AIR FORCE'S LAST OUTING - AIR FORCE HOLDS OFF UTAH, 77-69, IN MWC OPENER

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) - Conference victories have not been a regular occurrence for the Air Force men's basketball team in recent years, so they made sure to savor Wednesday night's triumph.

Michael Lyons took an outlet pass from Evan Washington, slammed it home, was fouled and made the free throw with 1:47 remaining to give Air Force the lead for good in a 77-69 victory over Utah in a Mountain West Conference opener Wednesday night.

Lyons scored a career-high 26 points and brought the Clune Arena crowd to its feet with the emphatic dunk while being fouled by the Utes' Will Clyburn. After a steal at the other end of the court, Derek Brooks connected on a 3-pointer to put the Falcons (10-4) up 72-67.

Air Force hit five free throws in the final 33 seconds to seal the victory, its first against Utah (7-8) in seven games. The win was just the second regular-season conference victory for the Falcons in the last three seasons and gave Utah its fifth consecutive loss this season.

Clyburn, the conference's second-leading scorer at 19.1 ppg, hit back-to-back 3-pointers to give Utah a 67-66 advantage with 2:40 remaining. He finished with 16 points, while Chris Kupets came off the bench to lead the Utes with 25.

Air Force also got 17 points from Tom Fow, 12 from Taylor Broekhuis and 10 from Brooks.

Utah stayed alive at the 3-point arc, connecting on 13-of-24 shots, while Air Force kept pace at the free-throw line. The Falcons were 18-for-20 from the line, while the Utes did not get to the line until the 14:17 mark of the second half.

"You have to give a great deal of credit to Air Force for the performance they put on today, especially shooting the basketball," said Utah assistant coach Jeff Smith, who was filling in for head coach Jim Boylen, who was unable to make the trip due to a family illness. "For us, the rebounding effort again reared its ugly head in the second half. If you can't rebound the ball at the end of close games, it's difficult to win in any league, especially our league."

The Falcons out-rebounded the Utes 30-24 despite being at a distinct size disadvantage. Senior Evan Washington was limited to two points, but had a career-high 11 assists - the most assists for a Falcon since A.J. Kuhle had 11 against San Diego State on March 1, 2004.

Air Force will need similar play from its stars in its next three conference games against BYU, UNLV and San Diego State - a trio of teams that boasts a combined 43-4 record so far this season.

SERIES NOTES

BYU leads the all-time series vs. Air Force 52-12, including a 26-4 record in Provo against the Falcons. The Cougars have won 10-straight in the series including a 67-49 win at Air Force and a 91-48 win in Provo last season.

DAVIES, EMERY LEAD BYU PAST AIR FORCE

USAF, Colo. (Jan. 13, 2010) – Jackson Emery led all scorers with 21 points, breaking the game open early in the second half for BYU as the Cougars defeated Air Force, 67-49, on Wednesday.

Emery shot 8-of-13, including 5-of-10 from three, adding five rebounds, three assists, two steals and one block as BYU improved to 17-1 overall and 2-0 in Mountain West Conference play. The 17-1 record equals the best mark through 18 games by a Cougar squad set in 1987-88. BYU has also won 12-straight games, tied for the fourth longest winning streak in school history.

The junior guard scored eight points over the first seven minutes of the second half, part of a 15-2 run to take a five-point halftime lead to a 51-33 margin. The Cougars held the Falcons to one field goal in the first eight minutes of the second period.

"I was really proud of our composure when Air Force played as well as they did in the first half," said BYU head coach Dave Rose. "Jackson was just terrific to start the half to get us going."

After a quiet first half, freshman Tyler Haws took over the scoring duties after Emery's run, scoring off a jumper, two free throws and a driving layup to give BYU a 55-37 lead. Haws finished with 10 points, three rebounds, two assists and a block.

Brandon Davies, also a freshman, posted his first ever double-double, racking up 11 points and career-highs of 10 rebounds and three blocks, including a huge swat of a Falcon one-handed dunk attempt in the second half.

"Brandon really, really helped us tonight," Rose said. "The points and rebounds are big stats, but his touches in the post collapses the defense and allows us to do more things offensively."

Jimmer Fredette returned from an illness, coming off the bench to play 18 minutes, scoring eight points with three assists. Jonathan Tavernari added six rebounds, five points, two assists and two steals.

As a team, the Cougars shot 47.9 percent to 33.3 percent for Air Force. The Falcons shot just 22.2 percent in the second half, going 6-for-27. BYU also outrebounded the Falcons, 38-28.

"Every game it seems like there's a new combination that helps us win," Rose said. "That's a sign of a good team, one that's progressing. I feel tonight, especially in the second half, no matter what five we had in, we were engaged in finding the open man and the open shot. I really liked the look in our eyes, I liked our attitude and how we communicated with each other."

STRONG FIRST HALF IGNITES WIN OVER AIR FORCE

PROVO, Utah (Feb. 13, 2010) – A big first half helped the No. 17 BYU men's basketball team secure a 91-48 victory over Air Force at the Marriott Center on Saturday. With the win the Cougars improve to 23-3 overall and 8-2 in Mountain West Conference play.

"I was really pleased with how we started the game and how we kept the momentum going in the first half," said BYU head coach Dave Rose. "We shared the ball well, played on attack and took good shots. Defensively we did really well. This was a good game for our team, especially after sitting out this week."

Senior Jonathan Tavernari led all scorers with 19 points, including five three-pointers. Other Cougars scoring in double figures included Jackson Emery with 18 and Tyler Haws with 16. It is BYU's second game this season with three players scoring 15 points or more.

Emery made two quick three-pointers to open the game, but the Falcons scored the next seven points to gain their only lead of the game. Coming out of a timeout, the Cougars went on a 12-0 run, which included an Emery steal and fast-break layup with 14:26 to play in the first half. Tavernari capped the run with his first of four consecutive treys in two minutes. His quick 12 points gave BYU a 27-12 lead.

"Jonathan's been terrific the last month," said Rose. "He's shooting the ball with a lot of confidence. If we get him playing with that look in his eye, knowing his shot will go in, it will be a real bonus for this group."

A strong defensive effort by the Cougars kept the Falcons from scoring back-to-back baskets for the final 15 minutes of the half.

"Defensively we were really engaged," said Rose. "We had a good game plan going in, but our guys executed it well. We challenged shots, were able to run and we shared the ball really well. It was good to see extra passes."

Emery made two additional three-pointers during a 13-0 BYU run. A three-point play converted by senior Chris Miles extended the BYU lead to 30 points with 1:44 to play in the first half.

The half ended with a jumper by Haws, sending the Cougars into the locker room with a 53-20 lead. BYU shot 66.7 percent from the field in the first half and outrebounded Air Force 19-to-7.

Jimmer Fredette opened the second half scoring a jumper for BYU. Haws soon followed with a make from behind the arc, bringing the score to 58-22. The freshman went 5-of-6 on three trips to the free throw line, accounting for nine of the Cougars' next 14 points.

Tavernari and Michael Loyd, Jr. were perfect on two trips to the charity stripe with eight minutes to play in the game. A three-pointer by Charles Aboou extended the BYU lead to 80-42. Playing in his first game since an appendectomy last week, freshman Brandon Davies made two free throws with just over six minutes to play. He and James Anderson converted late free throws as time ran off the clock.

LAST TIME OUT - SENIOR GUARD DUO LEADS THE WAY FOR COUGARS

PROVO, Utah (Jan. 5, 2011) – For the first time during the Dave Rose era, BYU defeated UNLV in Las Vegas, 89-77, on Wednesday.

"This is a really competitive group," BYU head coach Dave Rose said. "I thought we'd have a chance in the second half if we could stay with them and sustain their runs in the first half. I thought we spaced the floor really well and shared the ball, and we have a great player in Jimmer (Fredette)."

The senior guard tag-team of Jimmer Fredette and Jackson Emery led the way for the Cougars scoring 39 and 22 points respectively. Brandon Davies also contributed 15 points and 10 rebounds in the victory.

"I was happy for our two senior guards," Rose said. "It was big for them to get a win here."

The game was neck-and-neck for the first ten minutes of play as both teams struggled with shooting early on. After the Cougars took a 15-12 lead, the Rebels went on an 13-0 run to take their largest lead of the night with the score 25-15. The Cougars shot 5-of-25 in the opening 14 minutes of play as BYU struggled to battle back.

However, Emery and Fredette got hot in the following 26 minutes. Three treys from Fredette and a dunk by Davies ignited the Cougars as they pulled within two of UNLV, 32-30. BYU would eventually take a 38-35 lead to go into the half off yet another Fredette three-pointer. After beginning the half 1-for-6, Fredette ended the half with 17 points on 6-for-13 shooting.

On the opening scoring play of the second half, Emery fed Noah Hartsock for an and-one layup. The combined forces of Emery and Fredette tallied eleven points in the first 4:30 of the second half to extend the Cougar lead to 52-38. Logan Magnusson took an elbow to the face with 13:49 remaining, resulting in a technical foul call. Less than a minute later another technical foul was called on the UNLV bench. Fredette sank 3-of-4 on the technical foul shots to give BYU a 57-42 lead.

Seven-straight Emery points allowed BYU to extend the lead to 17. A layup by Davies and a Fredette three-pointer from beyond NBA range gave the Cougars an 18-point advantage with 7:53 remaining.

The Rebels did not go down without a fight, cutting the Cougar lead to 10 after going on a 13-2 run but another Fredette trey would silence the Thomas & Mack Center crowd momentarily. Still, four straight UNLV points cut the BYU lead to eight. Time ran out for the Rebels though as they would be forced to foul and send Fredette to line to close out the victory.

WHAT WAS SAID AFTER THE GAME ...BYU HEAD COACH DAVE ROSE

"I thought we spaced the floor really well and shared the ball. And we have a great player in Jimmer (Fredette)."

"I was happy for our two senior guards. It was big for them to get a win here."

"This is a really competitive group. I thought we'd have a chance in the second half if we could stay with them and sustain their runs in the first half."

BYU GUARD JIMMER FREDETTE

"I was just hitting shots tonight. I saw the ball going into the basket. My teammates did a great job of screening and finding me when I was open."

"You have to get yourself mentally ready. They have a great crowd and a great arena and fortunately we came out with a win."

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAIDEAMONN BRENNON, ESPN.COM

"Consider this your last and final warning, America. If you don't go out of your way to check out what the Cougars and Fredette do on a nightly basis -- their crazy, uptempo, let's-chuck-from-anywhere, oh-my-goodness-what-a-shot approach to every single game they play -- you're missing out on the most entertaining show college hoops has to offer. Call your cable provider, find a shady Internet site, find highlights on an obscure satellite TV channel, do whatever."

"Fredette's final college season ends in four months. You won't want to miss out."

REGGIE WITHERSPOON, BUFFALO COACH

"Going down the stretch, the last 12 minutes, he got going. Some of those -- it wasn't that anything backfired -- it was like, Jimmer Fredette, that's a first-team All-American and some of those we were in great position and he pulls and fires. If you do a bad job on him, he gets 50. I said before the game I was trying to recall there being a better visiting college player to this area and I don't think I have a debate now. He's a bad dude. The guy can play."

DICK VITALE, ESPN

"I'm telling you, that's a dangerous team in BYU. Why? Jimmer Fredette. Remember the name, Jimmer Fredette. Jimmer Fredette. The guy can flat-out score. Call Donovan up -- 37 on the Gators. Forty-nine against Arizona. If he's stroking it, and they get to the free-throw line, and it's a close game, they're the best free throw shooting team in America."

HUBERT DAVIS, ESPN

"(On Fredette) He's been fun to watch this year. I think people are going to see probably the best scoring point guard in the country. He's terrific in a pick and role situation because if you go underneath he has the ability to knock down a perimeter jump shot. If you go over and force him into the lane he has the ability to use the nice floater. He can take it to the rim, he can use both hands, he's crafty. Ever time I watch him he reminds me more -- I'm not saying he's Steve Nash -- but the way that he approaches the game in terms of dribble penetration and keeping the ball alive, he looks like Steve Nash. He does a terrific job of passing the basketball."

TIM MILES, COLORADO STATE

"Fredette is a special player and his numbers are remarkable. We tried multiple defenders, we tried traps and he still finds ways to hurt you."

JIM CHRISTIAN, TCU

"Jimmer Fredette's one of the top players in the country. Period. He's a guy that's never rattled. He's never out of control. He sees the floor extremely well. He makes shots. But I also think the thing that's not talked about nationally is how good the team is. When you've got that many pieces around you it enables you to have an open floor and to make plays."

STEVE FISHER, SAN DIEGO STATE

"Jimmer is the best in the league. He is hard to stop, but I felt like we did a pretty good job against him during certain parts of the game. But he is as good a guard as I have seen in this league, period."

SETH DAVIS, SPORTSILLUSTRATED.COM

"Jimmer Fredette is a superb setup man, and his 49-point explosion at Arizona ranks as the single best individual performance of the season."

SEAN MILLER, ARIZONA

(In 2010) "He (Jimmer Fredette) is a terrific guard. Today was just another example of how well he can play offensively. He makes everything easier for his team and we just had no answer for him today. We tried to guard him as a team but he is clever with the ball in his hands and has a good supporting cast."

JIM BOYLEN, UTAH

"I think he's the best player in the league in a long time. I haven't been in this league that long but he's the best player we've played against this year and we've played a heck of a schedule. He's a terrific player, a terrific competitor. He's a great kid. I think he represents BYU with a lot of class and pride. You should be proud of him. He's a great player."

FREDETTE NAMED TO WOODEN AWARD MIDSEASON TOP 30

Los Angeles (January 6, 2011)—BYU senior guard Jimmer Fredette has been named to the John R. Wooden Award Midseason Top 30 that was announced today by The Los Angeles Athletic Club. Selected by the Wooden Award National Advisory Board, the list is made up of 30 student-athletes who, based on their performances in November and December, are the early frontrunners for college basketball's most prestigious honor.

Returning players from past Wooden Award ballots include a pair of seniors: Duke's Kyle Singler (2009, 2010) and BYU's Jimmer Fredette (2010). Singler was the MVP of the 2010 Final Four and is averaging 17.5 points and 5.8 rebounds in 2010-11 for the undefeated Blue Devils; Fredette was an All-Mountain West Conference player as a junior and so far this year posts a 25.1 ppg scoring average.

Fredette is among the nation's scoring leaders and has led BYU to a 15-1 record and a No. 14 national ranking. The Glens Falls, N.Y., native has scored 20-plus points 12 times and has eclipsed 30 points four times.

Transfers, freshmen and medical redshirts are eligible for this midseason list but did not appear on the preseason Top 50. All players nationally who excel throughout the season will be evaluated and considered for the official voting ballot released in March. The National Ballot consists of approximately 20 top players who have proven to their universities that they are also making progress toward graduation and maintaining at least a cumulative 2.0 GPA. The Wooden Award All-American Team will be announced the week of the "Elite Eight" round during the NCAA Tournament, making it unique among college postseason awards.

The Big 10 and Big 12 conferences boast the largest number of players chosen to the list, with six each. Other conferences with multiple players represented include the ACC (5), Big East (5), Pac-10 (3), and the Mountain West (2). The Horizon, SEC and Ohio Valley each had one player selected.

Purdue (JaJuan Johnson, E'Twaun Moore) and No. 1-ranked Duke (Singler, Nolan Smith) were the only schools with two players on the Midseason List. In a change from the past several years, half of the players chosen are seniors. Only two freshmen made the list: Ohio State's Jared Sullinger and Terrence Jones of Kentucky.

The 35th annual Wooden Award ceremony, which will include the announcement of the Men's and Women's Wooden Award winners, a special tribute to Coach Wooden and Wooden Award founder Duke Llewellyn, and the presentation of the Wooden Award All American Teams and the Legends of Coaching Award, will take place the weekend of April 8-10, 2011.

PRESEASON MWC POLL

DENVER (Oct. 12, 2010) – BYU guard Jimmer Fredette received Mountain West Conference Preseason Player of the Year honors at the league's media day being held today at The MountainWest Sports Network studios. Kyle Collinsworth was also named the Preseason Freshman of the Year and the Cougars were picked to finish second in the MWC by the league's media.

Fredette, a preseason first-team All-American and national player-of-the-year candidate, repeats as the league's preseason player of the year. Also named to the preseason all-conference team, Fredette is a two-time All-MWC First Team honoree and last season led the league in scoring at 22.1 points per game while adding 4.7 assists.

Collinsworth is a versatile guard out of Provo High School who was named Utah's Mr. Basketball and the state's Gatorade Player of the Year as a senior. At Provo he helped the Bulldogs win two state titles and was a three-time first-team all-state honoree.

San Diego State was picked to finish first in the league and garnered 21 first-place votes compared to five for the Cougars. Last season, BYU was picked to finish first in the league and finished the season second in the regular season standings while setting a program record with 30 wins and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

This marks the third time the Cougars were picked to finish second in the preseason media poll — the other years being the 2006-07 and 2008-09 seasons. BYU finished first in the MWC regular season in 2007 and tied for first in 2009.

Since becoming head coach of the BYU men's basketball program on April 11, 2005, Dave Rose has guided the Cougars to an impressive array of on-the-court awards and accolades while his unassuming approach to service and the community has been recognized at the top of his profession.

With a 142-41 record, Rose has produced a five-year resume that is nearly unmatched. His five-year resume ranks among the best in the history of NCAA Division I basketball. His 127 victories through five seasons place him fifth for best career starts (through five seasons) by wins in NCAA history, ahead of the likes of Jerry Tarkanian, Jim Boeheim and Thad Matta. He currently holds the school record for winning percentage (.776) and the MWC record for winning percentage in league games (.800).

Equally committed to excellence off the court, Rose was honored on April 6, 2008, by the National Association of Basketball Coaches with its Game Pillar Award for Service, one of only four Pillar Awards (Education, Leadership, Service and Advocacy) that the Association annually bestows on the most deserving among its vast membership. While Rose has never sought such attention, his actions and accomplishments — both on the court and in the community — have commanded the praises of faithful followers and casual observers alike. In April 2008 Rose became the 63rd recipient of the Dale Rex Memorial Award, given annually to the person who has done the most for amateur athletics in the state of Utah. Another evidence of Rose's commitment to excellence is that his basketball program ranks in the top 10 percent nationally in multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores. As a result, the NCAA honored BYU with Public Recognition awards for three-straight seasons (2007 to 2010) for their high academic achievement. BYU is the only program in the nation to earn public recognition from the NCAA and an NCAA Tournament bid in each of the last four seasons.

Cougar fans have had plenty to "Rise and Shout" about with Rose at the helm. A tireless worker, gifted motivator and talented strategist, Rose has returned BYU to the national stage with four-straight seasons appearing in the top-25 polls and four-straight trips to the NCAA Tournament — both firsts in program history. In his first season, Rose and his staff produced the nation's second-most improved team by turning a 9-21 squad that finished tied for last with three wins in the Mountain West Conference into a 20-9 NIT qualifier and 12-4 second-place MWC finisher. Under his tutelage from 2007 to 2009, the Cougars achieved the MWC's first two-time outright league championships (2007 and 2008) while adding to the streak with a share of the regular season title in 2009 to make it three-consecutive. In 2010, BYU set a program record with 30 victories and defeated Florida in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the programs first tournament victory since 1993. In addition to the record-setting win total, the 2009-10 Cougar squad set program records for winning percentage, scoring margin, field goals, three-point field goals, turnover margin and steals. Nationally, BYU finished the season first in free throw percentage, second in scoring offense, scoring margin and three-point field goal percentage.

The only BYU men's basketball coach to ever win top conference coaching honors in back-to-back seasons, Rose was named MWC Coach of the Year in 2006 and 2007. In his second season, Rose coached the 2006-07 Cougars to a 25-9 overall record and NCAA berth after winning the MWC regular-season title with a 13-3 mark. In his first season, Rose received conference and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year accolades as well as honorable mention for National Coach of the Year by Scout.com.

Rose first came to BYU as an assistant in 1997 to help newly hired head coach Steve Cleveland rebuild the Cougar program after a 1-25 season. Rose served eight seasons with Cleveland, including the last five as Associate Head Coach, before being promoted to BYU's head job just two days after Cleveland announced his departure. Rose fulfilled a variety of responsibilities under Coach Cleveland, including defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. His efforts earned notice, such as being named the top assistant in the Mountain West Conference by Street & Smith in the 2004-05 College Basketball Preview.

Proving that Rose has excelled in recruiting and developing players, 11 recruits have earned conference newcomer honors or a major league award in their first season as a Cougar in the 13 years Rose has been in Provo. Seven BYU players have been singled out as either the conference newcomer or freshman of the year. Most recently, Jonathan Tavernari was named the 2007 MWC Freshman of the Year after fellow Cougar and second-team Freshman All-American Trent Plaisted received the same honor in 2006. In 2010 Tyler Haws was named third-team All-MWC as a freshman and set the BYU record with 48-consecutive free throws without a miss.

With 27 years of coaching experience including 15 seasons as a head coach at the Division I, junior college, and high school levels, Rose has a proven record of constant success. Prior to coming to BYU as an assistant in 1997, Rose compiled a 167-57 record at Dixie State College (St. George, Utah) while guiding six of his seven teams to top-20 rankings, including a national ranking as high as No. 2. He earned three conference titles and was honored by his peers as the 1993 Scenic West Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. While at Dixie, Rose coached three NJCAA All-Americans as well as long-time NBA player Keon Clark. At BYU, Rose has coached six players who have received All-America recognition--Mekeli Wesley (2001 AP honorable mention), Rafael Araujo (2004 Basketball Times Second Team, AP honorable mention), Trent Plaisted (2006 Scout.com Freshman Second Team), Keena Young (2007 AP honorable mention), Lee Cummar (2008 AP honorable mention, FOXSports.com Fourth Team) and Jimmer Fredette (2010 third-team Sporting News and NABC, AP Honorable Mention and Lute Olson All-America team)--and two players who have been selected in the NBA Draft--Travis Hansen (2003) and Araujo (2004).

Before being promoted to the head coaching position at Dixie, Rose served as a Rebel assistant coach under Ken Wagner for three seasons. Rose coached multiple sports at Millard and Pine View high schools in Utah before joining the staff at Dixie. He was the head basketball coach at Millard for three years from 1983-86. Rose is the 17th person to guide the Cougar basketball program since its first season in 1903. He follows the coaching pedigree of Basketball Hall of Fame coach Stan Watts, who is BYU's all-time leader in coaching victories with a 371-254 record from 1949-72. Watts also coached at Millard High School and Dixie State College before coming to BYU.

PLAYING CAREER

Rose was a two-sport athlete at Dixie State College in St. George, Utah, before the Texas native returned to his hometown, transferring to the University of Houston where he completed his degree and was a shooting guard and co-captain of the famous "Phi Slamma Jamma" team featuring Hakeem Olajuwon and Clyde Drexler. In 1983 his Houston team was ranked No. 1 nationally and finished as the national runner-up after suffering a buzzer-beating defeat to North Carolina State in the NCAA Championship game. Rose spent three years at Houston, playing in 1980-81, redshirting in 1981-82 and concluding his career in 1982-83.

PERSONAL

Rose is of Houston, Texas, Rose and his wife Cheryl have three children and two grandchildren. Rose followed Steve Cleveland as the second BYU head coach to have served a full-time mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Rose served in Manchester, England, from 1977-79 between his two years as a player at Dixie State College.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Currently the Honorary Chairman of the Children with Cancer Christmas Foundation, Rose works with his wife, Cheryl, and the team to annually serve and comfort local families who endure the challenges of raising a child who has cancer. The National Association of Basketball Coaches honored Rose with its Game Pillar Award for Service in April 2008. While at Dixie State College, Rose became the first coach in the State of Utah to participate in the American Cancer Society's nationwide Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and served on the Academic Excellence Committee at Dixie. He has also been a volunteer coach for youth groups. Dave and Cheryl were Chamber of Commerce Citizens of the Year in St. George. Cheryl is extremely committed to serving in the community, receiving the Beacon of Hope Award in 2005.

The fight against cancer became more personal for the family when Dave was diagnosed with pancreatic neuroendocrine tumor cancer in June 2009. Since the emergency surgery to remove the tumor, no other cancer has been found. Scans since the surgery by doctors at the Huntsman Cancer Institute have all come back clear. The United States Basketball Writers Association recognized Rose for his efforts with its Most Courageous Award.
