BYU TO FACE WASHINGTON STATE TUESDAY IN SPOKANE

BYU will play its road opener on Tuesday when the Cougars face the Washington State Cougars at 7 p.m. PST (8 p.m. MST). The two teams will meet for the first time in Spokane, with the game being played at Spokane Arena, where the Cougars faced Connecticut in the 2003 NCAA Tournament. The game will be broadcast live on KSL Newsradio, which can be heard on 102.7 FM or 1160 AM. Greg Wrubell and Russell Larson will call the game, which is also available online at KSL.com.

UP NEXT

BYU returns to Provo to host in-state foe Southern Utah on Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Marriott Center. The Cougars will then face Lamar University on Nov. 30th in the Delta Center in Salt Lake City in a contest originally slated for Dec. 20th in Provo before being rescheduled because of Hurricane Rita.

COUGAR QUICK HITS

- Coming off a disappointing 9-21 season after five straight postseason appearances, BYU looks to return to the ranks of conference contenders and postseason invitees under the direction of new head coach Dave Rose.
- Rose enters his first year leading the Cougars after serving the past eight seasons as Steve Cleveland's lead assistant, including five years as associate head coach. After Cleveland announced his resignation to take the Fresno State job, BYU moved quickly to promote Rose to BYU's head position.
- This year Coach Rose has five juniors with some starting experience and several talented newcomers with the ability to make an impact in their first seasons on the court.
- Among BYU's returning players, honorable mention All-MWVC guard Austin Ainge was the team's second-leading scorer and top assist man last year, and junior forward Keena Young was BYU's leading rebounder. Other returners with starting experience include junior swingman Jimmy Balderson, who represented Canada at the World University Games this summer; junior center Derek Dawes, who made 13 starts in the middle last year; and junior guard Mike Rose, who made seven starts last year and averaged 7.7 points while making a team-leading 56 treys.
- Several players who did not take the court for BYU last year could be key contributors in 2005-06. Among those players are redshirt freshmen Trent Plaisted (6-11, F/C) and David Burgess (6-10, C), freshmen Lee Cummond (6-6, G) and Jackson Emery (6-3, G) and JC transfers Rashaun Broadus (6-0, G) and Fernando Malaman (6-9, F).

LOOKING AT WASHINGTON STATE

Washington State is coached by Dick Bennett. The Cougars are 26-32 in his third season at Washington State. Bennett owns a 480-289 career record in his 28th collegiate season. He guided Wisconsin to 2000 Final Four. Bennett has been the Washington State coach for 58 games. In 28 of those, WSU's opponent has scored 55 points or less, including UC Riverside in this year's season opener. Prior to Bennett's arrival, WSU held a total of 26 opponents to less than 55 points from the 1993-94 season to through 2002-03. Last year, WSU finished sixth nationally in scoring defense at 56.9 points per game, the fewest points given up by a Pac-10 team since Oregon State's 55.8 in 1983-84, prior to shot clock and 3-point line in college basketball. The Cougars returning players accounted for 56 starts and 44.4 percent of WSU's scoring in 2004-05. The Cougars were 12-16 last season and tied for sixth in conference play with a 7-11 mark. They lost to Stanford in the first round of the Pacific-10 Tournament. Sophomore Derrick Low is WSU's leading returning scorer after averaging 7.0 per game in 2004-05, the eighth best mark by a freshman in Cougar history. The Cougars return two starters and seven lettermen overall.

WSU's LAST OUTING - Crimson Cougars Cruise to Win to Open Season

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State's Josh Akognon scored a career-high 22 points and pulled down a career-best eight rebounds to lead the Cougars past UC Riverside 86-55 in its season opener Saturday. The sophomore was making his first career start. UC Riverside struggled offensively, making 6-of-38 field goals, including 0-for-16 from three-point range, during the first half. Akognon scored eight unanswered points after an early 3-0 UC Riverside lead, including two treys, to give the Cougars control. WSU never trailed the rest of the way and built a lead to as many as 34 points. The Highlanders shot just 25 percent (19-for-76) for the game, including 6-for-33 on treys. Four Cougars reached double figures in the team's highest scoring output under coach Dick Bennett. Freshman Aron Baynes scored 19 points, while Derrick Low finished with 15 points and 11 assists for his first career double-double. Sophomore Kyle Weaver added 10 points for the Cougars. It was Washington State's 18th straight win in a home opener, and its fourth consecutive season-opening win overall.

WSU SUCCESSFUL IN PULLMAN HOME OPENERS

With its win Saturday over UC Riverside, Washington State has now won 18 consecutive openers at Friel Court in Pullman. The last time the Cougars lost in their home opener in Pullman was a 60-54 loss to BYU on Dec. 3, 1987.

MEETING IN SPOKANE

BYU is 1-1 against Washington State in Pullman. BYU's 60-54 victory in 1987 was followed in 1998 with a 70-69 WSU win. This year's game will be the first time the two teams have met in Spokane. Washington State will also play Arizona in Spokane Arena this season on Dec. 29th.

LAST SEASON — WASHINGTON STATE COMES BACK FOR 49-46 WIN AT THE DELTA CENTER

SALT LAKE CITY (Dec. 11, 2004) – In their second annual trip to the Delta Center, the Cougars could not hang on to an eight-point lead as Washington State fired back in the second half to edge BYU, 49-46. "We need more than two guys making baskets," BYU head coach Steve Cleveland said. "We have not figured out how to play two halves. Somebody's got to step up and make shots, and no one's doing that." After trailing by six points in the second half, Austin Ainge sparked the Cougars' comeback, scoring the last nine points for BYU including a clutch three-pointer with 18.3 seconds left in the game. Although Ainge's trey put the Cougars within two of Washington State, BYU's 5-3 run could not help them pull ahead in the last few seconds. Ainge finished with a team- and career-high 16 points after playing 31 minutes off the bench. Despite a rough beginning, BYU soon found its range in the first half, recording a 20-3 run early on with the help of Mike Rose, who came off the bench to score 10 points in the first 13 minutes of the game. Rose continued his firepower and led the Cougar offense, going 5-for-7 from the field while hitting 50 percent beyond the arc in the first half. Rose came away with 15 points as well as picking off three steals. Ainge also made an impact early for the Cougars, who struggled offensively throughout the contest. In the first half, Ainge tallied seven points while grabbing two rebounds and dishing out two assists. Washington State's Thomas Kelati, who led WSU with 15 points, started the second half with a three, but Mike Rose answered back with a trey of his own after center Derek Dawes went 1-for-2 from the charity stripe. Dawes played some key minutes for the Cougars and finished with six points and seven rebounds while Garner Meads led the team with 10 rebounds, tying his career high.

LAST MEETING IN PULLMAN

The last meeting between BYU and Washington State hosted by the Crimson and Gray Cougars was on Dec. 8, 1998. The game came down to the final horn with Washington State prevailing, 70-69. BYU was led by Olympia, Wash., native Mark Bigelow, who scored 33 points as a freshman in his return to his home state.

BYU IN SPOKANE ARENA

BYU played in Spokane Arena in the 2003 NCAA Tournament, facing Connecticut and Emeka Okafor and Ben Gordon on Mar. 20, 2003. Current Cougars Austin Ainge and Jermaine Odjegba were freshmen on that team, but neither Ainge nor Odjegba played while redshirting the season.

The Cougars upset hopes fell short as they lost to the Huskies, 58-53, in the first round of the tournament. BYU suffers its worst shooting performance of that season, making just 31.3 percent of its shots from the field, including a season-low 2-of-17 from behind the arc. The Cougars also scored a season-low 53 points but managed to slow the game down to control the Huskies, entering the half tied at 26-26. UConn exploded out of the locker room in the second half. The Huskies went on a 14-2 run out of the gate. Ben Gordon completed a three-point play and then drained a three the next trip down to extend the Huskies lead to 46-32 with 11:30 left. Following a timeout, BYU settled down and turned up the defensive pressure, battling on the boards.

"We really competed well and hung in there. Defensively we did a great job securing the rebounds," said then BYU Associate Head Coach Dave Rose. "We knew that we needed to do that to control their transition game."

The Cougars earned better looks at the basket and went on a 7-point run of their own, cutting the lead to 46-39 with 9:25 left. Tough Cougar defense held the Huskies scoreless for a stretch of over seven minutes that enabled BYU to cut the lead to five on a steal by Kevin Woodberry and his layup at the other end. Woodberry then pulled up in transition and nailed a three to trim the lead to just two points with 2:20 to play in the game. Following a steal by Hansen of UConn's Gordon, BYU looked inside to Araujo who was blocked by Okafor and the ball was saved by the Huskies. That was the Cougars last chance as UConn made free throws to finish off BYU and the Cougars' hopes of busting brackets all across the country. BYU matched the rebound effort of UConn, each team grabbing 41 boards.

"We felt like we had a good chance and we played hard, but UConn is a very good team and they play very emotional basketball," Rose said.

The Huskies struggled at times on offense due to great defensive pressure by BYU. The Cougars held UConn to 32.7 percent shooting for the game. Okafor was a great presence for the Huskies inside, swatting shots and changing others. The big man finished the game with 20 points, eight rebounds and seven blocks. Gordon finished the game with 14 points on 4-of-12 shooting. Hansen, as he had done all season for BYU, played excellent defense to hold Gordon five points below his average. Hansen was the leading scoring for either team with 21 points and six rebounds. Mark Bigelow, playing for the first time in his home state since his freshman year, scored 12 points on just 4-of-15 shooting, including 1-for-7 behind the arc. Jake Shoff played tough defensive minutes before fouling out with six points, while Rafael Araujo was just 2-of-12 from the floor and totaled six points and eight rebounds. BYU finished the season with an impressive 23-9 record and a share of the Mountain West Conference regular season championship. The Cougars lose just one player, Travis Hansen, who finishes his career 24th on BYU's all-time scoring list with 1,237 points in his injury-shortened three seasons.

BYU'S LAST OUTING — Cougars Fall in Season Opener

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 18, 2005)—In a game that matched up two head coaches in their first respective games, Loyola Marymount spoiled Cougar head coach Dave Rose's debut by beating BYU, 83-71, at the Marriott Center Friday night.

The Cougars, now 0-1, didn't have an answer for LMU's frontcourt which scored 45 of the Lions' points. LMU (1-0), who returned four of its five starters from last year's team, put together what turned out to be a decisive late 15-0 first-half run en route to the victory. The experienced squad then held on to counter all of the Cougars' runs. LMU head coach Rodney Tention said his team benefited from playing with each other for so long.

"Experience was a big difference in the game tonight," Tention said. "It helps having those guys who have been in a lot of games."

The Cougars jumped out to a quick lead to start the game. Fueled by Plaisted's early six points, BYU jumped out to an 8-2 advantage. LMU fought back behind the physical play of Matthew Knight and the shooting of Wes Wardrop and cut the lead to one at 14-13 with 11:49 remaining in the first half. BYU head coach Dave Rose was happy with the way his team started the game.

"Our team did a good job and was prepared to come out and play," he said. "We had a good start and scored early but seemed to get complacent and didn't push the ball with near enough purpose."

Plaisted continued his hot shooting, hitting his first five shots from the field for 12 points. Cougar turnovers kept the Lions close as LMU's Chris Ayer tied the game at 24 with an offensive rebound and put-back. Mike Rose then entered the game and promptly scored eight points, including two quick three pointers, helping BYU maintain a slim 30-29 first-half lead with 3:37 left in the first frame. Foul trouble and turnovers continued to haunt the Cougars as LMU scored 15 unanswered points to end the half and take an 11-point lead into the intermission. BYU didn't score for the final 4:48 of the first half.

In the second half, Jimmy Balderson came out firing on all cylinders scoring seven quick points helping cut the lead to five with 15:20 left in the game. The Lions' physical inside play helped the Lions go on a run of their own extending the lead to a game-high 12 point lead at 57-45 with 12 minutes remaining. BYU jumped back with an 8-0 run to cut back into the lead. LMU showed its experience by coming out of a timeout and scoring six points on a Wardrop three and a Brandon Worthy three-point play. Down the stretch, the Lions had an answer for seemingly every Cougar basket to hold on for the win.

"Every time we got into a position to get close they hit shots and made big plays," Rose said.

BYU was led by Balderson who scored 18 points and recorded seven boards. Plaisted finished with 17 points on 6-of-8 shooting while grabbing four rebounds.

NOTES FROM SEASON OPENER

- Three Cougars earned the first starts of their BYU careers Friday as the Cougars started their two JC transfers (Broadus, Malaman) and redshirt freshman Trent Plaisted.
- Derek Dawes did not play due to a shoulder injury. He is probable to play at Washington State on Tuesday.
- Jimmy Balderson earned team-high scoring honors on the night as he led BYU with 18 points, going 6-for-12 from the field and 5-for-6 from the free throw line. Balderson also paced the Cougars with seven rebounds.
- Trent Plaisted shot 75 percent (6-8) from the field in his first game as a redshirt freshman, scoring 17 points. Plaisted saw limited action in five games last season before having to sit out the season due to injury.
- Plaisted made an immediate impact in the first start of his career, going 5-for-5 from the floor and scoring 12 points in the first 11 minutes of the game before sitting down.
- After trailing since 2-2 at the 18:30 mark, LMU tied the game 24-24 with 6:44 left in the first half. The Lions took their first lead of the game three minutes later with a 31-30 advantage with 3:02 left in the first half during a 15-0 run to end the half.
- BYU did not score during the final 4:48 of the first half, allowing LMU to go on a 15-0 run and build a 41-30 halftime lead.
- The Cougars came out hot in the second half, putting together a 12-4 run to cut the lead to three points thanks in part to seven points from Jimmy Balderson.
- LMU did not score from the field for the first 4:21 of the second half. However, the Lions put together a 10-2 run from that point to take a 12-point lead.
- LMU's experience showed in the second half as the Lions never allowed BYU to take the lead. The Lions return four starters and 12 of 13 lettermen to this year's team.
- The Lions' last six points over the final 1:58 came from the free throw line. LMU was 18-24 (.750) from the charity stripe while the Cougars were 14-17 (.824).
- With the loss, BYU is now 72-32 (.692) all-time in season openers, including a 55-15 (.786) mark when the first game of the season is played at home. The Cougars are now 79-25 (.760) all-time in their annual home opener.

SCORING FOR THE COUGARS

BYU had three players reach double-digit points in its season-opening loss to Loyola Marymount. Junior Jimmy Balderson scored 18 points, followed by Trent Plaisted with 17 and Mike Rose with 12. Including BYU's exhibition games, Balderson, Plaisted and Rose are the only three players to reach double figures every time they have stepped on the floor. In BYU's two exhibition wins, Trent Plaisted and Jimmy Balderson were the two Cougars to score in double figures in both outings, while Rose made his first appearance this year vs. LMU. By average, Plaisted averaged 19 points and Balderson 11.5 in the two exhibition wins. Plaisted and freshman Lee Cummard, who boasts a 15.5 average in the two exhibitions, are the two players to top 20 points in a game.

FRESHMEN SHOW PROMISE IN EXHIBITION WINS

Both of the Cougars' exhibition games showcased rising stars as two freshmen led the team in scoring. Trent Plaisted led BYU against Seattle Pacific with 27 points while Lee Cummard paced the Cougars with 23 points against Victoria.

EXHIBITION NUMBERS

The Cougars made nearly half of their overall attempts in their two exhibition games, going 66-of-133 for a .496 field-goal percentage. They shot .385 from long range, going 10-for-26. From the line, BYU shot .658 while making 38 trips to the charity stripe in the two outings. While BYU has only played two unofficial exhibitions to date, the Cougars seem to be responding well to the new attacking-style offense in terms of assist/turnover ratio compared to last season. The Cougars averaged 21 assists per game in their two exhibitions, compared to 12.3 assists last season (and 16.5 in last year's two exhibition wins). BYU averaged 12.0 turnovers in this year's exhibitions compared to 14.6 turnovers per game last year (and 17.5 turnovers in last year's two exhibitions).

SAM BURGESS TO REDSHIRT

Junior guard Sam Burgess will redshirt the upcoming season. The 6-foot-3 guard from Alpine, Utah, is one of nine juniors on the roster this year. Junior Vuk Ivanovic will also redshirt while he sits out the season due to NCAA transfer rules. Burgess scored a game-high 21 points at Cougar Tipoff, the team's annual blue-white scrimmage. He went 7-for-12 from the floor, including 4-for-6 on threes, and was 3-of-4 from the line while adding five rebounds, one assist and one steal in 33 minutes on the floor.

"As a coach there are guys you love to coach and Sam is that kind of player," Rose explained. "He has a competitive spirit, is a good athlete and plays to win. He also has the mental toughness to use this year the best. He will work hard and improve and still help our team this season (in practice). He is plenty good enough to play this year but with so many players in this class, we needed to address that situation. As a staff, we feel this will help our team in the long run and also be good for Sam. We want to invest in Sam and commit to him another year. In that third year, he's going to be a player who will really help us."

Dave Rose was named to succeed Steve Cleveland as BYU Men's Basketball Head Coach on April 11, 2005.

Rose, who has served the past eight seasons as Cleveland's lead assistant, was promoted to BYU's head job two days after Cleveland announced his resignation to take the head-coaching position at Fresno State. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and strong strategist, Rose served as associate head coach the past five seasons and takes over the BYU program with 22 years of coaching experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach at the junior college and high school levels.

Since coming to Provo in 1997 along with Steve Cleveland, Rose has played a vital role in rebuilding BYU's program from an inherited 1-25 team into a regular NCAA Tournament participant and 20-game winner. BYU has qualified for postseason play five of the past six seasons, including three NCAA bids, while claiming two MWC titles. As associate head coach, Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under coach Cleveland and his efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Rose was the team's defensive coordinator and worked with the post players. He possesses a complete knowledge of the game and worked hard in developing the team's defensive game plans. An outstanding teacher, he coached defensive skill development and implemented the defensive game plan. With Rose overseeing the defense, BYU has been the top defensive team in the Mountain West Conference two of the past four seasons.

A strong evaluator of talent with a vast network of coaching connections across the country, Rose has managed BYU's recruiting efforts the past eight seasons. Rose's success as a recruiter is evidenced by his being named one of the top 25 college basketball recruiters in 2004 by Rivals.com. Each year the Cougars have brought in talented newcomers to contribute to and take advantage of the BYU program. The 2004 class was rated No. 17 nationally and No. 3 in the West by Rivals.com. The 2000 recruiting class also ranked in the top-20 nationally.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, eight recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major conference award in their first season as a Cougar in the eight years Rose has been in Provo. Including Rafael Araujo being named the league's top newcomer by the MWC media members in 2003 (the MWC discontinued the newcomer award that year), five BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Mike Hall was named the 2004 MWC Defensive Player of the Year. Below is the list of player honors earned the last eight seasons by Cougar recruits in their first seasons in Provo.

- Mike Hall (2003-04 MWC Defensive Player of the Year; third-team All-MWC)
- Rafael Araujo (2002-2003 Newcomer of the Year/MWC media poll, third-team All-MWC)
- Jared Jensen (2001-2002 MWC Co-Freshman of the Year)
- Trent Whiting (2000-2001 MWC Newcomer Team, second-team All-MWC)
- Terrell Lyday (1999-2000 MWC Newcomer of the Year; All-Tournament Team)
- Mark Bigelow (1998-99 WAC Freshman/Year, Newcomer Team, second-team All-WAC)
- Mekeli Wesley (1997-98 WAC Newcomer Team)
- Ron Selleaze (1997-98 WAC Newcomer of the Year; Newcomer Team, second-team All-WAC)

Rose has also worked closely with scheduling. BYU has played many of the nation's top teams over the past several years, thanks in part to relationships Rose has developed with programs across the country. His efforts have helped the Cougars receive invitations to tournaments like the 2004 EA SPORTS Maui Invitational, where BYU faced eventual NCAA Champion North Carolina.

Prior to coming to BYU, Rose was head coach at Dixie College in St. George, Utah. Rose compiled a 167-57 record in seven seasons as head coach at Dixie. Rose guided six of his seven teams to national top-20 rankings, including a ranking as high as No. 2, while earning three conference titles. His peers honored him as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as longtime NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU he recruited and coached two future NBA Draft picks in Rafael Araujo and Travis Hansen.

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose becomes the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 372-254 record from 1949-1972 and also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER:

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie College before transferring to Houston, where he was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished second in the NCAA tournament. At Houston, Rose played in 1980-81, redshirted in 1981-82, and played his final year in 1982-83.

At Dixie, Rose was first team all-league in both basketball and baseball. Rose was also the Region 18 batting champion hitting .421 as a center fielder. While playing basketball for Houston's Northbrook High School, he led the District 16AAAA in scoring, was selected first team all district and All-Greater Houston, and was named team MVP.

PERSONAL:

A native of Houston, Texas, Rose, 47, is married to the former Cheryl Lang and they have three children and one granddaughter. Daughter Chanell played forward on the BYU women's basketball team from 2000-2003 and is married to Brock Reichner, who is a guard on the BYU team. Rose's wife Cheryl is actively involved in helping families who have children with cancer as vice chairperson of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. Rose follows Cleveland as the second returned missionary to serve as BYU men's basketball head coach. Rose served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie College. His son Garrett returns in August 2005 from his two-year mission in Little Rock, Ark.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Dave Rose was one of the first coaches in Utah to become involved with Coaches vs. Cancer while at Dixie State College. He helps the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation and has been a volunteer coach for youth groups. He served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. Dave and his wife Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community. She received the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005. After Dave got her involved, she now serves as the Vice Chairperson for the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation. She served on the Utah State Substance Abuse Committee of Higher Education and was on the Washington County Substance Abuse Prevention Team. She spoke across the region about substance abuse while fulfilling an appointment by the U.S. Department of Education as the Regional Coordinator for the Network of Colleges and Universities Committee to the Elimination of Drug and Alcohol Abuse on Campus, serving Utah, Arizona and Nevada. Cheryl has also served on the Women's Conference Board, including a stint as Charwomen in 1995. Other involvements have included the Washington County Fair Queen Pageant Committee and being the longtime chairwomen for the Miss Santa Clara Pageant.

COMMENTING ON ROSE

"Dave Rose is one of the best coaches I have ever known. He is not only the best at preparing you to succeed against your opponent by preparing game plans but also the greatest motivator I have ever been around. He has a special way to communicate with the players and instill confidence that enables you to play at the highest level every game. When my career at BYU came to an end, he continued to help me choose an agent, go to NBA camps and NBA workouts and begin my professional career. He never stopped supporting and believing in me. I will always be grateful for what he has done for me and continues to do for me now."
 - Travis Hansen, Former BYU Cougar and Atlanta Hawk, who played in Spain last year

"I have never been around a coach who had a feel for what makes each player tick like Coach Rose. The game plans he prepared were usually right on, and if we executed them we won the game. He is a coach that you not only want to play for but also would sacrifice almost anything for. He has been one of the most influential people in my basketball career, and I will forever benefit from his lessons on basketball and life. I've never seen any other coach like him."
 - Mark Bigelow, Former BYU Cougar, currently playing professionally in Spain

"Coach Rose is one of the main reasons why I came to BYU. He saw me play in junior college, and because of his great vision and recruiting skills, I came to BYU. I enjoyed working with Coach Rose. He taught me a lot. He's a great coach."
 - Rafael Araujo, Former BYU Cougar and current Toronto Raptor

LAST OUTING: Started and recorded 6 points, 4 rebounds and a team-leading 4 assists vs. Loyola Marymount in 30 minutes.

TRACKING MALAMAN IN 2005-06: Came off the bench in BYU's two exhibitions before earning the start in the season opener vs. Loyola Marymount. He assisted a Trent Plaisted dunk with a quick interior pass on a break and fed Mike Rose on a backdoor cut for an easy layin.

PLAYER SUMMARY: A power forward with shooting range on the perimeter, Fernando Malaman is a good athlete who runs the floor well and should fit well into BYU's up-tempo offense. He is a junior transfer from Arizona Western College, where he was named a second-team NJCAA Region I and Arizona Community College Athletic Conference pick while helping the Matadors win the ACCAC and Region I titles and earn the No. 1 ranking in the final regular-season poll. Malaman is the third junior college transfer from Brazil to sign with the Cougars in recent years. Former Cougar All-American center Rafael Araujo also signed with BYU out of Arizona Western. Guard Luiz Lemes also played for the Cougars from 2002-04 after a two-year stint at Eastern Oklahoma State College.

LAST OUTING: Started and led BYU with 18 points and a career-tying 7 rebounds in 23 minutes vs. Loyola Marymount, adding 2 assists and 1 blocked shot. He scored seven straight Cougar points during a second half run to cut LMU's lead to three points.

TRACKING BALDERSON IN 2005-06: Made his 17th career start and led BYU with 18 points and career-tying 7 rebounds in 23 minutes vs. Loyola Marymount, adding 2 assists and 1 blocked shot. He scored seven straight Cougar points during a second half run to cut LMU's lead to three points. It was his 10th career double-digit scoring effort and the fifth time he has led the team in scoring. It was the second time he has led the Cougars in rebounds during his career.

PLAYER SUMMARY: Balderson is a 6-foot-6 guard who led the Cougars in three-point percentage last season, making 16 starts after coming out of a planned redshirt year. A talented scorer, he has excellent range from the three-point arc and has good size. He led the Canadian National Development Team in scoring at the World University Games in Izmir, Turkey, in August. During the eight-game tournament, Balderson averaged 14.9 points and 4.1 rebounds while shooting 50 percent from the floor and 40 percent from three-point range. Balderson played in 27 of 30 games as a freshman reserve on BYU's 18-12 team that advanced to the second round of the 2002 NIT, logging 8.5 minutes per game while shooting .487 from the floor, .306 (11-of-36) on threes and .657 from the line. His 48.7 percent shooting from the floor led all BYU perimeter players.

PERSONAL: Born August 1983 in Magrath, Alberta, Canada ... parents are Wes and Lorraine Balderson ... one of seven children, three boys ... oldest brother was Canadian Interuniversity Player of the Year in Canada as shooting guard, while other brother currently plays football at the University of Alberta ... served a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the Marshall Islands speaking Marshallese ... married the former Hannah Skidmore on Sept. 8, 2005 ... economics major.

LEE CUMMARD
 6-6 • 175 • freshman • guard
 Mesa, Ariz.

LAST OUTING: Made his college debut, logging 16 minutes off the bench with 3 points.

TRACKING CUMMARD IN 2005-06: Was BYU's second-leading scorer in exhibition play, starting both games and averaging 15.5 points. He scored a team-best 23 points against Victoria ... Made his college debut, logging 16 minutes off the bench with 3 points vs. Loyola Marymount, hitting a trey on 1-for-2 shooting.

PLAYER SUMMARY: A member of BYU's 2004 top-20 recruiting class, Cummard is a good athlete with a natural feel for the game who could contribute significantly for the Cougars in his first season. Because of his all-around abilities, some experts rated Cummard as the top shooting guard prospect in the West in 2004. Known as a fierce competitor, Cummard has good ball-handling skills, excellent shooting range and the toughness to rebound and finish in traffic. He delayed his enrollment until this season because of an LDS Church mission.

PERSONAL: Born in March 1985 in Mesa, Ariz. ... parents are David and Cheryl Cummard ... has five brothers, David, Jon, Stephen, Parker and Lance ... married the former Sarah Mabry on August 17, 2005 in Mesa, Ariz. ... sports hero is Michael Jordan ... served as a missionary in Nashville, Tenn., in 2004 ... recruited by Arizona State, UCLA, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Iowa State, Utah State, Utah, New Mexico, Miami, Gonzaga, Oklahoma State, San Diego State and Texas Tech ... undecided major:

TRACKING BURGESS IN 2005-06: Went 1-for-3 from the floor in 11 minutes off the bench vs. Loyola Marymount in the season opener, grabbing 3 rebounds and recording 1 blocked shot.

PLAYER SUMMARY: David Burgess is a 6-foot-10, 250-pound center who was considered one of the best big men in the country coming out of high school. He is a strong low-post player and aggressive rebounder. He was granted a medical redshirt last season after appearing in only two games before being sidelined by injury. After his junior year in high school, he was the only high school player to compete on the 19-Under USA Basketball World Championships Team that finished 7-1, losing only to eventual champion Australia, and won the 2003

Global Games in Dallas with a 5-0 record. He was selected to the 18-Under USA Albert Schweitzer Team after his senior season for a tournament held in Germany. Burgess averaged 19 points, 13 rebounds, four blocked shots and three assists as a senior at Woodbridge High School in Irvine, Calif., to earn All-California First Team honors. He was a McDonald's All-America nominee.

PERSONAL: Born in February 1986 ... native of Irvine, Calif. ... parents are Kenneth and Sandi Burgess ... has three brothers and one sister ... his first cousin Sam Burgess also plays on the team ... his older brother Chris played Division I basketball at Duke two years and Utah two years before playing professionally overseas ... older brother Joshua was his teammate on BYU's 2004-05 team and sister Angela played on BYU's women's basketball team from 1998-99 ... among the many schools that recruited Burgess were UCLA, Louisville, Gonzaga, Florida, Oregon, Oregon State, Utah and San Diego State ... open major:

TRENT PLAISTED
 6-11 • 245 • freshman • forward
 San Antonio, Texas

LAST OUTING: Started and scored a career-high 17 points while grabbing a career-tying 4 rebounds against Loyola Marymount in 30 minutes.

TRACKING PLAISTED IN 2005-06: Making his first-ever start, redshirt freshman Trent Plaisted shot 75 percent (6-8) from the field and went 5-of-6 from the line (83.3 percent) to score a career-high 17 points while adding a career-tying four rebounds and one steal. Plaisted made an immediate impact in the first start, making his first five shots from the floor and scoring 12 points in the first 11 minutes of the game before taking his first breather on the bench. He logged a career-most 30 minutes.

PLAYER SUMMARY: Plaisted is a 6-foot-11, 245-pound left-handed forward who should contribute significantly this season after receiving a medical redshirt last year due to injury. Long and athletic, Plaisted runs the floor well and has a soft shooting touch to 18 feet. He could play the three, four or five position and is a good shot-blocker and solid rebounder. A first-team 5A Texas all-state selection from San Antonio's Clark High, where he averaged 22 points, 10 rebounds, 2 blocks and 2 assists, he has a running vertical of 41 inches, can touch 12-foot-2 and ran a 4.6 40-yard dash on grass wearing tennis shoes this summer.

PERSONAL: Born in October 1986 in California ... hails from San Antonio, Texas ... parents are John and Sherry Plaisted ... is the youngest of five children, having three sisters and one brother ... among schools recruiting Plaisted were Florida State, Stanford, Kansas, Oklahoma State, Washington State, Texas A&M, Utah, Arkansas, New Mexico, Texas Tech and Vanderbilt ... pre-business management major.
