NO. 20 BYU FACES NO. 9 MICHIGAN STATE IN SALT LAKE CITY

No. 20 BYU (7-1) will take on its third top-10 team in 15 days on Saturday when the Cougars face No. 9 Michigan State at EnergySolutions Arena in Salt Lake City at 2 p.m. The Cougars are 3-1 away from home this year, including a neutral court win over No. 6 Louisville and a neutral floor loss to No. 1 North Carolina. The ninth-ranked Spartans are also 7-1 on the year with their only loss coming against then-No. 1 UCLA. Michigan State is coming off a 66-61 win at Bradley on Tuesday. Saturday's game will be televised nationally on BYUTV and locally on KJZZ. The radio broadcast can be heard on KSL Newsradio 102.7 FM and 1160 AM out of Salt Lake City and on the Internet at KSL.com beginning with the pregame show at 1 p.m. MT.

UP NEXT

BYU will host Lamar on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Marriott Center. The game will be televised on The Mtn.

COUGAR QUICK HITS

- The Cougars' entrance into the national rankings last week marked the program's earliest appearance in the national polls since the 1980-81 season. With a ranking as high as No. 21 last year, BYU has now been ranked in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1980-81 and 1981-82.
- Two-time reigning MWC Coach of the Year Dave Rose helped make BYU the second-most improved program in the nation in his first season with a 20-9 record and guided the Cougars to the outright MWC title and a top-25 ranking in his second campaign in Provo as the Cougars went 25-9 last season.
- BYU has been picked in the preseason poll to finish first in the MWC race this year by the league's media.
- BYU currently owns the nation's second-longest active home win streak with 35 straight wins in the Marriott Center. The Cougars went 17-0 at home last year and are 4-0 at home this year.
- This year's BYU squad returns two starters among seven lettermen from last year's outright league leaders (13-3 MWC record) as well as returned missionary Chris Miles, who made six starts as a freshman in 2004-05. Headlining BYU's top returners in 2007-08 are MWC Player of the Year candidate Trent Plaisted, a two-time All-MWC Second Team selection in his first two seasons; versatile junior guard Lee Cummond, who earned All-MWC Third Team honors one year ago; and sophomore sharpshooter Jonathan Tavernari, who followed Plaisted's lead the prior season by being named the MWC Freshman of the Year in his first campaign as a Cougar.

LOOKING AT MICHIGAN STATE

No. 9 Michigan State is 7-1 so far this season with its only loss coming against then-No. 1 UCLA. The Spartans have won four straight since the 68-63 setback, including a 66-61 win at Bradley on Tuesday in their only road game of the year. MSU is 1-1 this year on a neutral court. All five starters return from last year's team that went 23-12 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Spartans are led by forward Raymar Morgan with 17.6 points per game on 60.8 percent shooting from the field. The 6-foot-7 sophomore is second on the team in rebounds with 7.9 per game. Senior guard Drew Neitzel is second for the Spartans in scoring with 14.1 ppg while posting 5.0 assists per game and a 5.0 assist/turnover ratio. Junior center Goran Sutton paces Michigan State with 8.5 boards per game, including 11 against Bradley, and ranks third on the team in scoring at 8.9 ppg. The 6-foot-10, 245-pounder has also tallied a team-high 10 blocks and 10 steals. Junior forward Marquise Gray shoots a team-best 70.3 percent shooting mark from the field while averaging 7.8 points and 5.3 boards per contest. As a team, the Spartans are averaging 77.5 points per game on 50.0 percent shooting from the field, including 36.5 percent efficiency from three-point range. MSU opponents are tallying 63.8 ppg on 37.7 percent shooting from the floor. The Spartans outrebound their foes, 41.6-30.1. Michigan State head coach Tom Izzo is 294-122 in his 13th season with the program.

MICHIGAN STATE'S LAST OUTING — SPARTANS SURVIVE BRADLEY RUN

PEORIA, Ill. (Dec. 4, 2007) - Drew Neitzel figured this would be a difficult night for Michigan State. Luckily for the Spartans, he heated up just in time. Neitzel's clutch 3-pointer started an important run, Raymar Morgan scored 15 and the ninth-ranked Spartans beat Bradley 66-61 on Tuesday night. "This is huge for us," Neitzel said. "We knew there were going to be some ups and downs with the crowd getting into it, but we kept fighting it and made a comeback there at the end." Michigan State (7-1) trailed by nine in the second half but Neitzel came through in the latter stages after struggling for most of the game. His 3 with just under 5 minutes left cut it to 51-50 and started a 7-0 surge that put the Spartans ahead for good, 54-51. Drew Naymick had a big rebound dunk and Kalin Lucas also scored during the run. It was 59-55 after Morgan whipped a pass across the paint to Goran Sutton for a layup with 1:46 left, but the drama was far from over. Neitzel was unable to get a shot off in time, resulting in a shot-clock violation with 55 seconds left. Then, after a miss by Bradley's Jeremy Crouch, Neitzel made one of two free throws to make it a five-point game with 45 seconds left. Bradley (6-3) got within three, but Neitzel hit two more free throws to make it 64-59 with 16 seconds remaining. That ended the Braves' upset bid and quieted what had been a raucous crowd. Neitzel and Lucas finished with 13 points apiece. "It was a huge win for us," Michigan State coach Tom Izzo said. "I did not think we played great." But the Spartans did dominate in one area: rebounding. They owned a 48-29 edge on the boards, allowing them to win on a night when they shot 40.7 percent. "It was tough," Neitzel said of the comeback win over the Braves. "The crowd was really into it. They were standing most of the game and they were together. You've got to give Bradley credit. They were ready for the game. They played a great game."

SERIES NOTES

The Spartans and Cougars have met eight times in the history of the series dating back to 1930 with the series tied at 4-4. The Cougars are 3-0 in Provo, 0-3 at Michigan State and 1-1 on a neutral court. After losing the first two games in the series, BYU won three straight from 1959-1980 before dropping two of the last three, including a 76-61 loss against the 25th-ranked Spartans last season at the Spartan Clash in Detroit. BYU's only neutral court win came in the prior meeting between the two teams as the Cougars picked up a 96-88 victory at the Cable Car Classic on Dec. 29, 1986.

BYU VS. THE BIG 10

Michigan State is the only Big Ten team on the Cougars' regular-season schedule. BYU has a 14-23 all-time record against Big Ten schools with the most meetings coming against the Spartans (eight). Prior to last year's game against MSU, the Cougars had not played a Big Ten team since Dec. 29, 1997 - a 72-65 win over Ohio State in Honolulu. BYU also played Penn State on Dec. 2 of that season.

BYU'S LAST OUTING VS. MICHIGAN STATE — COUGARS FALL TO NO. 25 SPARTANS

AUBURN HILLS, Mich. (Dec. 9, 2006) – Despite a career performance from Trent Plaisted, BYU did not have enough to knock off No. 25 Michigan State Saturday at The Palace of Auburn Hills, falling 76-61 to the Spartans. The loss drops the Cougars to 5-3 on the year, while MSU improves to 9-2. Plaisted led all scorers with a career-high 23 points, marking back-to-back games in which he has scored at least 20. Plaisted, who went 8-for-12 from the field after making his first eight shots, also paced the Cougars with seven rebounds. Lee Cummard was the only other Cougar to score in double figures with 10 points as he reached double digits for the third straight game. Austin Ainge dished out a team-high five assists, tying his season high. Both teams came out fighting, trading baskets early. With BYU leading 6-4, Cummard ignited a BYU fastbreak with a steal that forced MSU's Goran Suton to foul Rashaun Broadus going up for the shot. The momentum swung back to the Spartans, however, as MSU followed up two Cougar misses at the line with an 8-0 run to take a 12-6 advantage at the 13:09 mark. Jimmy Balderson came off the bench and ended the 4:27 Cougar scoring drought with a three-point make. MSU responded with its second dunk of the game on the other end to push the lead to 14-9. Plaisted put in a turnaround jumper to get the Cougars within three at 14-11 but picked up his second foul on the ensuing Spartan possession and was forced to join Young on the bench as BYU's top two scorers found themselves in foul trouble early. MSU capitalized on the opportunity to take a 25-16 lead. After returning to the game, Plaisted then came alive for the Cougars, making 4-of-6 free throws during three consecutive trips to the line and draining two shots to cut the MSU lead to two points at 28-26. The Spartans answered with a 6-1 spurt of their own to once again push the lead up to seven points at 34-27 with under a minute to play in the half. Jonathan Tavernari refused to let MSU pull away, draining a three-pointer to cut the lead to four, but the Spartans converted as the clock wound down to take a 36-30 advantage into the locker room at the break. BYU began the second half by hitting its first five shots from the floor as four different Cougars scored in the first 2:40, including buckets from Plaisted, Ainge, Broadus and Cummard. But the Spartans answered every Cougar make with a make of their own, including two threes, to increase the lead to 48-40 with 16:11 to play. MSU then increased the margin to 52-40 with 14:26 mark, prompting Rose to take a timeout. Ainge ended the BYU scoring drought with a three-pointer, but four more Spartan points increased their lead to 56-43 thanks to an 11-3 run. Plaisted made back-to-back trips to the line, making 3-of-4, and then scored a short jumper in the lane after an MSU three-pointer to surpass his previous career high in scoring with 23 points. BYU continued to trail by double-digits until a jumper from Cummard got the Spartan lead under 10 points at 61-52 with 8:35 left to play. However, another MSU dunk pushed the lead back to 11 points and the Cougars would get no closer over the final six minutes. Cummard jumped a three at the 5:51 mark to get into double figures for the third straight game with 10 points, but his night came to an end on the other end as he picked up his fifth foul with more than five minutes remaining. A fifth Spartan dunk increased the lead to 71-55 as the Cougars continued to struggle shooting. BYU made just four shots in the final 8:34 of the game as the Spartans ran away with the 76-61 win.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...

BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

– “We had a lot of chances in this game. There were big possessions where if we could’ve gotten a stop, made a basket or made a free throw, it would’ve changed the complexion of game. Sometimes we were playing as the aggressors, but for the most part they had us back on our heels.”

– “Michigan State is a really good ball control, half-court team. They don’t make a lot of mistakes. We executed really well to take them out of their game, but they found other guys and got the big plays.”

– “Trent (Plaisted) played really, really well. He gave us a solid 40 minutes. It was a big plus for us and for him, especially playing against physical post guys who know how to guard.”

Michigan State Head Coach Tom Izzo

– “I think our guys are pretty drained having played 11 games in 30 days and I think it’s taken a little bit of a toll. I didn’t feel we were nearly as sharp in any aspect of the game and BYU deserves some credit for that.”

– “The way I look at it in the end is if we can shoot that poorly from the free-throw line, our guards not play as well as I thought they have cerebrally, and overcoming Joseph’s injury against a quality team,” Izzo said, “I think we should feel pretty good about it. Finding a way to win is the mark of a good team when key players don’t play as well. So I think we took a step in the right direction in that respect.”

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING

– BYU head coach Dave Rose once again started point guards Rashaun Broadus and Austin Ainge together, rounding out the starting lineup with Lee Cummard, Keena Young and Trent Plaisted. Cummard and Young have started every game this season.

– Individual Career Highs: Trent Plaisted - 23 points, 37 minutes; Jonathan Tavernari – 5 points.

– With the loss vs. No. 25 Michigan State, two of the three Cougar losses this season have come against ranked teams, including an 82-69 setback at then-No. 5 UCLA who is now ranked No. 1 in the nation. BYU has not defeated a ranked team since a 76-71 win on Dec. 6, 2003 against Oklahoma State in the Delta Center in Salt Lake City.

– BYU’s 76-61 loss against the Spartans marked the first time in six games that an MSU opponent has scored 60 points.

– The Cougars’ 36-30 halftime deficit marked just the second time this season BYU has trailed at the break. BYU also trailed at Boise State. The Cougars lost both games.

– Trent Plaisted’s career-high 23 points marks the second time this season and the fifth time in his career that he has surpassed the 20-point mark. Plaisted did not miss a shot until the 10:28 mark in the second half, making his first eight shots from the floor. His 14 first-half points marked his highest scoring output in a half this season. It was also the second time this year he has scored in double digits before the break, including 12 first-half points against Southern Utah.

– With 10 points against MSU, Lee Cummard has now scored in double figures in three straight games and four times overall this season. Cummard reached double-digit points in two games last year.

– BYU shot a season-low 41.8 percent from the field and still became only the second team among the 11 Spartan opponents this year to reach 40 percent shooting against Michigan State. Maryland (.548) is the other. MSU has held four opponents below 30 percent shooting this year.

- Michigan State had a plus-7 rebound margin against BYU, 41-34. The Spartans have out-rebounded 10 of their first 11 opponents. BYU is 5-0 this year when winning the battle of the boards and 0-3 when being out-rebounded.

- With its victory over BYU, Michigan State improved its record to 3-1 in Spartan Clash history, including three-straight wins. The Spartans are now 7-2 all-time in games played at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

BYU'S LAST OUTING - PLAISTED DOMINATES, BYU WINS 35TH AT HOME

PROVO, Utah (Dec. 5, 2007) – Playing in front of its home crowd for the first time in two weeks, the No. 20 BYU men's basketball team defeated in-state foe Weber State 72-57 on Wednesday. With the win, the Cougars improve to 7-1 on the season and extend the nation's second-longest home winning streak to 35 games. Senior Sam Burgess led all scorers with 16 points, while Lee Cummond, Trent Plaisted and Jonathan Tavernari scored 14 points apiece for BYU. Plaisted also secured a game-high 15 rebounds, marking his third double-double of the season and 12th of his career. The junior is the only Cougar to have scored in double figures in every game this season. Early turnovers committed by both teams kept points off the scoreboard until a Weber State field goal with 18:33 to play in the first half for its only lead of the game. Two made free throws by Plaisted and a three-pointer by Sam Burgess helped spark a 10-2 run, giving the Cougars a 10-4 lead. Burgess exhibited strong play on the opposite side of the ball, recording a steal which gave possession back to BYU. Plaisted recorded his first block of the night on the Wildcats' subsequent drive. Weber State would come to within three points after an NBA-range three-pointer by Kellen McCoy. BYU wasn't willing to relinquish its lead, however, with back-to-back makes from behind-the-arc by Michael Loyd, Jr. and Tavernari with just over seven minutes to play in the first half. After two made free throws by Cummond, the Cougars would go 2:30 without scoring until a running lay-in by Tavernari to bring the score to 28-16. Ben Murdock scored his first field goal of the game with 3:24 remaining before the break. With a 42-21 lead heading into halftime, BYU has now led at the half in seven of eight games this year, going 7-0 in those contests and outscoring opponents by an average of 14.0 points in the first half. Plaisted dominated on defense, recording 10 rebounds and three blocks to end the half. As a team, BYU went 12-for-15 from the charity stripe, while the Wildcats were 0-for-0. To begin the second half, Plaisted denied two more Weber State shots and scored the Cougars' first six points of the half, including a one-handed dunk with 14:07 to play in the game. Deciding to get in on the blocking action himself, Tavernari recorded his third rejection of the season with 12:35 on the clock. He followed on the other end of the floor with a three-pointer, putting BYU up 50-32. With just over nine minutes to play, Plaisted was charged with two quick personal fouls. Burgess recorded his second steal on the night, and after a missed ally-ooop by Loyd, a put-back by Chris Collinsworth allowed the Cougars to capitalize off Weber State's turnover.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...BYU Head Coach Dave Rose

– "I was really pleased with our captains tonight. They gave us great leadership. Trent (Plaisted) was phenomenal, Lee (Cummond) was steady and Sam (Burgess) gave us a big boost in energy in the second half."
– "The in-state games have a whole different feel. Defensively it is more aggressive and a faster pace. Because of that, these in-state games are good to play."
– "We are really excited for Saturday's game. Last year we got spanked when we played at their place. The most important thing is that they are a very good team, and that will help us prepare for our upcoming conference schedule."

Weber State Head Coach Randy Rahe

– "I was very impressed with their team. They played with a lot of energy and a lot of confidence."
– "I though our kids battled very hard. We struggled through the first half, but we came out in the second half and played hard and stayed together."
– "We saw a really good basketball team. There is a reason that they are ranked 20th."

BYU NOTES FROM LAST OUTING

– BYU head coach Dave Rose has used the same starting lineup in BYU's first eight games, calling on Ben Murdock, Sam Burgess, Lee Cummond, Jonathan Tavernari and Trent Plaisted to begin the game.
– Individual Season Highs: Trent Plaisted – five blocks (career high is six)
– The 72-57 Cougar victory extended BYU's home win streak to 35 games dating back to Nov. 18, 2005. The streak is the second-longest active home win streak in the nation, one game behind No. 2 Memphis at 36.
– With the win, BYU is now 133-55 all-time as a ranked team, including a 5-3 mark under head coach Dave Rose.
– Plaisted's 10 first-half boards mark the second time this season that he has recorded 10 rebounds in a single half. The first came against No. 1 North Carolina when he brought down 11 in the first half. It was the 12th time in his career he has posted double-digit rebounds and the third of the season, already matching last year's total.
– Plaisted recorded his third double-double of the season and 12th of his career. He is also the only Cougar to score in double figures in every game this season.
– At 7-1 so far this year, BYU is off to its best start through eight games since 2002-03 when the Cougars also posted a 7-1 record after eight contests.
– With the 72-57 win, BYU is now 7-0 when scoring at least 70 points and 5-0 when holding opponents under the 70-point mark.
– The Cougars are also now 6-1 when outrebounding opponents after a 43-37 advantage against the Wildcats.
– The Cougars have now led at halftime in seven of eight games this year, going 7-0 in those contests and outscoring opponents by an average of 13.9 points in the first half. BYU's 42-21 lead against Weber State marked the Cougars' sixth double-digit halftime lead this season.
– BYU has held all eight of its opponents this year under 40 points in the first half. The 21 points scored by Weber State in the first half is tied for the second-fewest given up by the Cougars in the first half this year (21 at Portland and 12 at LBSU).
– The Cougars have led their opponents by at least 20 points in six games this year.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ...

RICK PITINO, LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH

"Tavernari was terrific. He takes a lot of challenged shots. If you have a guy making big shots like that, it is a big help. BYU is a very good team. We were looking forward to play UNC too, but I think that BYU is a better team."

ROY WILLIAMS, NORTH CAROLINA HEAD COACH

"BYU is a big-time basketball team ... It was a hard-fought game all around. BYU is very sound fundamentally. They were able to box out on the boards just as well as anyone we have seen so far."

"Plaisted was sensational in the second half. Our plan coming out of the locker room was not to double team in the post because he is a good passer too, but he took it to us with a superb second half."

"I told both Tavernari and Plaisted that they are big-time players. I can admire the way that Tavernari plays. You look at Plaisted's numbers, 24 and 17, those are big-time numbers."

DICK VITALE, ESPN ANALYST

"I'll tell you what my friends, he (Trent Plaisted) is the best big man in America nobody knows about. Remember that name, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted, Trent Plaisted."

"(Plaisted's) been dominant on the glass, scored big in the second half and showed an assortment of moves. I gotta believe he's going to be the best big player in the Mountain West Conference. I can't believe anyone could be better."

"Dave Rose, a former Houston Cougar, is doing a heck of a job now at BYU ... They're going to have another big year this year ... What an outstanding basketball team. I don't care what the score ends up here ... that club is going to be a factor (in the NCAA Tournament)."

"When you look at BYU, they're one of the most outstanding teams in America nobody knows about. They have some outstanding players who can really run the court."

"Tavernari can flat out shoot the jumper ... Tavernari has done a great job."

"Cummard really fills up the stat sheet. Nothing spectacular, just steady play."

"I love the way they move the basketball. They share it, and it's a team concept."

DAN SHULMAN, ESPN ANALYST

"After tonight, he (Plaisted) is going to be the big man in America that everyone knows about."

"The score will not reflect how close this game was tonight."

BYU ENTERS NATIONAL RANKINGS

The BYU men's basketball team entered the national rankings last Monday, earning the program's earliest appearance in the national polls since the 1980-81 season. BYU was ranked No. 21 in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and No. 23 in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll. In this week's poll, BYU is ranked 20th and 22nd, respectively.

"(The ranking) is something we can build on," said BYU coach Dave Rose, the two-time Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year who has guided the Cougars to back-to-back 20-win seasons in his first two years. "We have a lot of work to do and need to keep improving as a team to get ready for the Mountain West Conference season."

In his third year guiding the program, Rose has seen his team earn the respect of the national voters for the second consecutive season. Last year, BYU entered the polls on Feb. 19 to receive the program's first national ranking since 1993. BYU finished last year ranked No. 24 in the final AP Poll, something a Cougar team had not accomplished since 1988.

BYU has now been ranked in back-to-back season for the first time since 1980-81 and 1981-82. This week's entry into the national rankings marks the earliest the Cougars have been included in the polls since receiving a No. 18 ranking in the 1980-81 AP preseason poll. It also marks the first time BYU's football and men's basketball teams have been nationally ranked the same week in the AP poll since Dec. 28, 1992.

The Cougar basketball program has now been ranked in the AP Poll during 16 seasons since its first national ranking in 1950-51 (see list below).

SEASONS BYU HAS BEEN RANKED IN THE AP POLL

VS. RANKED TEAMS

BYU's victory over No. 6 Louisville marked the highest-ranked team the Cougars have defeated since beating No. 2 St. Joseph's, 103-83, on Dec. 21, 1965. BYU is now 50-110 all-time against teams ranked in the Associated Press Poll and 1-1 this season including a 73-63 loss to No. 1 North Carolina in the championship game of the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Invitational. Prior to that game, the Cougars had not faced the nation's top-ranked team since Dec. 23, 1992, an 89-66 loss to No. 1 Duke at the Maui Invitational. The Cougars were 3-3 in their games vs. ranked teams last year with a 78-70 loss at then-No. 25 and eventual Sweet-16 participant UNLV in the MWC Tournament Championship game, a 62-58 victory at then-No. 20 Air Force, a 90-63 win over then-No. 25 UNLV, a 61-52 win over then-No. 13 Air Force, an 82-69 loss at then-No. 5 UCLA and a 76-61 neutral court loss against then-No. 25 Michigan St.

PLAYING THE BEST

The Cougars' game against No. 9 Michigan State on Saturday will be their third game in the last three weeks against a top-10 opponent, including a victory over No. 6 Louisville on Nov. 23 and a loss to No. 1 North Carolina on Nov. 24. BYU has played at least three regular-season games against top-10 opponents in a season just six times previously in program history with the last coming in 1983-84. Only twice previously have the Cougars played three top-10 teams during a three-week stretch, once in 1990-91 with a loss to No. 9 Utah on March 2, a win over No. 8 Utah on March 9 in the WAC Tournament and a loss to No. 8 Arizona on March 16 in the NCAA Tournament and once in 1980-81 with a victory over No. 9 Utah on March 7 in the WAC Tournament, a win over No. 10 UCLA on March 14 in the NCAA Tournament, a victory over No. 7 Notre Dame on March 19 in the NCAA Tournament and a loss to No. 5 Virginia on March 21 in the NCAA Tournament.

RANKED VS. RANKED

BYU is 9-15 all-time when playing as a ranked team against a ranked team with the most recent game being a 78-70 loss at UNLV in last year's Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship game. The Cougars were ranked No. 23 in the AP Poll entering the game and faced the 25th-ranked Rebels.

BYU AS A RANKED TEAM

BYU owns a 133-55 record as a ranked team. The Cougars are 76-12 at home, 36-27 on the road and 21-16 at neutral sites when nationally ranked after their 72-57 win against Weber State on Wednesday. Last Saturday's victory at Portland marked the Cougars' first road win as a ranked team since an 84-63 victory at UTEP on March 4, 1993 when BYU was ranked No. 21. BYU is 5-3 as a ranked team under Dave Rose including three wins and three losses last year. The Cougars were ranked as high as No. 21 last year and finished the year ranked No. 24 in the Associated Press Poll.

BYU PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

LEE CUMMARD (DEC 3) — Junior Lee Cummard led No. 21 BYU to a 78-54 road win at Portland Saturday with a game-high 18 points and a career-high six assists. The 6-foot-7 guard shot 77.8 percent from the floor and 75 percent from behind the arc against the Pilots, making 7-of-9 field goals and 3-of-4 treys. His seven field goals made equaled a career-best total. He scored nine of BYU's first 18 points of the game to help the Cougars build an early lead at 18-11. He finished the first half with a game-high 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting, including 2-for-3 on threes. While dishing out a career-high six assists on the night, he didn't commit a turnover and added four rebounds and one blocked shot in his 30 minutes of action.

TRENT PLAISTED (NOV. 26) — BYU junior Trent Plaisted was named the Mountain West Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week for the third time in his career. Plaisted led BYU to a 2-1 record last week and a second-place finish at the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Invitational. The Cougars defeated Hartford (97-73) and upset No. 6 Louisville (78-76) before falling to No. 1 North Carolina (63-73). Against Hartford, Plaisted scored 16 points, grabbed seven rebounds and equaled his career-high of five assists. He made 4-of-7 shots from the floor and hit 8-of-11 free throws. In the Cougars' upset victory over the sixth-ranked Cardinals, Plaisted scored 21 points (10-for-16 shooting) and pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds with one assist and one block as BYU achieved its first win over a top-6 ranked team since 1965. He scored 12 points during a 16-7 second-half Cougar run that gave them a lead they would not surrender. During the run, he also had four rebounds and one block. Against No. 1 North Carolina, Plaisted recorded season-highs of 24 points and 17 rebounds while adding two assists and one blocked shot. He shot 10-of-20 and went 4-for-6 from the charity stripe. With the Cougars trailing by seven at the half, Plaisted scored eight of BYU's first 10 points of the second stanza and assisted on a bucket to give the Cougars the lead over the Tar Heels. Overall, Plaisted scored 18 second-half points in 18 minutes on the floor. On the week, Plaisted averaged 20.3 points, 12.0 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game, while shooting 55.8 percent from the field (24-for-43).

TRENT PLAISTED (NOV. 19) — Junior Trent Plaisted led BYU to two wins last week as the team's top scorer and rebounder. He averaged 19.0 points and 7.5 rebounds while adding 1.5 assists in home wins over Idaho State and Jackson State. Plaisted made 65 percent of his shots on 13-of-20 shooting from the floor and converted 85.7 percent of his free-throw attempts, going 12-for-14 at the line. Plaisted put up a game-high 21 points against Jackson State Friday night on 8-for-11 shooting from the floor and 5-of-6 accuracy at the free-throw line. He provided the firepower for BYU to overtake Jackson State's early lead in the game. The Cougars trailed from the opening tip by as many as eight points until Plaisted gave the Cougars their first lead at 28-26 just after subbing back in at the 7:46 mark. His bucket was the beginning of an 11-2 Cougar run that gave BYU the momentum it would need to run away with the victory. During the key run, Plaisted scored eight of the 11 points and assisted the only other Cougar bucket, a three by Jonathan Tavernari. Plaisted added seven rebounds, two assists, one block and one steal in his 19 minutes on the floor against the Tigers. Against Idaho State on Wednesday, Plaisted totaled 17 points and eight rebounds with one assist while going 5-for-9 from the floor and 7-of-8 at the line. Plaisted's 21 points against Jackson State marked the 10th time in his career he has topped 20 points in a game.

LEE CUMMARD (NOV. 12) — Junior guard Lee Cummard led BYU to a runaway 74-34 win over reigning Big West Champion Long Beach State at the Walter Pyramid in Long Beach, Calif. Cummard helped BYU take quick control of the game by hitting his first three shots and assisting another Cougar bucket during the team's first seven possessions. BYU scored the first 10 points of the game and never looked back. Cummard scored four of the Cougars' first five points and six of their first 12. He finished with a game-high 15 points and nearly achieved a double-double by adding nine boards to share team-high honors with sophomore Jonathan Tavernari. He also contributed two assists and a steal while shooting 6-of-12 from the floor and 2-for-3 at the free-throw line.

SIGNING DAY

Forward Noah Hartssock and guard/forward Charles Abouo (pronounced a-BOO-oh) have signed National Letters of Intent while guard Jackson Emery has signed a scholarship agreement to return to the Cougars. Hartssock, who previously signed with BYU out of high school, and Emery, who played for the Cougars as a freshman in 2005-06, are both currently serving as missionaries for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. "I feel really good about this group of players," Rose said. "Jackson was an important part of our success as a freshman and got a lot of good experience that he will build upon when he returns. Noah and Charles are both talented student-athletes who will add a lot to our program." A native of Bartlesville, Okla., the 6-foot-8 Hartssock had the third-best scoring average in the state with 27.6 points per game as a senior at Bartlesville High School in 2005-06 while earning 6A Coaches Player of the Year and Tulsa World Player of the Year honors. Oklahoma's Jim Thorpe Award winner and a McDonald's High School All-America nominee, Hartssock added 8.0 rebounds and 3.7 blocks per contest as a senior. An extremely athletic wing from Logan, Utah, Abouo is averaging double figures, including a team-high 17 points in his last outing, for Brewster Academy (Wolfeboro, N.H.) this year after helping Logan High School win Region 11 titles in each of his three varsity seasons. The 6-foot-4 swingman was named the 3A MVP by the Deseret Morning News last spring after averaging 21.1 points, 10.2 rebounds and 3.2 steals per game as a senior at Logan High School. Described as explosive and athletic, Abouo was a two-time first-team all-state selection at LHS who also earned All-Valley Player of the Year honors as a junior in 2005-06 when he averaged 15.6 ppg, 7.7 rpg and 1.1 bpg. Known for his competitiveness and clutch play, Emery is a quick player and solid defender with outstanding leaping ability. The Alpine, Utah, native provided a consistent spark for BYU and was a top perimeter defender as a true freshman in 2005-06, playing in 28 of 29 games with six starts. He averaged 2.8 points and 1.5 rebounds while scoring in double figures twice and leading BYU in rebounds and assists once each. A good shooter from long range, Emery also has the athleticism and creativity to convert inside when going to the basket. The 6-foot-3 guard out of Lone Peak High School was named the top player in Class 4A in 2005 and received the 2005 Mr. Basketball Award (Deseret Morning News), given to the athlete considered to be the top high school player in Utah.

MEN'S BASKETBALL HONORED FOR HIGH ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

The NCAA honored the BYU men's basketball team with a public recognition award for the Cougars' Academic Progress Rate scores. BYU posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all men's basketball teams in the country. "The athletes have really worked hard at striving to be good students," said E.J. Caffaro, Student Athlete Academic Center director and men's basketball academic coach. "We've worked hard to put together a strong academic program. Their high score is a result of their hard work and the success of that program." Out of the 336 Division I men's basketball programs in the country, BYU is one of 35 to be honored by the NCAA and the only basketball team from Mountain West Conference to receive the recognition. The Cougars are also one of only 10 teams to earn high academic achievement and also qualify for the past year's NCAA Tournament. Other NCAA Tournament teams who also received public recognition awards were Belmont (NCAA No. 15 seed), Holy Cross (No. 13 seed), Davidson (No. 13 seed), Illinois (No. 12 seed), North Carolina (No. 1 seed), Notre Dame (No. 6 seed), Pennsylvania (No. 14 seed), Villanova (No. 9 seed) and Xavier (No. 9 seed).

BURGESS, CUMNARD, PLAISTED NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

BYU men's basketball head coach Dave Rose has announced that senior Sam Burgess and juniors Trent Plaisted and Lee Cumnard have been selected to serve as captains on this year's team. "Each of our captains have qualities we really want in all of our players," Rose said. "Sam is a hard worker and tough competitor who leads by example. Trent and Lee have proven their leadership ability both on and off the court over the past two years." Both Cumnard and Plaisted are two year starters who received all-conference accolades last season after helping the Cougars win their first outright league title since 1988 and achieve their first national ranking since 1993. A two-time All-MWC Second Team selection and Freshman All-American, Plaisted was second on the team last year in both scoring (12.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.2 rpg). The junior forward/center from San Antonio scored in double figures 21 times while posting three double-doubles on the year in 33 starts. Cumnard was named to the All-MWC Third Team last season after starting every game for the Cougars. He averaged 9.4 points, third on the team, on a team-best .553 shooting mark from the field. The junior guard from Mesa, Ariz., also led the team in steals and minutes, was second in assists and blocks and was third in rebounds with 5.6 per contest. He ranked among the top 15 in the conference in seven statistical categories. After redshirting the 2005-06 season, Burgess provided a spark off the bench for the Cougars last year, playing in 31 of 34 games and averaging 3.6 points and 1.5 rebounds in 10.2 minutes of action. The senior guard from Alpine, Utah, came on especially strong during BYU's run to the conference championship, playing double-digit minutes in eight of the Cougars' last 12 outings. The best-conditioned perimeter player on the team the past two seasons, Burgess averaged 15.0 points and 5.2 assists per game while shooting .615 from the floor during BYU's successful tour of France over the summer.

IVANOVIC TABBED FOR SERBIAN NATIONAL TEAM

BYU senior Vuk Ivanovic was selected to play on the Serbian National Team for the European Championship. The 6-foot-10 forward/center was one of 32 players on the Serbian roster, including NBA veterans Marko Jaric (Minnesota Timberwolves), Darko Milicic (Memphis Grizzlies) and Sasha Pavlovic (Cleveland Cavaliers). "Vuk answered my call while he was in the lab and couldn't believe that I was calling him to play for the national team," said newly appointed Serbian coach Zoran Slavnic in an interview reported by PA SportsTicker. "We need that kind of patriot, those who love their country, who are ready to play for it and who are great players." Serbia played in Group A of the EuroBasket, which began on Sept. 3, along with defending-champion Greece and Russia. Due to his commitment to the National Team, Ivanovic did not participate in BYU's foreign tour to France Aug. 15-25.

REDSHIRTS

WORTHY OF MENTION

- Plaisted has scored at least 20 points in three of the last six games, including 21 points against No. 6 Louisville and a season-high 24 points against No. 1 North Carolina. Cummond recorded his third career 20-point game and first of the season with 20 points against Hartford.
- Plaisted has scored in double figures in all eight games for BYU this season.
- Cummond became the first Cougar to record a double-double this season with 13 points and 10 rebounds against Idaho State, the fourth double-double of his career. Plaisted added his first of the year and 10th of his career with 21 points and 12 rebounds against No. 6 Louisville before posting 24 points and 17 rebounds against No. 1 North Carolina. He recorded his third of the season on Wednesday against Weber State with 14 points and 15 rebounds.
- Senior point guard Ben Murdock has 41 assists and only nine turnovers in his first eight starting assignments at the Division I level, leading the Mountain West Conference in assists per game (5.1) and ranking fifth in assist/turnover ratio (4.6). Against Portland, he dished out a personal-best 10 assists with only two turnovers, the fifth time this year he has dished out at least five assists.
- BYU is averaging 81.5 ppg and allowing 62.1 ppg. BYU leads all MWC teams in scoring, scoring margin (+19.4), field-goal percentage defense (.371), rebounding margin (+9.1) and defensive rebounds (30.6).
- BYU has led at the half in seven of eight games this season, including six double-digit leads. The Cougars' only deficit came when they trailed 38-31 against No. 1 North Carolina. The Cougars are outscoring opponents by 13.9 points in the first period of play.

DEFENDING THE HOME COURT

With 35 straight wins in the Marriott Center, the Cougars currently own the nation's second-longest active home victory streak. The Cougars are 4-0 at home this year and won 17 home games last season after going 14-1 at home in 2005-06. BYU's last home loss was in the 2005-06 season opener against Loyola Marymount. BYU has since won 19 straight over nonconference opponents and 16 consecutive over MWC foes since losing its season finale in 2005 to UNLV. BYU is 406-116 (.777) all-time in the Marriott Center. The Cougars' longest home winning streak came from Feb 19, 2000 to Jan 16, 2003 when BYU won 44 straight in the Marriott Center.

Active Homecourt Winning Streaks (As of Dec. 6, 2007)

Wins	Team	This year	Next home game
36	Memphis	4-0	Dec. 22 vs. Georgetown
35	BYU	4-0	Dec. 12 vs. Lamar

ON THE ROAD

The Cougars are 2-0 in true road games this year. With a 1-1 record on neutral courts, BYU is now 3-1 this season away from home. BYU won five of its last seven games on the road last season including a win at then-No. 20 Air Force (62-58), snapping the Falcons' 30-game home winning streak. BYU was 6-7 on the road last year and 5-3 in conference play, becoming the only Mountain West Conference team with a winning record on the road in league play last year.

MAGIC NUMBER: 70

BYU is now 7-0 when scoring at least 70 points this season and 5-0 when holding opponents under the 70-point mark while averaging 81.5 points per game and allowing just 62.1 ppg. The Cougars have scored 90 or more points in three of their eight games this season, reaching 100 against Jackson State. Last year the Cougars scored an MWC-leading 78.1 points and allowed 69.0 points. BYU was 20-0 when opponents scored less than 70 points and 23-6 when it scored 70 or more points. With its scoring output, BYU recorded its highest scoring average since 1996 (82.3 ppg) and highest scoring margin since 1993 (also +9.1).

CLEANING THE GLASS

BYU has won the battle of the boards in seven of eight games this year with the only deficit coming against No. 6 Louisville (39-37). The Cougars posted a +4 (43-39) rebounding margin against No. 1 North Carolina. BYU is besting opponents by an average of 9.1 boards per contest, leading the MWC. The Cougars posted a season-high +19 rebounding margin (38-19) against Hartford as four Cougars pulled down at least five rebounds. BYU began the season with a 55-40 rebounding advantage at Long Beach State, matching last year's season high of 55 boards against Seton Hall.

BALANCED SCORING

BYU has had five players score in double figures in a game three times this season, already matching last year's total of three games in which at least five players reached double digits. Four different Cougars have led the team in scoring this year through the first seven games with Lee Cummond pacing BYU three times, Trent Plaisted and Sam Burgess twice each and Jonathan Tavernari once. Team-high rebounding has been shared by four players through seven games while three different Cougars have led the team in assists.

HOT START

The Cougars won their first five games to begin the 2007-08 season before falling against No. 1 North Carolina on Saturday, equaling their best start since 2002-03 when BYU won its first five games before falling on Dec. 7 at Creighton. The Cougars' 7-1 start this year is their best start through eight games since 2003-04 when BYU was also 7-1 through eight contests. The Cougars have won in dominant fashion this season, besting opponents by an average of 19.4 points per game while scoring 81.5 ppg and allowing only 62.1 points per contest.

FROM DOWNTOWN

After setting a program record with 256 three-pointers last season, the Cougars have recorded 68 makes from long range so far this season. BYU has posted double-digit three-pointers in a game twice this year with 12 against Long Beach State and 13 against Hartford, marking just the sixth time in program history that the Cougars have posted at least 13 threes in a game including a record 15 against UNLV last season. BYU is shooting 39.3 percent from beyond the arc this year and has shot at least 40 percent in four games, including a season high 59.1 percent efficiency against the Hawks (13-for-22). BYU shot above 40 percent from behind the arc 18 times on the year, including 12 of the last 15 games, and made at least 10 treys in a game on seven occasions.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

Four Cougar freshman are making an impact this year as Chris Collinsworth, Jimmer Fredette, Michael Loyd, Jr. and Nick Martineau have made their respective BYU debuts with results that bode well for the future. All four saw their first action in the Cougars' season opener at Long Beach State as Fredette and Collinsworth led the newcomers in scoring with nine points each. Fredette tallied 10 points vs. Idaho State, and Loyd scored 15 points against Jackson State while Collinsworth pulled down 10 boards against the Tigers. Fredette then made noise against Hartford with 19 points on 6-for-7 shooting from the field, including making 4-of-5 from three-point range, while posting a perfect 3-for-3 mark from the free-throw line and tying his career high with four steals in 19 minutes. On the year, Fredette is tied for sixth in the Mountain West Conference in steals with teammate Jonathan Tavernari while Chris Collinsworth is tied for 11th in defensive rebounds per game.

FOR STARTERS

Cougar head coach Dave Rose has used the same starting lineup in each of BYU's first eight games, electing to use two seniors in Ben Murdock and Sam Burgess, returning All-Mountain West Conference selections Trent Plaisted and Lee Cumnard, both juniors, and 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year Jonathan Tavernari to begin the game. Cumnard started all 34 games last season, and Plaisted made 33 starts. Burgess made one start as a sophomore in 2004-05 while Murdock and Tavernari each earned their first career starts against Long Beach State. Rose used the same starting rotation in both of the Cougars' two exhibition games.

WINNING BIG

The Cougars' seven victories this year have come by an average margin of 23.6 points, including a 15-point triumph over Weber State (72-57), a 14-point victory at Portland (78-54), a two-point win over No. 6 Louisville, a 24-point triumph over Hartford (97-73), a 39-point win over Jackson State (100-61), a 21-point victory over Idaho State (90-69) and a 40-point win at Long Beach State (74-34). The win over the 49ers marked BYU's largest margin of victory over a Division I opponent since defeating Morgan State by 41 points (110-69) on Dec. 28, 1995. Including a 10-point loss to No. 1 North Carolina, the Cougars are still besting opponents by 19.4 points per game this year. BYU won 17 games by double-digits last year, including seven by 20 or more points, and was the only team in the Mountain West Conference to not have a regular-season game decided by less than four points. With an average scoring margin of +9.1 last season, the Cougars posted their largest margin of victory since 1993 over the course of the year.

ON FIRE

BYU is shooting 48.6 percent from the field this season while allowing opponents to shoot just 37.1 percent from the floor. The Cougars posted a season-high 60.4 percent efficiency against Hartford bolstered by a 63.6 percent second-half shooting mark (14-for-22). BYU had shot above 50 percent in each of the last six halves of play prior to shooting just 39.4 percent in the first half against No. 6 Louisville. BYU rebounded, however, to shoot 50 percent in the second half of its win over the Cardinals. The Cougars shot a season-high 65.2 percent in the second half at Portland on Saturday, making their first seven shots of the period. Individually, three Cougars rank among the top 10 in the Mountain West Conference in field-goal percentage as Trent Plaisted ranks second shooting 58.6 percent on the year, Lee Cummard is third at 56.8 percent and Jonathan Tavernari comes in ninth at 41.3 percent with a minimum of five shots made per game.

HALFTIME REPORT

The Cougars are 7-0 this season when leading at the half with six of the seven advantages coming by double digits. No. 1 North Carolina was the first team this season to post a halftime lead against BYU with a 38-31 advantage at the break. The Cougars are besting opponents by an average of 13.9 points in the first period of play after while scoring at least 40 points in the first half of five of eight games this season. BYU has topped the 50-point mark in the second half twice this year. The Cougars put together strong defensive starts in their first four games, holding all four opponents under 30 points at the break before No. 6 Louisville scored 37 in the first half to trail 41-37 at halftime. The BYU defense kept Long Beach State and Idaho State under 30 points, under 30 percent shooting from the field and under 10 field goals made in the first 20 minutes. The Cougars' 36-12 lead at the break in Long Beach marked their largest halftime advantage since being up by 28 points (51-23) against Western Oregon on Dec. 22, 2006. The 12 points given up by BYU in the first 20 minutes of the game at LBSU marked the fewest points allowed in a half by the Cougars since allowing a record-low 10 points against Air Force in 2003.

BYU BASKETBALL ON KSL NEWSRADIO
(102.7 FM and 1160 AM)

The "Voice of the Cougars" is KSL Newsradio 1160's Greg Wrubell. He is in his 12th season as the play-by-play voice of BYU basketball. Wrubell, also the voice of BYU football, is joined by former Cougar lettermen Mark Durrant or Andy Toolson as color analysts. Durrant is in his 11th year teaming with Wrubell while Toolson, a former Cougar assistant coach, begins his first season as an analyst for select broadcasts. In addition to live coverage of every Cougar game, the following programs can be heard each week on KSL Newsradio.

COUGARS VOLUNTEER FOR CHILDREN WITH CANCER CHRISTMAS FOUNDATION

For the ninth year, the BYU men's basketball team will join the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation in an effort to raise money for families who have children with cancer and participate in the Foundation's annual Christmas party for those families. The Foundation will be collecting monetary donations and any unwrapped toys through the first three weeks of December. Toys can be dropped off at the nearest Far West Bank location, at Harmon's Down Town Auto Center located in Provo or at the men's basketball office located next to the Ticket Office at the Marriott Center. Monetary contributions will also be accepted at the men's basketball office. One hundred percent of all donations to the Foundation will go directly towards the Christmas party for more than 90 families who have children with cancer living primarily in Utah County. A large portion of the money donated will purchase hundreds of toys that will enable these parents to have gifts under the Christmas tree for their children. In addition to all of these toys, there is food, free entertainment, such as games and ornament decorating, and local celebrities including Santa, Cosmo and the BYU men's basketball team. This is the eighth year BYU coaches, players and their families have volunteered for the Christmas party. BYU head coach Dave Rose will serve as Honorary Chairman for the third year. "This has always been a cause I feel strongly about," said BYU coach Dave Rose. "It has been such a positive experience for the coaches, players and families and is a tremendous opportunity for community members to be involved in brightening the holiday season for these children." Cheryl Rose, vice chairman of the Foundation and wife of coach Rose, discussed the challenges these families face financially and how the Foundation hopes to help these families now and in the future. "For many of these families, it is financially impossible to always have food on the table, a roof over their heads or even have Christmas," Cheryl Rose said. "We want to create a Christmas experience that they will never forget and hopefully in the future help families meet those basic needs that they can't on their own." Rose says that asking for donations has usually been difficult for her, but with such a meaningful cause it has been easy. It has enriched her life, which is something she hopes others will enjoy by contributing to these families. "It's a privilege for me to associate with these families," she said. "They are such an example to me. Even with all that they've been through, they have such a strength and passion for life. It's almost selfish on my part to be involved because I get so much out of it." This year's Christmas party will be held Dec. 19. Parents will be invited to choose the gifts their children will receive on Dec. 18. The gifts will then be distributed at the party. "The support we get from the community makes this event possible," Cheryl Rose said. "We couldn't serve these children without the donations of time, money and gifts we receive."

PRESEASON MWC POLL

The Mountain West Conference released its men's basketball preseason media poll and all-conference team at the league's media day held at the The Mtn. studios in Littleton, Colo. Conference media selected defending regular-season champion BYU to repeat as the MWC men's basketball champion. The Cougars' Trent Plaisted was named to the five-member preseason team and BYU newcomer Jimmer Fredette was tabbed the top freshman. "Obviously, these picks are a compliment to our team as well as to Trent and Jimmer," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "I think this is a tribute to how hard our guys have worked and speaks to the credibility of our program." BYU returns seven lettermen and two starters from last year's 25-9 team that finished the year ranked No. 24 in the final Associated Press Poll. BYU captured 15 of 22 first-place votes and 181 points for the top spot in the preseason media poll. Five MWC teams earned at least one first-place vote. 2007 MWC Tournament champion UNLV (146 points) and Utah (142 points) each earned two first-place votes to finish second and third, respectively, while New Mexico garnered two first-place votes and 128 points to tie for fourth with San Diego State, who received one first-place vote and 128 points. Wyoming collected 120 points to finish sixth, followed by TCU in seventh with 58 points. Air Force was chosen eighth with 54 points, while Colorado State rounded out the poll in ninth place with 33 points. BYU and UNLV earned NCAA Tournament berths last season, while Air Force and San Diego State were NIT participants. The Cougars captured the regular-season Mountain West title with a 13-3 mark and received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament following a runner-up finish in the MWC Tournament. UNLV posted a second-place finish in regular-season play (12-4) and became the second Mountain West team in three years to advance to the Sweet 16, earning the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament after capturing the MWC Tournament crown on their home floor with a win over the Cougars. Overall, the MWC has had 18 NCAA Tournament appearances the past eight years. Since 2003, all nine MWC teams have participated in postseason play at least once. Five institutions were represented on the preseason all-MWC team. Wyoming's Brandon Ewing was named the Top Returning Player, while San Diego State's Ryan Amoroso garnered Top Newcomer accolades and Fredette received Top Freshman kudos. One senior and four juniors make up this year's preseason all-MWC team.

IN THE FIRST EIGHT YEARS OF THE MWC ...

- BYU has had six 20-win seasons, leading all MWC schools. Utah has had five, UNLV four, Air Force, Wyoming and San Diego State three and New Mexico two.
- BYU has had the league's top RPI three times, been second twice and third on three occasions. The Cougars were second last year (18) behind UNLV (10).
- BYU has played the toughest schedule on average of any team in the MWC. Last year, BYU's schedule was rated third behind Utah and UNLV. BYU had the league's toughest schedule in two of the previous three seasons.
- BYU has the second-most overall wins (162, Utah leads at 166).
- BYU is also second in conference wins (73, Utah has 75).
- BYU has the second-most MWC regular-season titles (three). Utah leads with four.
- BYU is one of six MWC teams to win the MWC Tournament title.

INTERNATIONAL PLAYERS AT BYU

- Including junior transfer Archie Rose, 27 international players have played basketball at BYU.
- The Cougars have had an international player on their varsity roster in 36 of the past 56 years.
- In the last six years, BYU has rostered seven international players, including three on this season's team - Vuk Ivanovic (Serbia), Jonathan Tavernari (Brazil) and Archie Rose (Bahamas).
- Foreign players at BYU have received eight all-conference citations, two conference player of the year awards (Timo Saarelainen - 1985, Rafael Araujo - 2004) and eight All-America citations (Kresimir Cosic - 1972 and 1973, Rafael Araujo - 2004).
- According to a book about basketball in Finland by Mikko Simon, BYU has the distinction of being the first NCAA Division I school to have an overseas player on its roster when Timo Lampen, a native of Lahti, Finland, took the court for the Cougars in 1960-61.
- BYU also boasts the first foreign All-American in Kresimir Cosic, whose BYU jersey was retired on March 4. The Zadar, Yugoslavia, native played on the Cougar varsity team from 1971-73 and earned six All-America citations and three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference awards. He is the only BYU player to be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. Cosic passed away in 1995.
- During the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, CBS Television analyst Billy Packer singled out Cosic during a discussion of the quality of international players now playing college basketball. Said Packer, "Kresimir Cosic, who played for BYU, was really the first great international player to play basketball in the United States."

SUMMER FOREIGN TOUR A SUCCESS

The BYU men's basketball team completed a five-game, 11-day foreign tour of France and Monaco in August with a perfect 5-0 record. The Cougars impressed the opposition by scoring 89.2 points per game for a 23.4 average margin of victory. "It was a great trip," BYU coach Dave Rose said. "From a coach's perspective it went just as we wanted. Everyone got to play, and we really played well and shot the ball well." Sophomore forward Jonathan Tavernari paced the team in the scoring column, pouring in 21.4 points per game. Junior forward/center Trent Plaisted followed in point production after his injury-shortened final outing dropped his scoring average of 20.6 over the first three games to 17.5 points for the trip. Tavernari shot 47.8 percent on the trip, including .439 accuracy on threes while making a team-high 15 triples. He added 5.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. Plaisted converted a blazing 65.1 percent of his field-goal attempts and pulled down a team-best 10.3 rebounds per game. Junior guard Lee Cummond recorded three double-double outings and nearly posted a triple-double while averaging 14.4 points and 9.8 rebounds. Cummond added 4.6 assists per contest while shooting 60.9 from the floor. He had highs of 19 points, 12 rebounds and 10 assists. Senior guard Sam Burgess scored in double figures in every contest, including 22 points on 10-of-12 shooting to lead the team in its last game, which BYU played without Plaisted while he nursed an ankle sprain. Burgess averaged 15 points, 3.6 rebounds and a team-leading 5.2 assists while shooting .615 from the field and .421 from long range. Senior Ben Murdock ran the point while averaging 9.4 points, 4.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists and made a team-best .474 from behind the three-point arc. Junior forward/center Gavin MacGregor had a strong showing with averages of 10 points, 8.2 rebounds and a team-high .710 shooting percentage. Recently returned missionary Chris Miles, a sophomore forward/center, added 4.2 ppg and 4.2 rpg while senior point guard Chase Ulicny pitched in 0.8 ppg, 1.6 rpg and 1.2 apg. BYU started the trip by defeating the Paris All-Stars, 90-68, on Aug. 17 before earning an 89-59 victory over Lyon BBC on Aug. 20. The next night the Cougars played again in Lyon, defeating Saint Etienne, a Pro B level squad, by a score of 92-73. BYU downed Golfe-Juan in Cannes, 89-68, on Aug. 23 before finishing with an 86-61 victory over AS Monaco on Aug. 24. The team also had the chance to do some sightseeing in France and Monaco. The Cougars spent time in Paris visiting the Eiffel Tower and other sites such as the Louvre Museum and Notre Dame Cathedral. They enjoyed the opportunity to attend Church in Paris. The Cougars also visited Cannes and Monaco before returning home. "The trip was great," Tavernari said. "We got a lot closer as a team, and we got to see some sites. But most important was that we got to practice and play games and get an early start on the season as we get ready to defend our Mountain West Conference title."

A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Dave Rose has guided BYU to consecutive 20-win seasons and the program's first national ranking since 1993 after succeeding Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose coached last year's team to a 25-9 overall record and the MWC regular-season title (13-3) while earning his second consecutive MWC Coach of the Year award. He was district and conference coach of the year in his first season at the Cougar helm in 2005-06. Taking over a 9-21 team, Rose's Cougar squad was picked to finish last in his first season in the Mountain West Conference (preseason poll of MWC media members) but BYU instead earned a 20-9 record and NIT bid in 2005-06.

06 under Rose's tutelage, including a 12-4 conference mark to tie for second place. His team ranked second nationally for the most improvement over the year before.

Rose was named the USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year and received honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com. He was named MWC Coach of the Year by the league's media and coaches and by CollegeInsider.com. In a column on ESPN.com, Pat Forde listed Rose as one of the top first-year coaches in the nation, ranking Rose No. 3 among the nearly 40 first-year coaches in college basketball in 2005-06.

Rose, who served the prior eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant in Provo, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. Rose served as BYU's associate head coach for five seasons and took over the Cougar program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 with Cleveland, Rose played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play in seven of the past eight seasons, including four NCAA bids, while claiming three MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. BYU was the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the four seasons Rose oversaw the defense.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose managed BYU's recruiting efforts during his eight seasons as an assistant. Rose's success as a recruiter was evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top 20 nationally. Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 10 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 10 years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year. The following is the list of player honors earned the last 10 seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Jonathan Tavernari (2006-07 MWC Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Plaisted (2005-06 MWC Freshman of the Year, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-03 Newcomer of the Year, MWC media poll, 3rd-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-02 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-01 MWC Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year, All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Sellaize (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year, Newcomer Team, 2nd-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational where BYU faced that season's NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, where he compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he has recruited and coached two NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA Tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82 and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first-team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion, hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first-team all-district and All-Greater Houston and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-03 and is married to Brock Reichner. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returned in August 2005 from a two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark., and married his wife Brooke in November 2006. Rose also has a daughter, Taylor, who is a seventh grader at Centennial Middle School.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."
 - Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, playing professionally in Russia

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."
 - Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, playing professionally in Spain

"Dave Rose has done an outstanding job of establishing BYU as one of the premier programs in the Western United States. He's an outstanding teacher of the game, and equally important, is an outstanding person who demands the most out of his players both on and off the court. He's a credit to the coaching profession, and BYU is very fortunate to have him as its coach."
 - UCLA Head Coach Ben Howland

"I'm impressed with the preparation of BYU and the poise they demonstrate. That's definitely a credit to Dave Rose and his coaching staff. Rose looks young, but he's got a lot of experience. He's done a nice job as a head coach ... He has experience at the highest levels of college basketball, both as a player and a coach."
 - ESPN Game Analyst Steve Levin

WORTH NOTING

- Dave Rose has a .742 winning percentage as a college head coach (219-76), including a 7-1 record this season, a 25-9 (.735) mark last year, a 20-9 (.690) season in his first year at BYU and a 167-57 (.746) record in seven seasons at Dixie State College.
- Dave Rose was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year each of his first two seasons, becoming the first-ever BYU men's basketball coach to win back-to-back league coach-of-the-year honors.
- BYU was the second-most improved team in the nation in 2005-06 under Rose and his coaching staff in their first season.
- The BYU coaching staff has more than 60 years of combined coaching experience.
- The BYU coaching staff has playing experience in NCAA Final Fours, including a National Championship.
- The BYU coaching staff has played with or coached 27 NBA players.

TRENT PLAISTED
 6-11 • 245 • junior • forward/center
 San Antonio, Texas

LAST OUTING: Had an outstanding defensive game against Weber State, tallying 15 rebounds, including 12 on the defensive end, and 5 blocks while contributing 14 points and 2 assists in 26 minutes.

TRACKING PLAISTED IN 2007-08: Ranks first in the MWC in rebounding (9.4), second in scoring (17.6), second in field-goal percentage (.586) and tied for fifth in blocks (1.0) ... continued his double-figure scoring streak with 16 points on 6-for-9 shooting from the field at Portland to go along with a team-high 8 rebounds and 2 assists in 26 minutes ... earned high praise from ESPN analyst Dick Vitale and North Carolina head coach Roy Williams as he posted game highs of 24 points and 17 rebounds against the top-ranked Tar Heels while adding a team-best 2 assists and 1 steal in 36 minutes ... scored eight of BYU's first 10 second-half points during a 13-4 Cougar run that gave BYU the lead ... topped the 20-point mark for the second time this season with 21 points against No. 6 Louisville, going 10-for-16 from the field while pulling down 12 rebounds to record his first double-double of the season ... tied his career highs with 8 free-throws made and 5 assists while recording 16 points and 7 rebounds in 26 minutes against Hartford ... has scored in double figures in all four games for the Cougars this season ... scored a season-high 21 points on 8-for-11 shooting from the floor and 5-of-6 accuracy from the line in 19 minutes vs. Jackson State ... added 7 rebounds, 2 assists, 1 block and 1 steal ... scored 17 points against Idaho State on 5-for-9 shooting from the field and a 7-for-8 mark from the free-throw line while adding 8 rebounds and 1 assist in 28 minutes ... also posted two dunks ... contributed 12 points, 2 assists and 1 rebound in 19 minutes at Long Beach State, including his 72nd career dunk to cap a 14-0 Cougar run ... scored in double figures in both exhibition contests while averaging 15.0 points on .667 shooting and 6.5 rebounds in 17.0 minutes per game ... posted 12 points, 7 rebounds and 3 assists against Bryant while going 4-for-4 from the free-throw line ... led BYU with 18 points against Laval on 8-for-10 shooting to go along with 6 rebounds.

PLAYER SUMMARY: A two-time All-Mountain West Conference Second Team selection, Plaisted has developed into a sizeable force for the Cougars offensively and defensively. He was second on the team in both scoring and rebounding last season, helping BYU secure the outright MWC title and a No. 24 final national ranking. A 2006 Freshman All-American, Plaisted led the Cougars in scoring and rebounding in 2005-06, receiving MWC Freshman of the Year honors. The left-handed forward/center received a medical redshirt in 2004-05 due to injury. Long and athletic, Plaisted runs the floor well and has a soft shooting touch to 18 feet. He can play the four or five position and is a good shot-blocker and solid rebounder. A first-team 5A Texas all-state selection from San Antonio's Clark High, where he averaged 22 points, 10 rebounds, 2 blocks and 2 assists, he has a running vertical of 41 inches, can touch 12-foot-2 and has run a 4.6 40-yard dash on grass wearing tennis shoes.

PERSONAL: Parents are John and Sherry Plaisted ... is the youngest of five children, having three sisters and one brother ... married Lacey in the summer of 2007 ... among schools recruiting Plaisted were Florida State, Stanford, Kansas, Oklahoma State, Washington State, Texas A&M, Utah, Arkansas, New Mexico, Texas Tech and Vanderbilt ... economics major.
