BYU Opens Mountain West Conference Play

PROVO, Utah (Sept. 14, 2009) – After going 0-3 at the Ameritas Players Challenge in Nebraska the BYU Cougars (4-6) will return home to open Mountain West Conference play against San Diego State (4-4) on Thursday in the Smith Fieldhouse at 7 p.m. and Saturday against Air Force (8-4) at 1 p.m.

“We have worked hard all preseason and competed with some incredible programs in order to prepare us to start our conference schedule this week,” said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. “I feel very confident in what we have learned and how we are coming together. Conference is where it counts and the entire team feels prepared to welcome SDSU and Air Force into the Smith Fieldhouse. We are looking forward to it.”

The Cougars lost to No. 8 UCLA, No. 5 Nebraska and Virginia in the Ameritas Players Challenge last week, all in four sets.

Kayla Walker led the Cougars in kills, being the only Cougar named to the All-Tournament team. She tallied 17 kills against Virginia, 14 kills against Nebraska and 15 against UCLA.

Some of the bright spots in the tournament included the team's hitting percentage of .680 in the first set against No. 5 Nebraska. Also in the UCLA match the team posted 16 team blocks to the Bruins' six.

After Thursday's game the Cougars will also take on conference opponent, Air Force, at 1 p.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse. Thursday's game will be broadcast live via BYUTV and Saturday's game will be radio broadcast live on BYU Radio.

Last Time Out

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State experienced a bit of déjà vu as it fell to St. Mary's in four sets (25-18, 23-25, 26-24, 25-20) Sunday afternoon in Peterson Gym. The loss was reminiscent of the meeting between the teams last Monday (Sept. 7) in which the Gaels prevailed in the same manner on their home floor in Moraga.

The victory was the sixth in a row for St. Mary's as it improved to 7-1 on the season. SDSU, meanwhile, saw its record fall to 4-4.

San Diego State right side hitter Kelsey Manasco led all players with 19 kills as she recorded her Aztec career high in that category, besting her previous 14 against Texas-Arlington during the 2008 season. In addition, she also turned in a career-best 11 digs, surpassing the nine she had against Cal State Northridge earlier this month.

Junior middle blocker Lauren Salisbury has her usual strong outing with 14 kills and seven blocks along with a team-best .379 hitting percentage. Freshman Andrea Hannasch added seven kills and four blocks while setter Lauren Van Orden recorded 43 assists, seven digs and four blocks.

St. Mary's was led by an 18-kill performance by Chanteal Satele while Lauren Copp chipped in with 11 kills and eight digs.

In the opening set, San Diego State took a quick 5-1 lead only to see St. Mary's tie the contest at five apiece. The teams traded points until 10-10 when the visitors took three straight on a kill by Megan York and pair of SDSU hitting errors. The Aztecs could get no closer than two the rest of the way as St. Mary's claimed the seven-point victory. SDSU's Manasco and SMC's Satele shared match honors with five kills each.

Set number two saw each team put together small runs without being able to pull away. With the contest knotted at 19-all, the Aztecs scored back-to-back points on a kill by Salisbury and a Gael hitting error. SDSU was then able to maintain that two-point advantage, winning on the final kill by Paije Pearson.

The third set, San Diego State rallied from a 23-20 deficit with kills by Salisbury, Manasco and Caitlin McMillan plus a Gale setting error to take a 24-23 lead. But the Aztecs were unable to close out the set as St. Mary's got back-to-back kills from Shannon Lowell and an SDSU error to take the set 26-24 and go up 2-1 in the match.

The final set was another close affair that had the score tied at 19-19. St. Mary's took control from there, however, scoring six of the contest's final seven points to nail down the match victory. Two of the Gaels' final half dozen points came on kills by Satele with the other four a result of Aztec hitting errors.

CONWAY, Ark. - The Air Force volleyball team made quick work Louisiana Monroe during its final match of the 2009 Sugar Bear Classic in Conway, Ark., on Saturday, Sept. 12. Hitting .435, the Falcons downed the Warhawks 25-16, 25-12, 25-10. With their second sweep of the day, the Falcons finished second at the Central Arkansas tournament, with a 3-1 slate.

The Falcons improved to 8-4 on the season. The eight wins are the most for an Air Force squad since tallying 14 in 2003.

Air Force jumped out to a 5-1 lead, thanks in part to a kill and assisted block by junior Nichole Stilwell (assisted by Grace Konstanzer). Air Force continued to add on points, with a pair of kills from junior Jessica Hellmann, as well as individual kills from classmate Jessica Hellmann, senior Michelle Harrington and freshman Grace Konstanzer. Air Force posted back-to-back blocks and Stilwell added two kills as the Falcons rolled to the 25-16 victory.

Louisiana-Monroe took its only lead of the match with the first point of the second set, but Konstanzer matched the point with a kill. Junior Caroline Kurtz stepped up to the serving line and quickly pushed the Falcons to an 8-1 advantage. Kurtz recorded a season-high five service aces during the stretch, including a span of four straight. Konstanzer strung together four kills, while freshman Maile Lolohea, in the starting rotation for the first time this season, recorded a kill and assisted Harrington on a block, as Air Force opened its advantage to 15-4. Kurtz added three more kills and freshman Maiya Perich served up an ace, as the Falcons rolled to the 25-12 victory.

Stilwell put down the first kill of the third set and Air Force converted several ULM miscues into points to take the early lead. Stilwell, Hellmann and Harrington added points and a solo stop by junior Julia Hansen doubled the Falcons' lead to 14-7. Air Force led the set by 17-10 and rolled off the next eight points to secure the victory. Hellmann posted a pair of back-to-back kills and two kills by Kurtz closed out the Falcons' 25-10 win.

Stilwell paced all players with 10 kills, while Konstanzer added eight. Hellmann, who tallied six kills on eight attempts (with just one error), for a team-best .625 hitting percentage, added 20 helpers and two assisted blocks to her stat line. Kurtz recorded five of the Falcons' nine aces and tied with junior Kelly Spencer for the team-lead with nine digs. Harrington collected four blocks, including one solo stop.

Weekly Notes:

Ameritas Players Challenge

The Cougars lost to No. 8 UCLA, No. 5 Nebraska and Virginia in the Ameritas Players Challenge last week, all in four sets. Kayla Walker led the Cougars in kills, being the only Cougar named to the All-Tournament team. She tallied 17 kills against Virginia, 14 kills against Nebraska and 15 against UCLA. Some of the bright spots in the tournament included the team's hitting percentage of .680 in the first set against No. 5 Nebraska. Also in the UCLA match the team posted 16 team blocks to the Bruins' six.

BYU Places Second in Nike Classic

BYU downed Weber State in three in the second match of the Nike Classic, but brought Cal Poly and Kansas State to five sets, dropping one to Kansas State – the winner of the tournament. Despite a second-place finish in the Nike Classic, two Cougars, Kayla Walker and Christie Carpenter, were named to the all-tournament team.

Walker Finds Career Highs at Utah State

Traveling to in-state rival Utah State, the Cougars fell to the Aggies in five sets on Tuesday, Sept. 1 in front of 1,557 USU fans. Despite the loss, senior rightside hitter, Kayla Walker, posted a season- and career-high 25 kills in addition to nine digs. She hit at .288 percent. Christina Measom added 13 kills hitting at an impressive .440, also putting up three blocks. Christie Carpenter tallied 11 kills, two assists, one dig and two blocks. Nicole Warner also filled up the stat sheet, leading the team with five blocks, two service aces and also adding six kills on the night. Senior setter Kiana Rogers had 54 of 58 assists in the match, also adding three kills and eight digs. Morgan Lloyd Sorensen topped the dig list with 11, with one service ace.

BYU Second at the Tiger Invitational

The Cougars finished second in their season opener in Missouri, finishing off Ole Miss and Texas State in three sets and falling to host Missouri in four. Senior rightside hitter, Kayla Walker and junior middle blocker Christina Measom both earned all-tournament honors. Walker averaged 3.70 kills and 1.9 digs per set while Measom tallied 1.90 kills and 0.90 blocks while hitting .350.

Cougars Picked To Finish Fourth In MWC

A voting panel including the nine Mountain West Conference head coaches and selected media has picked the BYU women's volleyball team to finish fourth in the MWC this season with a total of 96 points and two first-place votes. Defending league-champion Utah was tabbed as the favorite to win the 2009 regular-season title while Colorado State was selected a close second and New Mexico was slotted just above BYU in third.

Transfer Players

With Shay Goulding at the helm of the program, four players decided to put on a Cougar uniform. Morgan Lloyd Sorensen and Camilla Phillips transferred from Salt Lake Community College while Chelsea Goodsell joins us from Sacramento State and Kayla Walker from Pepperdine. Goodsell and Phillips joined the Cougars this season.

Preseason All-MWC

Senior rightside hitter Kayla Walker was named to the Preseason All-MWC Team representing the Cougars. "Without a doubt, Kayla will be the athlete to watch this year in the Mountain West Conference," said Goulding. "She was a tremendous addition to our team last season, and I know she's only going to get better this year."

The Nation's Best ...

The Cougars' 1,035-300-5 all-time record entering the week makes them one of the best teams in the nation.

Here Comes The Bride

Four Cougars are sporting different last names this season after getting married in the offseason. Junior libero Melissa Lake Wright, senior libero Morgan Lloyd Sorensen, sophomore outside hitter Casey Spredon Thurston and Brooke Tualii Soon all tied the knot this past summer.

COUGARS PREPARE FOR 2009

Continuing its tradition of competitive scheduling, BYU will play seven teams that qualified for the 2008 NCAA Tournament, including five that were ranked in the final CSTV/AVCA Top 25 Poll.

"We have worked extremely hard in the off-season and will start well ahead of where we were last year at this time," said Goulding. "Our preconference schedule is challenging, but we are excited for the high level of competition. I expect that it will season our young squad early, prepare us well for a successful Mountain West campaign and put us in a good position for postseason play. I anticipate a great year for Cougar volleyball."

In addition to a full slate of Mountain West Conference action, the Cougars will play in three pre-season tournaments. BYU will open the year at a tournament hosted by the University of Missouri and will face the Tigers, Ole Miss and Texas State, as well as traveling to Utah State on Sept. 1 before returning to the Smith Fieldhouse for its own annual event on Sept. 4 and 5. This year's Nike Classic will feature in-state rival Weber State, Cal Poly and 2008 NCAA Tournament-qualifier Kansas State, who finished last season ranked No. 20. The Cougars will then travel to women's volleyball haven Lincoln, Neb., to compete in a tournament hosted by the Cornhuskers. In a power-packed weekend, the Cougars will take on perennial powerhouse UCLA and host Nebraska as well as Virginia in what will be the first meeting between the two squads. The Bruins finished the 2008 campaign ranked No. 8 nationally after advancing to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA Tournament while the Cornhuskers reached the Final Four and were ranked No. 3 in the nation to end the year. After starting the 16-match Mountain West Conference schedule on Sept. 17, BYU will step out of league play on Sept. 29 for a match against North Dakota State, winner of the Summit League last year and Utah Valley University in Provo on Oct. 27 amidst a competitive MWC slate and then complete the regular season on Nov. 28 at St. Mary's, another 2008 NCAA Tournament qualifier. BYU has a winning record against 16 of its 2009 opponents with first meetings against Texas State, Virginia and North Dakota State set for this season. The Cougars' all-time record versus this year's competition is a dominating 461-132-2 (.776).

2009 SEASON OUTLOOK

With 40 years of storied volleyball tradition providing the background, the 2009 BYU women's volleyball team looks to challenge for the Mountain West Conference title in 2009 and return to the NCAA Tournament for the 25th time in Cougar history. After experiencing a year of transition with a new coaching staff, the Cougars are ready for a challenging and rewarding 2009 campaign.

"I love the direction that BYU volleyball is going," said Cougar head coach Shay Goulding. "We have some great athletes returning, and with the addition of several key newcomers the future looks extremely bright. Without a doubt, we will be back on track to the winning traditions established here at BYU."

With four starters among eight letterwinners returning, BYU will have talent and experience to draw on throughout the year as the Cougars overcome the challenge of losing three starters, including the standout middle-blocking duo of Rachel Dyer and Ashton Hansen Hosford. Returning All-Mountain West Conference honoree Kayla Walker is back for her senior season after making a tremendous impact last year for BYU. The Pepperdine transfer began the season on the outside but finished on the rightside with fantastic success, which she plans to continue this year. A trio of juniors also returns from last year's starting line-up in Melissa Lake Wright, Christina Measom and Kiana Rogers. Lake Wright earned the starting libero spot midway through the season and finished fifth in the league in digs. Measom also earned her starting opportunity halfway through the year and made her presence felt on the outside. She may also be asked to contribute in the middle in 2009. Rogers rounds out the returning starters for BYU as she prepares for her third season as the Cougar setter.

Several other returning players will be looking to make their mark this year starting with senior Morgan Lloyd Sorensen, who played in every match in 2008 as a libero and defensive specialist after joining the team from Salt Lake Community College. Fellow senior Stephanie Lau could also contribute as an outside hitter or defensive specialist. Senior Marisa Boaz will be competing for playing time in the middle while sophomore Casey Speredon came on strong at the end of last season on the outside and could immediately contribute again this year. In addition to the experience BYU's eight returning letterwinners bring, the Cougars will also benefit from three sophomore redshirts who are no strangers to the court. Christie Carpenter took a redshirt last year after playing in 10 sets on the outside as a true freshman in 2007 and has improved tremendously. Chelsea Goodsell also redshirted last year after transferring from Sacramento State, where she played in every match as a freshman libero. The Cougars will also be welcoming Brooke Tualii Soon back to the court this season as a sophomore after she redshirted in 2007 and served as the team manager last year. Redshirt freshman middle blocker Nicole Warner will also be competing for time after gaining valuable experience last year.

Six new faces will contribute to the Cougars' success this year both on and off the court as BYU welcomes one transfer and four freshmen for the 2009 season. Junior outside hitter Camilla Phillips was named an NJCAA All-American last season out of Salt Lake Community College, where she played under Goulding as a freshman. The All-Region 18 First Team honoree averaged 3.07 kills per set with 67 blocks in 2008. Two Utah products, setter Heather Hanneman (Alpine) and middle blocker Kathryn LeCheminant (Bountiful), will join the Cougars this season as freshmen along with rightside hitter Lauren Sagers out of Las Vegas, Nev., libero/defensive specialist Courtney Honka from Porterville, Calif. and rightside hitter Courtney Donaldson from LaVerne, Calif. All six newcomers could contribute significantly for the Cougars this year.

A breakdown by position follows.

MIDDLE BLOCKER

Led by Academic All-MWC junior, Christina Measom, the Cougars will post a strong attack in the middle. Measom played in 18 matches and 51 sets for the Cougars in 2008. She began hitting on the rightside and moved to the outside near the end of the year, but will be playing middle for the Cougars this season. Measom finished the year with 91 kills, two assists, 19 digs and 33 blocks on .154 hitting, averaging 1.78 kills and 0.65 blocks per set.

Measom will be joined in the middle by Senior Marisa Boaz who posted a season-high four blocks against Wyoming in the final match of the 2008 season. Freshman Nicole Warner who hit .543 while averaging 1.3 blocks per game in 2007 for the Idaho Falls Juniors club will provide depth to the middle. While in high school she was named to first-team All-State as a senior in 2007 after posting 332 kills and 197 blocks. Freshman Kathryn LeCheminant will also add depth to the middle, who helped her team finish 38th at the Junior Olympics in 2008. LeCheminant brings a career-high 25 kills, eight blocks and five service aces to the Cougar roster.

OUTSIDE HITTER

Casey Speredon Thurston and Christie Carpenter are both touching 10-foot-4 and will look to be the leading outside hitters for the Cougars in 2009. Thurston saw action in 11 matches and 13 sets as a redshirt freshman in 2008, totaling 18 kills, one dig and one block on the year. Carpenter played in three matches and 10 sets as a freshman in 2007, tallying 16 kills, two aces, 13 digs and four blocks.

Senior Stephanie Lau will provide collegiate experience to the outside as well as serving as a defensive specialist. In 2008 she totaled four kills, one ace and five digs while hitting .250 on the year. Salt Lake Community College transfer, Camilla Phillips, played her freshman year under BYU head coach Shay Goulding and was named 2008 NJCAA honorable mention All-American. She totaled 374 kills (3.07/set) on .288 hitting with 67 blocks as a sophomore at SLCC.

RIGHTSIDE

A 2008 All-MWC selection and 2009 All-MWC preseason pick, Kayla Walker, will lead the Cougars in the attack from the right side. After transferring from Pepperdine in 2008, Walker played in every match and all but one set in her first season with the Cougars. Although she started 2008 on the outside, she hit on the rightside in the last 10 matches, finding her niche in BYU volleyball. Walker finished the 2008 season with 285 kills, 10 assists, 13 aces, 197 digs and 86 blocks. She ranked first on the team and sixth in the MWC with 3.03 kills per set. She also ranked fifth in the league in points per set (3.64). Walker led the Cougars in kills 13 times, hitting percentage three times, digs once and blocks six times on the 2008 season.

Newcomer, Lauren Sagers will also provide depth to the rightside being a four-time letterwinner at Centennial High School in Las Vegas, Nev. She was named region MVP and all-region first-team as well as team MVP.

SETTER

Junior Kiana Rogers played in every match and every set for BYU as the starting setter in her sophomore season. She averages 10.14 assists per set, ranking third in the MWC. She finished the 2008 season with 20 aces, .21 per contest. Rogers tallied a team-best 10 double-doubles while posting double-digit digs in 10 matches on the year.

Freshman Heather Hannemann will challenge Rogers for the starting position at setter. She earned prepvolleyball.com All-America honors and first-team all-state as a senior in high school. She was also named 2008 Deseret News 5A state MVP and Provo Daily Herald Utah Valley Player of the Year. Hannemann averaged 0.47 service aces, 1.86 digs and 9.36 assists per set as a senior at Lone Peak High School. After serving as the team manager in 2008, Brooke Taulii Soon will serve as a backup setter for the Cougars. As a senior in high school she earned first-team all-league recognition in 2006 while totaling 246 kills, 21 assists, 56 aces, 420 digs and 31 blocks on .300 hitting.

LIBERO

Senior Morgan Lloyd Sorensen who played in every match and set in her first season with the Cougars will serve in the capacity of libero. In 2008 she tallied three kills, 29 assists, 24 aces and 218 digs, leading BYU and tied for fourth in the MWC with 0.25 aces per set. Sorensen was third on the team in digs per set with 2.29 and tallied double-digit digs in 10 matches. Melissa Lake Wright will join her with 21 match and 71 set-experience as a walk-on sophomore in 2008. She began last season as a defensive specialist but became the starting libero midway through the season. Wright finished the season with a team-best 253 digs along with two kills, 16 assists and eight aces. She led the team and ranked fifth in the MWC with 3.56 digs per set.

Sacramento State University transfer, Chelsea Goodsell, helped her team compile a 29-8 overall record while winning the Big Sky Conference Championship and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual national runner-up Stanford. She played in every match for the Hornets as a freshman, ranking second on the team with 4.37 digs per game. Goodsell also recorded double-digit digs in 31 matches on the year, topping the 20-dig mark nine times. Freshman Courtney Honka will also defend for the Cougars. She was named league MVP as a senior at Monache High School and played for varsity all four years.

Shay Goulding Head Women's Volleyball Coach

Shay Goulding enters her second season in 2009 as the head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program after starting out on Feb. 27, 2008.

COACHING CAREER

Goulding has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience, including five seasons as the head coach at SLCC where she cultivated the Bruins into one of the elite junior college programs in the country. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams have earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

Goulding's 2007 team earned a 44-2 record while finishing third at the NJCAA National Tournament with both losses coming against eventual national champion Western Nebraska. Goulding was honored with her second AVCA West Region Coach of the Year award and fourth District I honor and graduated her fifth All-American. The Bruins made their third consecutive national tournament appearance in 2006 while Goulding garnered her third District Coach of the Year accolade and graduated her third NJCAA All-American. After placing third in the Scenic West Athletic Conference, Goulding led the Bruins to the Region 18 Championship and a bid to the NJCAA Tournament, where the team finished in 11th place.

The 2005 Bruins also finished third in the SWAC and rallied to win the region and district championships. The Bruins ended the year ninth nationally after Goulding received her second District Coach of the Year award. In 2004, she guided the Bruins to a second-place finish at the NJCAA Tournament, producing her first two All-Americans in just her second season as head coach. As a result, she was named the District I and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year.

Prior to coaching at SLCC, Goulding spent one year at Solano Community College in Fairfield, Calif., and three years as part of the coaching staff at Utah State University. During her time as an assistant coach at USU, the Aggies went to the NCAA Tournament twice and were ranked in the top 25 in the country for two consecutive years. The Aggies' climb to the top included back-to-back 20-win seasons and 10 Big West All-Conference selections.

Goulding's coaching experience also includes coaching at the high school and club levels in both California and Utah for the past 10 years. Goulding has directed and coached at camps throughout the western states and has become known as a sound clinician and excellent teacher of motor skills. She was a featured speaker at the 2007 AVCA convention and has served as the Chairman of the AVCA Awards Committee since 2004.

PLAYING CAREER

Goulding played collegiate volleyball at Coastal Carolina University in South Carolina. A middle blocker/outside hitter, she was named team captain and the Chanticleers Most Valuable Player in 1994 while being selected to several all-tournament teams.

PERSONAL

A native of Visalia, Calif., Goulding received her Master of Education degree in Exercise Science with an emphasis in Motor Learning from Utah State University in 2001 and her Bachelor of Arts degree in History from BYU in 1998. She served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Santiago, Chile, from 1996-97.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

BYU is a member of the Mountain West Conference. The Cougars own a 107-41 (.723) league record in the 10 seasons of the MWC after finishing 2008 in sixth place with a 7-9 mark.

BYU won the inaugural regular season title in 1999 with a 13-1 record and won again in 2005 with a 14-2 mark. BYU appeared in the MWC Tournament title match in each of the first two seasons, winning the title over Colorado State in Fort Collins in 2000 after losing the 1999 title to the Rams in Provo. Utah won the 2001 and 2002 crowns, in Provo and Fort Collins, respectively while Colorado State captured the 2003 title in San Diego and the 2004 crown on its home court. Utah won the 2005 title, Colorado State took home the crown in 2006 and UNLV earned the title in 2007, all in Las Vegas.

Six of the nine MWC programs have competed in postseason action in the 10 years since the league was formed. In 2008, two MWC teams earned NCAA bids, including Utah (automatic) and Colorado State (at-large). Overall, BYU has made 24 NCAA appearances, followed by Colorado State with 20, SDSU with 13, Utah with 10, New Mexico with seven, Wyoming with four and UNLV with one.

Three MWC teams were ranked in 2008 as BYU, Colorado State and Utah represented the league in the AVCA Coaches' Top 25 Poll.

BYU has a winning record over every MWC team with an overall conference winning percentage of .793.
