with the Roese family to attend high school in Utah. Roese, then the director of men's basketball operations, sought guidance from the BYU Compliance Office, which requested and was granted permission from the Mountain West Conference Compliance Office for Tavernari to live with the Roese family for that year.

Tavernari lived with Roese's family while attending one year at Timpview High School, a public school in Provo, Utah, in 2004-05. He then completed his senior year at Bishop Gorman High School, a private school in Las Vegas, in 2005-06. After Tavernari signed with the Cougars this past spring, BYU, at the request of Coach Rose and his staff, asked the NCAA to confirm the MWC interpretation regarding Tavernari's stay in Utah with the Roese family and also review his year in Las Vegas.

The NCAA review of Tavernari's two years in the United States, both in Provo and in Las Vegas, found no issues related to any BYU staff members. The NCAA determined that despite the documented 2004 decision rendered by the MWC Compliance Office, Tavernari must pay living expenses for the year he stayed with the Roese family to a nonprofit charity and sit out three games.

"After being told the original interpretation we received was not correct, we wanted to make sure the NCAA conducted a thorough review of Jonathan's entire high school experience, including his senior year in Las Vegas," Rose said. "Jonathan's a good kid. He did everything right. We wanted to make sure there were no other issues or surprises before we made any definitive decisions about his redshirt situation this year. We appreciate the efforts of our compliance office and the NCAA in bringing closure to this matter."

Tavernari can play both the small forward and power forward positions. He averaged 7.0 points and 6.0 rebounds in 10.5 minutes of action in BYU's two exhibition games this season while making 4-of-7 three-point attempts.

AINGE, BALDERSON, YOUNG NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Coach Rose and the Cougar coaching staff have announced this year's team captains, calling upon seniors Austin Ainge, Jimmy Balderson and Keena Young to lead this year's team. "I'm proud of the way these three players have developed and of their dedication to our team," said BYU head coach Dave Rose. "They are totally committed to this program and have earned the respect and confidence of their teammates. They will provide us with good leadership as we work together as a team to achieve our goals." Ainge, a co-captain of last season's team, proved a valuable asset off the bench in 2005-06 after starting at the point guard spot and receiving All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention as a sophomore. Last season he ranked 11th in the MWC in assists while helping BYU lead the league in both scoring and assists. Balderson also provided a spark off the bench for the Cougars last season as he scored in double figures in 11 of the last 13 games and was the only player in the conference averaging more than 10 points per game off the bench with a 10.2 scoring average. Young led BYU in rebounding as a sophomore before becoming an All-MWC Third Team pick last year after starting the last 14 games of the year and ranking second on the team in rebounding (5.8 rpg) and third in scoring (10.3 ppg).

Jimmy Balderson, Keena Young and Austin Ainge gave BYU plenty of moments to celebrate in 2006.

BYU SCHEDULE INCLUDES NATIONAL RUNNER-UP UCLA, MICHIGAN STATE AND SETON HALL

The BYU men's basketball nonconference schedule includes dates with 2006 NCAA Tournament runner-up UCLA of the Pac-10 Conference, 2005 Final Four participant Michigan State of the Big Ten Conference and 2006 NCAA qualifier Seton Hall of the Big East Conference. In all, the Cougars' non-league slate includes 14 games against teams from 10 different conferences prior to beginning Mountain West Conference play.

"We are excited about our schedule," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "We look forward to the challenge of playing some of the best teams in the country and believe the BYU Holiday Classic will be a great event for our fans. This should be a balanced, competitive schedule that will help us prepare for the conference. We hope to continue to improve as a team and build on the success our program achieved last season."

BYU will play Michigan State of the Big Ten on a neutral court at The Palace of Auburn Hills – home of the Detroit Pistons – on Dec. 9. The Spartans, who finished 22-12 last season, will play BYU at the Delta Center in 2007. New to BYU's schedule this season is the BYU Holiday Classic, which will be conducted the last weekend of December to conclude non-league play. With a four-team field that includes Big South Conference foe Liberty (Dec. 28), Mid-Continent Conference champion Oral Roberts (Dec. 29) and Big East Conference contender Seton Hall (Dec. 30), BYU fans will see teams from across the nation convene in Provo to compete with doubleheader games each day of the exempt tournament. Seton Hall and Oral Roberts were both NCAA Tournament participants last season. The Pirates will be the first Big East team to visit the Marriott Center since 1990 when St. John's played in the Cougar Classic, although BYU's last three NCAA Tournament opponents – Syracuse in 2004, Connecticut in 2003, and Cincinnati in 2001 – are Big East teams. The Cougars and Pirates will meet for the first time since an 82-80 Seton Hall overtime win at the Queen City Invitational on Dec. 29, 1958.

UCLA, Michigan State, Seton Hall, Oral Roberts, Portland, Liberty, Idaho State, San Jose State and Western Oregon are new to the schedule for 2006-07, while Lamar, Boise State, Weber State, Utah State and Southern Utah are repeat opponents from last season. Liberty is the lone first-time opponent for BYU. The Cougars own a 228-123 (.650) all-time record against their 2006-07 nonconference opponents and lead or are tied in the overall series against each program. BYU will play a minimum of nine games against teams that qualified for last year's NCAA Tournament.

The MWC season begins in Provo against reigning MWC Champion San Diego State and culminates against in-state rival Utah in the Marriott Center – the first regular-season finale between the Cougars and Utes since the 1995-96 season.

"Our league will be very competitive this year," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "Seven of the nine teams return at least three starters and five return four or more. We are looking forward to the upcoming season. I think our fans will be treated to some outstanding basketball in the Marriott Center this year."

The Cougars will play 30 regular-season games in 2006-07 prior to the MWC Tournament at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas March 6-10.

"ONE MORE"

BYU players have been able to make that one extra pass to find an open teammate so far this year. The Cougars have four players averaging more than two assists per game (Ainge - 3.67, Balderson - 2.67, Broadus - 2.3, Cumnard - 2.0) and are collectively making 6.3 more assists on average than their opponents (15.0-8.7).

OFF THE BENCH

One of BYU's strengths is the overall depth of the team. BYU's bench has outscored Cougar opponents in each of the first three games this year by nearly nine points per game on average. Last year BYU got more scoring production off the bench than its opponents in 24 of 29 games.

BYU BASKETBALL MAKES ITS DEBUT ON THE MTN.

BYU men's basketball will appear for the first time on the MountainWest Sports Network (the mtn.) when it hosts Southern Utah Friday. The Mountain West Conference's 2006-07 men's basketball television schedule features an unprecedented 99 games on national and regional television, including 65 of the 72 conference contests and all eight MWC Championship matchups. The television coverage provided by the MWC broadcast partners in 2006-07 is more than triple the national and regional telecasts MWC men's basketball has received in previous years. Seventy-five games will be shown on the MountainWest Sports Network (the mtn.), with 17 to be broadcast nationally on College Sports Television (CSTV) and seven on VERSUS (formerly OLN). BYU will have 18 regular-season games televised as part of the 2006-07 MWC television schedule, including three games on CSTV, one on VERSUS and 14 on the mtn. With the exception of a road game at TCU, BYU's entire conference schedule will be televised in 2007. BYU's nonconference games featured in the MWC broadcast schedule include home dates with Southern Utah (Nov. 24, 8 p.m. MT), San Jose State (Dec. 6, 7 p.m. MT) and Utah State (Dec. 16, 4 p.m. MT). While not part of the MWC television package, BYU's regular-season opener at 2006 NCAA runner-up UCLA on Nov. 15 will be televised on Fox Sports Net Prime Ticket, while the BYU-Michigan State matchup on Dec. 9 at The Palace at Auburn Hills will be carried on ESPN2 and BYU's game at Boise State on Nov. 29 will be aired on KBOI in Boise. Additional games on the BYU schedule could also be televised but have not yet been announced.

IN THE SEVEN YEARS OF THE MWC ...

- BYU has had five 20-win seasons, leading all MWC schools along with Utah. UNLV has had three, Wyoming three, New Mexico, San Diego State and Air Force two and Colorado State none.
- BYU has had the league's top RPI three times, been second once and third on three occasions. The Cougars were third last year (67) behind Air Force (50) and San Diego State (56).
- BYU has played the toughest schedule on average of any team in the MWC (average strength of schedule rating the past seven years is 66, Utah is next at 78). BYU has had the league's toughest schedule in two of the past three seasons.
- BYU has the second-most overall wins in the seven years of the MWC (137, Utah leads at 155).
- BYU is also second in conference wins (60, Utah has 69).
- BYU has the second-most MWC regular-season titles (two) along with Wyoming (Utah leads with four).
- BYU is one of six MWC teams to win the MWC Tournament title.

BYU AND MWC IN POSTSEASON

BYU has earned an invite to a postseason tournament in six of the seven years of the MWC, joining Utah in leading all MWC teams. BYU is second to Utah in NCAA appearances since the formation of the MWC (BYU has made three NCAA and three NIT while Utah has made five NCAA and one NIT). UNLV has received five invites (one NCAA, four NIT). New Mexico has received four (one NCAA, three NIT) while Wyoming has three (one NCAA, two NIT). San Diego State has three (two NCAA, one NIT) and Air Force has three (two NCAA and one NIT). Colorado State has been to one NCAA Tournament. TCU's first year was last season.

INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS AT BYU

— With the addition of freshman Jonathan Tavernari, 26 international players have played basketball at BYU.
 — The Cougars have had an international player on their varsity roster in 35 of the past 55 years.
 — Another international player, Jean Carlos Otero from Colombia, signed with BYU in November.
 — In the last five years, BYU has rostered six international players, including four on this season's team – Jimmy Balderson (Canada), Vuk Ivanovic (Serbia) and Fernando Malaman and Jonathan Tavernari (Brazil).
 — Foreign players at BYU have received eight all-conference citations, two conference player of the year awards (Timo Saarelainen – 1985, Rafael Araujo – 2004) and eight All-America citations (Kresimir Cosic – 1972 and 1973, Rafael Araujo – 2004).
 — According to a book about basketball in Finland by Mikko Simon, BYU has the distinction of being the first NCAA Division I school to have an overseas player on its roster when Timo Lampen, a native of Lahti, Finland, took the court for the Cougars in 1960-61.
 — BYU also boasts the first foreign All-American in Kresimir Cosic, whose BYU jersey was retired on March 4, 2006. The Zadar, Yugoslavia, native played on the Cougar varsity team from 1971-73 and earned six All-America citations and three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference awards. He is the only BYU player to be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. Cosic passed away in 1995.
 — During the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, CBS Television analyst Billy Packer singled out Cosic during a discussion of the quality of international players now playing college basketball. Said Packer, "Kresimir Cosic, who played for BYU, was really the first great international player to play basketball in the United States."

FOUR RECRUITS COMMIT TO BYU DURING NOVEMBER SIGNING PERIOD

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 19, 2006) – BYU men's basketball coach Dave Rose today announced that four players – two from the high school ranks and two from junior colleges – have committed to attend BYU next season by signing national letters of intent during November's early signing period. Joining the Cougar program for the 2007-08 season will be 6-foot-9 forward Chris Collinsworth out of Provo [Utah] High School; 6-foot-2 combo guard Jimmer Fredette from Glens Falls [N.Y.] High School; 5-foot-10 point guard Lamont Morgan out of Saddleback Community College [Mission Viejo, Calif.]; and 6-foot-7 forward Jean Carlos Otero out of Miami-Dade College [Miami, Fla.]. "We are excited about the early class," Rose said. "The common denominator is that all these guys come from winning programs and they are a key to that success. Since we are losing six seniors as well as others to missions after this year, it is important for us to address those changes, especially on the perimeter. This gives us a great start as we work toward completing our recruiting in the spring."

CHRIS COLLINSWORTH

An athletic player known for his versatility and soft shooting touch, Collinsworth earned first-team all-state honors last season after averaging 14.1 points, 6.5 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game for the 4A state runner-up Provo Bulldogs. He shot 56 percent from the field to help himself earn All-Valley Co-MVP honors by the Deseret Morning News, All-Valley First Team recognition by the Provo Daily Herald and first-team Region 7 accolades from a vote of area coaches. Showing his versatility, the 6-foot-9 forward has also played the point guard position. His inside-outside game has drawn comparisons to former BYU great Kresimir Cosic. Collinsworth received recruiting attention from schools such as North Carolina, Arizona State, West Virginia, USC and Oregon State in addition to several Mountain West Conference schools. "Chris has the ability to score in the post and on the perimeter," Rose said. "He is a tireless worker who brings a skill level that will be important to our transition offense. He's from right here in our backyard, and we are excited to have him join our program."

JIMMER FREDETTE

A talented scorer, Fredette averaged 29.3 points per game as a junior while leading Glens Falls High School to a 21-2 overall record and the state title game. A first-team all-state selection and the 2006 Times Union Player of the Year, Fredette is known for his outside shooting and playmaking ability. He made a team-leading 76 three-pointers last season while shooting 83 percent from the free-throw line and scoring more than 30 points in 12 of 23 games. The athletic combo guard also averaged 25 points for the Albany City Rocks AAU team over the summer, leading the squad to a third-place finish at AAU Nationals. An all-around athlete, he earned all-state honors as a wide receiver during his junior year before electing not to play football as a senior to concentrate on basketball. Utah, Syracuse, Wake Forest, Seton Hall, Marshall, Siena, George Mason, West Virginia, Virginia Tech and Penn State also recruited Fredette. "Jimmer is a terrific shooter who also has the ability to run a team," Rose said. "He is a very unselfish player and is very committed to hard work and getting better. He's a great addition to our team."

LAMONT MORGAN

A sophomore this year at Saddleback Community College, Morgan is an extremely quick point guard and strong team leader. He is averaging 8.7 points, 4.7 assists and 3.0 steals per game so far this season after playing in all 31 games as a freshman to help the Gauchos to a 22-9 record. Morgan has excellent defensive abilities and shot 81 percent from the free-throw line last year. As a freshman he recorded season highs of 13 points and seven rebounds while leading the team in assists 11 times. Prior to playing at Saddleback, Morgan prepped at Diamond Ranch High School in Pomona, Calif., earning first-team all-league honors. "Lamont is a winner," Rose said. "He is a team-oriented point guard who provides great leadership and is very competitive. He is extremely quick with the ball. One of the things we really like about Lamont is his ability to defend. His experience will be counted on."

JEAN CARLOS OTERO

Otero is an athletic perimeter player with excellent size and strength. Known for his ability to penetrate, he is currently averaging 15.4 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.0 assists while shooting 62 percent from the floor in his second year at Miami-Dade College. The 6-foot-7 swingman is also an excellent perimeter defender, often drawing the assignment to guard the opponent's top scorer. As a freshman at Miami-Dade, Otero averaged 8.4 points and 6.5 rebounds per game while shooting 48 percent from the floor. A native of Barranquilla, Colombia, Otero will be the 27th international player to play men's basketball at BYU. "Jean Carlos is an athletic wing player who can beat people off the dribble, penetrate and finish," Rose said. "He has good size and strength for a wing player. His perimeter defense is going to be counted on heavily."

COUGAR CROWDS RANKED NO. 2 IN MWC ATTENDANCE

An average of 11,069 fans packed the Marriott Center last season for each BYU home game, second only to New Mexico's 13,387 average in the Mountain West Conference. A total of 20,732 fans attended BYU's last home game during which former Cougar great Kresimir Cosic's jersey was retired. The mark is BYU's highest since March 1, 2004. The Cougars went 14-1 at home last year including wins in their last 14 straight home contests, which ranks eighth in the nation. BYU celebrated its 500th game in the Marriott Center on Feb. 22 and owns a 386-116 (.769) record there.

WINNING STREAKS

BYU looks to win its third straight game. The Cougars had several winning streaks last season, including their longest since the 2003-04 season at six straight victories. The streak was tied for the seventh-longest active winning streak in the nation. BYU's prior victory streaks last year included one four-game streak, two three-game streaks and two two-game streaks. BYU won 10 of its last 13 games.

BOUNCE BACK COUGARS

BYU recovered from its season-opening loss at No. 5 UCLA with two wins. Last year with its 20-9 overall record, BYU suffered consecutive defeats only once - the last two games, having bounced back from each prior loss with a victory. BYU alternated wins and losses in the first five league games before winning four straight games, two of which came on the road. The Cougars lost their next game but rebounded to win six straight before losing again.

MAGIC NUMBER: 70

This year the Cougars are allowing 70.0 points after three games. Last year BYU was 12-0 when holding opponents under 70 points and 8-9 when allowing opponents to surpass the 70-point threshold. Cougar foes averaged 71.7 points per game. BYU was also 17-4 when scoring 70 or more points and 3-5 when falling below the 70-point mark. The Cougars led the MWC in scoring, averaging 76.2 ppg, and scored 100 points in conference play for the first time since Feb. 10, 1994 in their home game against league-champion San Diego State.

FOR STARTERS

BYU has used two different starting lineups so far this year. BYU's last game was the first adjustment, as Austin Ainge started at the point for Rashaun Broadus and Vuk Ivanovic made his first career start in place of injury-slowed Trent Plaisted in the post. Starting the first two games were senior Rashaun Broadus, sophomore Lee Cummmard, senior Jimmy Balderson, senior Keena Young and sophomore Trent Plaisted. While all five started games last year, the UCLA game marked the first regular-season contest in which all five started together. The same starting rotation began BYU's second exhibition game on Nov. 8 against Montevallo. Overall last year, nine players started while Coach Dave Rose used eight starting lineups.

20-WIN SEASONS

With a win against New Mexico to conclude the regular season last year, the Cougars achieved their 29th 20-win season. BYU has averaged 20 wins every 2.7 years (BYU has played 78 seasons in which it has played at least 20 games in a season). BYU coach Dave Rose is the fifth Cougar head coach to reach 20 wins in his first season at the helm. He joins G. Ott Romney (20-10 in 1928-29), Stan Watts (22-12 in 1949-50), Ladell Anderson (20-11 in 1983-84) and Roger Reid (21-9 in 1989-90). Both Watts and Reid achieved six 20-win seasons in their BYU coaching careers while Romney posted five and Rose's predecessor, Steve Cleveland, achieved four.

20-win Seasons at BYU

Stan Watts had 6 seasons of 20 wins in 23 years of coaching
 Roger Reid had 6 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 G. Ott Romney had 5 seasons of 20 wins in 9 years of coaching
 Steve Cleveland had 4 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 Ladell Anderson had 3 season of 20 wins in 6 years of coaching
 Frank Arnold had 3 seasons of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 Floyd Millet had 1 season of 20 wins in 8 years of coaching
 Dave Rose has 1 season of 20 wins in 1 year of coaching

HALFTIME REPORT

BYU has led at the half in each of the team's first three games. The Cougars' 82-69 loss at UCLA after leading 39-36 at the half marked the first time since the 2004-05 season that BYU has lost when leading at the half. BYU was 14-0 when leading at the half, 5-9 when trailing and 1-0 when tied last year. Of the 14 games in which they led at the half, the Cougars led by double digits six times. BYU was more impressive in the second half. The Cougars outscored their opponents in the second period of play in all but eight games last year. BYU averaged 4.8 more second-half points than its opponents after a slight 0.24 edge in the first half.

COUGARS HELP CHILDREN WITH CANCER

For the eighth year, the BYU men's basketball team will join the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation in an effort to raise money for families who have children with cancer and participate in the Foundation's annual Christmas party for those families. The Foundation will be collecting monetary donations and any unwrapped toys through the first three weeks of December. Toys can be dropped off at the nearest Far West Bank location, at Harmon's Down Town Auto Center located in Provo or at the men's basketball office located next to the Ticket Office at the Marriott Center. Monetary contributions will also be accepted at the men's basketball office. One hundred percent of all donations to the Foundation will go directly towards the Christmas party for more than 90 families who have children with cancer living primarily in Utah County. A large portion of the money donated will purchase hundreds of toys that will enable these parents to have gifts under the Christmas tree for their children. In addition to all of these toys, there is food, free entertainment, such as games and ornament decorating, and local celebrities including Santa, Cosmo and the BYU men's basketball team. This is the eighth year BYU coaches, players and their families have volunteered for the Christmas party. BYU head coach Dave Rose will serve as honorary chairman for the second year. "This has always been a cause I feel strongly about," said BYU coach Dave Rose. "It has been such a positive experience for the coaches, players and families and is a tremendous opportunity for community members to be involved in brightening the holiday season for these children." Cheryl Rose, vice chairman of the Foundation and wife of coach Rose, discussed the challenges these families face financially and how the Foundation hopes to help these families now and in the future. "For many of these families, it is financially impossible to always have food on the table, a roof over their heads or even have Christmas," Cheryl Rose said. "We want to create a Christmas experience that they will never forget and hopefully in the future help families meet those basic needs that they can't on their own." Rose says that asking for donations has usually been difficult for her, but with such a meaningful cause it has been easy. It has enriched her life, which is something she hopes others will enjoy by contributing to these families. "It's a privilege for me to associate with these families," she said. "They are such an example to me. Even with all that they've been through, they have such a strength and passion for life. It's almost selfish on my part to be involved because I get so much out of it." This year's Christmas party will be held Dec. 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the LaVell Edwards Stadium Cougar Room. Parents will be invited to the Cougar Room on Dec. 19 to choose the gifts their children will receive. The gifts will then be distributed at the party. For more information about donating to the Children With Cancer Christmas Foundation, contact Cheryl Rose at (801) 375-5768. Those interested can also visit the Foundation's website at www.christmas-foundation.org. "The support we get from the community makes this event possible," Cheryl Rose said. "We couldn't serve these children without the donations of time, money and gifts we receive."

TAKE NOTE OF THE COUGARS ...

RECORD LAST YEAR (20-9, 12-4 – T2nd, Mountain West Conference)

Record in the Marriott Center : 14-1, including the nation's eighth-longest active winning streak of 14 games

Record away from the Marriott Center : 6-8, winning four of the last six road games

FIRST-YEAR COACH MADE AN IMPACT

Picked last in MWC preseason, first-year head coach Dave Rose directed the Cougars to 20 wins. Their 20-9 record was an 11.5-game improvement over the year before. Rose earned a .746 winning percentage when he last served as a head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, from 1990-97, as six of his seven teams earned a national ranking. His winning percentage last season with BYU was .690.

MOST IMPROVED

BYU was the most improved team in the nation last year through the regular season. The Cougars' .441 jump in winning percentage (.741 in 2006 from .300 in 2005) led the country as well as its overall 12.5-game improvement. BYU's +11 wins was tied with South Alabama for top honors. With its 20-9 overall record compared to the prior year's 9-21 mark, BYU's final .390 jump in winning percentage (.690 in 2006 from .300 in 2005) was second in the country as well as its overall 11.5-game improvement. BYU's +11 wins ranked third.

PLAYING STRONG DOWN THE STRETCH

The Cougars won six of their last eight and 10 of their last 13 games while avenging their three prior league losses with wins over MWC-champion San Diego State, Air Force and UNLV. BYU lost to Air Force in the league opener as the Cougars started 2-3 in league play but finished tied for second with the Falcons at 12-4. In this stretch, BYU also won at New Mexico, snapping the Lobos' 21-game home win streak, while going 4-1 on the road. BYU achieved a six-game victory streak, which ranked tied for seventh in the nation, before its MWC Quarterfinal loss to Utah.

NEW PLAYERS MADE SOLID CONTRIBUTIONS

Five of BYU's top seven scorers and rebounders were first-year players and a walk-on. While growing into their roles last year, three freshmen, two transfers and one walk-on accounted for 62.2 percent of team scoring and 55.3 percent of team rebounding while playing 63.4 percent of total minutes and making 80.7 percent of starts.

BALANCED ATTACK

BYU boasted a balanced attack with five players averaging between 9 and 14 points. BYU had five players in double figures on nine occasions this season, including seven times during league play and in each of BYU's last four wins. Experienced starters from last year, Austin Ainge and Jimmy Balderson, played key roles off the bench with the infusion of new players.

OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION

BYU was the first team to score 100 points in an MWC game since 2003 (100-90 win over San Diego State). BYU led the MWC in scoring and assists and ranked among the nation's top teams in three-point shooting (25th), assists (34th), scoring offense (36th), won-loss percentage (48th) and field-goal percentage (50th) in the final NCAA statistical rankings. Only 33 teams in the country finished with less than BYU's nine losses.

CLUTCH PLAY

BYU exhibited clutch play, solid mental toughness and strong coaching while going 11-2 in games decided by nine points or less last season after going 1-10 in games decided by a single digit the prior year.

SOUNDING OFF ABOUT COACH ROSE ...

"Major props, respect and "shugs" (half handshake, half hug) to Dave Rose at Brigham Young. BYU was 9-21 last year, and Steve Cleveland left to take the Fresno State job. Rose, a long time juco head coach at Dixie State and an assistant at BYU prior to taking over, has only one senior on his roster but has run off eight of nine in the MWC. BYU was picked dead last by the media and in the coaches' polls, but will finish (if the Cougars can beat Colorado State and New Mexico, both at home) tied for second place, with 20 wins overall." — ESPN's Doug Gottlieb, on ESPN.com

"20-7 isn't a record we usually single out here compared to some of the other teams in the country, but Dave Rose has done a great job of turning this program around in his first year as a head coach. He's got his team playing well when it really counts." — ESPN's Doug Gottlieb, on ESPN

"(On why he ranked Rose No. 3 among first year coaches) He took over a 21-loss team and now has the Cougars 14-7 and second in the Mountain West. His leading scorer is a redshirt freshman (forward Trent Plaisted) and his No. 2 scorer (senior guard Brock Reichner) has more than quadrupled his points per game from last year (2.5 to 10.7)." — ESPN.com's Pat Forde

"Nobody could have envisioned the Cougars would have entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to tie for the league title, but here they are, 10-4 and just a loss behind the league-winning Aztecs. Under first-year coach Rose, BYU has won eight of its past nine to keep faint at-large hopes alive." — ESPN.com's Pat Forde

"BYU is one of the great surprise teams in the country." — ESPN analyst Bob Valvano

"Coach Rose has done a heckuva job. I think they have really found roles for their guys and they've really bought into those things. They're pretty darn good." — Utah Coach Ray Giaconetti

"Dave has done a great job. I like the way they are playing. They are aggressive and they are active in every way. They have some size and they shoot it well. They are maybe the biggest surprise in the league this season. I like what Dave has done. I really like their team." — UNLV Coach Lon Kruger

"I've always thought BYU was a very good team. Coach Rose and the coaching staff are good." — Air Force Coach Jeff Bzdelik

ROSE NAMED MWC COACH OF THE YEAR BY ESPN'S PAT FORDE AND BY COLLEGE INSIDERS.COM

In addition to the league's official honor, BYU's Dave Rose received the nod as the MWC Coach of the Year by several others last season. ESPN's Pat Forde named Rose his choice for MWC Coach of the Year, as did CollegeInsiders.com.

ROSE RANKED NO. 3 AMONG NATION'S FIRST-YEAR COACHES

BYU head coach Dave Rose received national notice for the outstanding job he did during his first season guiding the Cougars. In a Feb. 12 column on ESPN.com, Pat Forde lists Rose among the top-three first-year coaches in the nation this season. Among the nearly 40 first-year coaches in college basketball this year, Forde names the 10 he feels are doing the best job, ranking Rose No. 3 overall. Picked to finish last in the Mountain West Conference in the preseason poll of MWC media members, BYU finished tied for second at 12-4, one game behind league-champion San Diego State.

COUGAR RECRUITS HAVE EXCELLED

With Trent Plaisted receiving the 2006 MWC Freshman of the Year award, BYU has now had nine recruits earn conference freshman/newcomer or a major award in their first season as a Cougar in the nine years BYU coach Dave Rose has been in Provo. Rose was Steve Cleveland's recruiting coordinator and lead assistant the past eight seasons before taking over the program this season. Six BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year.

PLAISTED EARNS THREE NATIONAL FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

BYU redshirt freshman forward/center Trent Plaisted received national recognition for his play. Plaisted was named the Nivea for Men Fresh Face Player of the Week by CBS.Sportsline.com, an honor handed out to top performers in the national freshman class, while ESPN's Dick Vitale also named Plaisted his Diaper Dandy of the Week for his play the week of Feb. 6. He also was named the Rivals.com Freshman Player of the Week for his outings against San Diego State and at TCU, which included a BYU freshman-record 18 rebounds against the Horned Frogs.

COUGAR FANS SHOW SUPPORT

BYU has consistently ranked among the national attendance leaders in the 35-year history of the Marriott Center. The Cougars average of 11,069 last season was more than the regular-season champions of 27 out of 31 conferences as well as over half of the teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big 12, Big East and Southeastern Conference and all but Arizona in the Pac-10. BYU also averaged more fans than 12 of the NCAA Sweet 16 participants, including all of the Final Four teams.

A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Dave Rose guided BYU to a 20-win season while earning district and conference coach-of-the-year honors in his first season at the Cougar helm in 2005-06. Rose was named to succeed Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose received national notice for the outstanding job he did during his first season guiding the Cougars. Picked to finish last in the Mountain West Conference in the preseason poll of MWC media members, BYU instead earned a 20-9 record and NIT bid in 2005-06 under Rose's tutelage, including a 12-4 conference mark to tie for second place. Rose was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year and received honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com. He was named MWC Coach of the Year by the league's media and coaches and by CollegInsider.com. ESPN analyst Bob Valvano called BYU "one of the great surprise teams in the country."

In a column on ESPN.com, Pat Forde listed Rose as one of the top first-year coaches in the nation, ranking Rose No. 3 overall among the nearly 40 first-year coaches in college basketball in 2005-06.

Rose, who served the prior eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant in Provo, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. Rose served as BYU's associate head coach for five seasons and took over the Cougar program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 with Cleveland, Rose played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play in six of the past seven seasons, including three NCAA bids, while claiming two MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. BYU was the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the four seasons Rose oversaw the defense.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose managed BYU's recruiting efforts during his eight seasons as an assistant. Rose's success as a recruiter was evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. Each year the Cougars have brought in talented newcomers to contribute to the BYU program. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top 20 nationally.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, nine recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major conference award in their first season as a Cougar in the nine years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), six BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Trent Plaisted was named the 2006 MWC Freshman of the Year. The following is the list of player honors earned the last nine seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Trent Plaisted (2005-06 MWC Freshman of the Year; 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year; 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-03 Newcomer of the Year; MWC media poll, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-02 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-01 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year; All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year; Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year; Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational where BYU faced that season's NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, where he compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he has recruited and coached two NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86.

Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA Tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82 and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first-team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion, hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first-team all-district and All-Greater Houston and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and one granddaughter. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-03 and is married to Brock Reichner, last year's lone senior on the BYU team. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose follows Cleveland as the second returned missionary to serve as BYU men's basketball head coach. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returned in August 2005 from a two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark., and married his wife Brooke in November 2006. Rose also has a daughter, Taylor, who is a sixth grader at Wasatch Elementary.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer while at Dixie State College. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."
 - Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, playing professionally in Russia

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."
 - Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, playing professionally in Spain

"Coach Rose is one of the main reasons why I came to BYU. He saw me play in junior college, and because of his great vision and recruiting skills, I came to BYU. I enjoyed working with Coach Rose. He taught me a lot. He's a great coach."
 - Rafael Araujo, Former BYU Cougar and current Utah Jazz center

"Major props to Dave Rose. BYU was 9-21 (in 2004-05), and Steve Cleveland left to take the Fresno State job. BYU was picked dead last by the media and in the coaches' polls, but, [finished] tied for second place, with 20 wins overall."
 - ESPN's Doug Gottlieb, on ESPN.com

WORTH NOTING

- Dave Rose has a .739 winning percentage as a college head coach, including a 20-9 (.690) season in his first year at BYU and a 167-57 (.746) record in seven seasons at Dixie State College.
- BYU was the second-most improved team in the nation in 2005-06 under new coaching staff.
- The BYU coaching staff has more than 50 years of combined coaching experience.
- The BYU coaching staff has playing experience in NCAA Final Fours, including a National Championship, and professionally.
- The BYU coaching staff has played with or coached 26 NBA players.
