MWC Play Wraps Up on the Road

PROVO, Utah (Nov. 17, 2009) - In the last week of Mountain West Conference play, the BYU women's volleyball team (13-13, 7-7 MWC) will travel to Air Force (8-18, 0-13) Thursday for a game at 7 p.m. MT and later to San Diego State to face the Aztecs (13-13, 6-8) Saturday at 1 p.m. PT.

"Air Force and San Diego State will be our last conference matches so we want to finish strong," BYU head coach Shay Goulding said. "Our goal is to get out there and be aggressive in every element of the game and come back with two wins we can be proud of. Air Force always plays well at home and San Diego State is a tough team that has given just about everyone in our conference problems. We plan to bring them our collective best in order to beat them."

BYU last played the Falcons at home, beating them handedly on Saturday, Sept. 19 3-0. San Diego State put up a tough fight the same week on Thursday, Sept. 17, falling to the Cougars 3-2.

The last time out the Cougars split home wins to Wyoming (3-0) and Colorado State (2-3).

After a close five-set match at Wyoming on Oct. 17 the BYU women's volleyball team came out strong at the Smith Fieldhouse, downing the Cowgirls 3-0 (25-21, 25-20, 25-19) on Thursday Nov. 12. Senior rightside hitter Kayla Walker led the Cougars with 10 kills on the night, with Christina Measom and Nicole Warner each tallying nine kills. Warner hit at .692 percent while Morgan Lloyd Sorensen and Melissa Lake Wright had 11 and 10 digs, respectively.

On Saturday Nov. 14 in front of 1,590 fans for senior night, the team fell in five to the No. 1 Mountain West Conference ranked Colorado State Rams (25-21, 23-25, 25-20, 25-27, 12-15). Camilla Phillips led the Cougars with a career-high 14 kills, also posting a .500 hitting percentage. Christina Measom was right behind her, also hitting .500 and tallying 13 kills. Setter Kiana Rogers chalked up 49 assists and 12 digs, her ninth double-double of the season. Melissa Lake Wright led the back row in digs with 17 while three other Cougars had double digit digs on the night. Christie Carpenter added 13 digs and seven kills while libero Morgan Lloyd Sorensen tallied 14 kills.

After these last two MWC matches, the Cougars will face Saint Mary's College out of Moraga, Calif. on Saturday Nov. 28 at 7 p.m. PT.

Last Time Out

USAF ACADEMY, Colo. - The Air Force volleyball team dropped 3-1 Mountain West Conference match to travel partner San Diego State on Friday, Nov. 13. After winning the first set by a 25-19 margin, the Falcons dropped the final three sets by 25-11, 25-18, 25-22 scores. Junior Caroline Kurtz recorded her eighth double-double of the season, as she led the Falcons with 11 kills and 15 digs.

Kurtz collected 11 of the team's 47 kills, while senior Michelle Harrington and junior Nichole Stilwell added totals of nine and eight, respectively. Classmate Julia Hansen led the team with a career-best hitting percentage of .267, as she connected on seven of 15 attacks, while committing just three errors. In addition to recording a service ace, fellow junior Jessica Hellmann was the team's leading assister, as she recorded 33 of the squad's 46 helpers.

Stilwell guarded the net, collecting three single-handed stops. Harrington and Hansen teamed up for a pair of assisted stops. Freshman Maiya Perich, the team's starting libero got a hand on 13 balls, as she and Kurtz combined for 28 of the team's 53 digs.

The squads traded points in the opening set, led by a pair of tallies by Hansen. Air Force took the narrow 7-6 lead, while it quickly extended to 13-9 after back-to-back kills from Kurtz. The Falcons maintained the advantage, widening its advantage to five at the 17-12 mark. San Diego State pulled within three, but a kill by Harrington stopped the Aztecs' run and a kill by Stilwell secured the Falcons' 25-19 victory.

Air Force was unable to use the momentum of the first set victory, as San Diego State raced out to a 16-5 lead. With a kill, Hansen provided the Falcons' only offensive point of the first half. Freshman Dani Griffith tallied a kill for the Falcons' sixth point, while several Aztec errors helped the Falcons reach the 10-point mark. Harrington added another kill, but Air Force fell 25-11. Five straight attacking errors by SDSU allowed the Falcons to start the third set with a 5-1 advantage. The Aztecs quickly responded to take an 8-6 lead. Junior Emily Frick collected a kill to pull the Falcons within one (8-7) and Harrington put down a kill that tied the set at 10. The two teams traded the next several serves, until San Diego State finally pulled ahead at the 17-15 mark. Harrington added a pair of kills, but the Falcons fell by a 25-18 score.

San Diego State took the early lead, but Air Force responded to tie the set at seven. Frick put down a kill to even the set at 10 and spark an Air Force run. Junior Kelly Spencer served up an ace, while Hellmann put down a kill before Frick added another strike to give the Falcons a 13-10 lead. Air Force maintained its lead until the Aztecs evened the score at 17 and took the lead on the ensuing point. A kill by Griffith pulled the Falcons within one (21-20), but the Aztecs completed the comeback with a 25-22 win.

SAN DIEGO - San Diego State spread the offense around as it got double figures in kills from four players in a 3-0 (25-12, 25-22, 25-17) victory over visiting Cal State Bakersfield Sunday afternoon in Peterson Gym. The win allowed the Aztecs to even their 2009 record at 13-13 as they won for the seventh time in their last 10 outings.

SDSU hit .415 for the match, its second-highest attack percentage of the season after hitting .466 against Air Force on Oct. 16. Defensively, the Aztecs held the Roadrunners to a .130 percentage.

Freshman Andrea Hannasch led all players with 11 kills and added seven blocks while hitting .625 over the three games. Three other Aztecs finished with 10 kills apiece including Hannah Evans, Paije Pearson and Kyley Sexton. Evans added 10 digs to notch her sixth double-double of the year while Pearson had six blocks.

Libero Kristi Jackels had eight digs to bring her season total to 405 and move her into the number-seven spot on the Aztec single-season list. In the process she passed former Aztec standout Angela Rock, who is now eighth on the list with 400 digs during the 1984 campaign.

Setter Lauren Van Orden's 38 sets on the day moved her closer to breaking into both the school top 10 lists for season and career numbers in that category. She now needs 58 over SDSU's final three matches to move into the single-season chart and 60 to break into the career top 10 list.

San Diego State came out and dominated the opening set, jumping out to a 6-1 lead and not allowing Bakersfield to get closer than that the rest of the way. Hannasch led the Aztecs with five kills while Evans and Sexton had four apiece. The Aztecs hit .536 for the contest while holding the Roadrunners to a .074 attack percentage. The second set was a much closer affair with Bakersfield grabbing the early lead this time at 8-3. SDSU, however, slowly worked its way back into the contest. After trailing 14-10, it scored eight straight points to take the lead for good. During that run, the Aztecs got two kills apiece from Sexton and Lauren Salisbury and benefited from four Roadrunner hitting errors.

In set number three, San Diego State took a 10-7 lead, but was unable to put away from a determined Bakersfield side. The Aztecs' lead varied between two and three points until, at 15-13, SDSU was able to put four consecutive points together to take a 19-13 advantage and go on to the eight-point win to secure the match. Pearson led all players with six kills and three block assists in the set to account for 7.5 points.

Cougars Fall 0-2 on the Road

BYU lost to TCU for the second time this season on the road in three sets (25-12, 25-18, 25-18). "TCU is a great team who came ready to play," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "We, unfortunately, did not come ready to play." Senior rightside hitter Kayla Walker led the Cougars in kills with eight, also tallying eight digs. Transfer Camilla Phillips chalked up seven kills hitting at .333 while Christina Measom tallied five blocks. Libero Melissa Lake Wright tallied a season-high 20 digs, also tying her career-high. On Saturday the Cougars took on the Lobos in Albuquerque, N.M. but were also taken down in three sets. "We played really well, but missed nine of our serves," said Goulding. Shay Goulding Head Women's Volleyball Coach

Shay Goulding enters her second season in 2009 as the head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program after starting out on Feb. 27, 2008.

COACHING CAREER

Goulding has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience, including five seasons as the head coach at SLCC where she cultivated the Bruins into one of the elite junior college programs in the country. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams have earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

Goulding's 2007 team earned a 44-2 record while finishing third at the NJCAA National Tournament with both losses coming against eventual national champion Western Nebraska. Goulding was honored with her second AVCA West Region Coach of the Year award and fourth District I honor and graduated her fifth All-American. The Bruins made their third consecutive national tournament appearance in 2006 while Goulding garnered her third District Coach of the Year accolade and graduated her third NJCAA All-American. After placing third in the Scenic West Athletic Conference, Goulding led the Bruins to the Region 18 Championship and a bid to the NJCAA Tournament, where the team finished in 11th place.

The 2005 Bruins also finished third in the SWAC and rallied to win the region and district championships. The Bruins ended the year ninth nationally after Goulding received her second District Coach of the Year award. In 2004, she guided the Bruins to a second-place finish at the NJCAA Tournament, producing her first two All-Americans in just her second season as head coach. As a result, she was named the District I and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year.

Prior to coaching at SLCC, Goulding spent one year at Solano Community College in Fairfield, Calif., and three years as part of the coaching staff at Utah State University. During her time as an assistant coach at USU, the Aggies went to the NCAA Tournament twice and were ranked in the top 25 in the country for two consecutive years. The Aggies' climb to the top included back-to-back 20-win seasons and 10 Big West All-Conference selections.

Goulding's coaching experience also includes coaching at the high school and club levels in both California and Utah for the past 10 years. Goulding has directed and coached at camps throughout the western states and has become known as a sound clinician and excellent teacher of motor skills. She was a featured speaker at the 2007 AVCA convention and has served as the Chairman of the AVCA Awards Committee since 2004.

PLAYING CAREER

Goulding played collegiate volleyball at Coastal Carolina University in South Carolina. A middle blocker/outside hitter, she was named team captain and the Chanticleers Most Valuable Player in 1994 while being selected to several all-tournament teams.

PERSONAL

A native of Visalia, Calif., Goulding received her Master of Education degree in Exercise Science with an emphasis in Motor Learning from Utah State University in 2001 and her Bachelor of Arts degree in History from BYU in 1998. She served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Santiago, Chile, from 1996-97.
