Texas A&M Invitational Up Next For BYU

Coming off a title in the BYU Molten Classic, the Cougar women's volleyball team will hit the road for the first time in 2008 this weekend, playing at the Texas A&M Invitational Friday and Saturday.

The 3-0 Cougars will face Siena on Friday at 4:30 p.m. CT (3:30 p.m. MT) before taking on American Saturday at 9:30 a.m. CT (8:30 a.m. MT) and the host Aggies at 7 p.m. CT (6 p.m. MT). All three matches will be available on BYU Radio.

"I expect this weekend to be another great test for us," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "We did an excellent job defending the Fieldhouse last weekend, but now it is time to be tested on the road. We will be facing some very talented teams so we must take it one match at a time."

The Cougars did indeed defend the Smith Fieldhouse last weekend, taking home the Molten Classic crown with wins over Utah State, Tulane and Missouri. Several newcomers shined for BYU in their respective Cougar debuts as freshman Malia Marquardt and junior transfers Morgan Lloyd (Salt Lake CC) and Kayla Walker (Pepperdine) announced their presence on the BYU volleyball scene.

Senior outside hitter Bryn Porter earned Molten Classic MVP and Mountain West Conference Player of the Week accolades as she led BYU with 3.67 kills per set while also tallying 2.33 dps and 1.17 bps. Marquardt was named to the All-Tournament Team. Junior middle blocker Ashton Hansen Hosford was also a crucial part of the Cougars' success as she posted 2.25 blocks per set on the weekend.

The Texas A&M Aggies got off to a rougher start to the 2008 season, going 0-3 last weekend with losses to No. 21 LSU, No. 16 Minnesota and Creighton. Siena began the season going 0-2 with defeats against Hofstra and Seton Hall. American had a more successful opening weekend, bouncing back from a season-opening loss against George Washington with victories over Georgetown and George Mason to open the year 2-1.

SIENA'S LAST OUTING

LONG ISLAND (Aug. 30, 2008) -- Harmonie Calinda tallied 22 kills and 15 digs to lead host Hofstra past Siena 3-1 on the second day of the Pride Volleyball Invitational on Long Island. Burgandy McCurdy led the Saints with 18 kills.

Hofstra won a competitive first set 26-24, but Siena evened the match 1-1 with a 25-22 win in the second set. Hofstra rallied for a 25-20 win in the third set and 25-13 in the fourth.

Siena struggled to find balance on offense, as McCurdy's 18 kills more than doubled her next closest teammate. Kathi Kobayashi anchored the Saints' defensive charge with 12 digs.

McCurdy was named to the All-Tournament Team.

The Saints return home with a 0-2 record after falling 3-1 in their first match to Seton hall Friday evening.

AMERICAN'S LAST OUTING

WASHINGTON (Aug. 30, 2008) - The American University volleyball team won a pair of matches on Saturday to capture the third annual D.C. Volleyball Challenge at George Washington University. The Eagles beat Georgetown in the opener, 3-0, and held off George Mason in the nightcap, 3-1. Senior Rubena Sukaj broke the AU career service aces record on her first of seven aces on the day.

American (2-1) took a four-set match against GMU in its third and final match of the weekend, 25-21, 20-25, 25-23, 25-15. Both teams matched up well early in the first set and by the midway point were deadlocked in their 11th tie of the frame, 13-13. AU would pull away though on the strength of a 5-0 run which moved the score to 18-13 and took the first set 25-21. Senior setter Christina Nash directed the American offense to a .316 hitting percentage in the set, recording 10 assists and adding three kills. The second set saw seven lead changes before George Mason slowly pulled away from the Eagles for a 25-20 win. Sukaj scored eight kills in the set while hitting .615 but AU could not slow the Patriot offense which combined to hit .448.

American regained its poise in the third set and withstood a late charge from GMU for a 25-23 victory. The Eagles opened the frame by taking an early 10-4 lead. Ahead by six at 20-14, American's attack slowed momentarily as the Patriots crept back to within two, 23-21. With the match still in the balance AU capitalized on a Patriot error to close out the set. The Eagles defense played a major role in the set's outcome as Sukaj, Nash and freshman Rebecca Heath each recorded two block assists and the team totaled four blocks for the frame.

The Eagles defense continued to shine in set four as AU controlled the action and took match point at 25-15. AU totaled a match-high five total blocks in the frame and received three block assists from Sukaj and two from Angelina Waterman. A 7-2 run powered by three kills from Sukaj and two from Heath allowed American to open a seven-point lead, 17-10, as the Eagles cruised to match-point.

For the second time in as many nights AU received double-double efforts from its senior duo of Sukaj and Nash. Sukaj led all scorers with 22 kills and dug 15 balls while Nash dished out 40 assists and notched 11 digs herself. Sukaj and Recht also led the team in block assists with five apiece. Junior Ivana Cebakova led all defenders with 22 digs.

TEXAS A&M'S LAST OUTING

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (Aug. 30, 2008) - Texas A&M's season-opening weekend didn't go as the Aggies had hoped. A&M fell to host Creighton, 25-20, 25-21, 25-14, in the final match of the Bluejay Invitational at the Omaha Civic Auditorium, finishing 0-3 in the tournament.

Creighton, which also was looking for its first win, scored the first two points of the match and led the entire first set en route to a 25-20 win. The Bluejays, who outhit A&M 393 to .194 in the frame, took their first five-point lead at 14-9 following a four-point run. A&M got back within two points at 18-16 following a kill by Sarah Ammerman and a block by Mary Batis and Jillian Phillips, but the Aggies were unable to close the gap. Amanda Cvejdlík put down a kill to put the Bluejays at set point at 24-19. Darla Donaldson kept A&M alive with a kill, but a serve into the net ended the set.

Ammerman put the Aggies on the board in the second set with a kill, but the Bluejays then reeled off four straight points. A&M tied the score at 5-5, but Creighton once again reeled off four unanswered points. The Aggies scored three consecutive points on two Bluejay errors and an ace by Batis before Creighton ended the rally by killing an over pass. The play marked the start of a six-point run for the Bluejays. Trailing 17-9, A&M began cutting away at the lead and eventually got within two points at 23-21. The Aggies were unable to score again as a dump kill by setter Korie Lebeda and a block by Allie Oilke and Lauren Bloemke ended the set and gave the Bluejays a 2-0 lead going into the intermission.

Donaldson started the third set with a kill, but a service error and a Creighton kill off an A&M overpass gave the Bluejays the lead. The teams traded points and were tied at 4-4, when Creighton put down three consecutive kills and then got a block to go up 8-4. The Bluejays later went on a six-point run to go up, 17-8. A&M could not catch up as the Bluejays, who hit .400 in the set, kept the Aggies from scoring consecutive points throughout the entire set.

Creighton hit .336 for the match. Bluejays Carolyn Decker and Amanda Cvejdlík led both teams with 13 and 11 kills, respectively, while hitting at least .400 apiece. A&M, which hit .160 for the match and was outblocked, 8-3, used 11 players in the match. Jillian Phillips led the Aggies with eight kills. Freshman Kelsey Black, who drew the first start of her career, had five kills. Batis, who was named to the all-tournament team, tied for match-high honors with 15 digs.

Weekly Notes:

Week #1 In Review

The 2008 BYU women's volleyball team began the season with three victories last weekend, defending their BYU Molten Classic title in the Smith Fieldhouse. The Cougars began the tournament with a 25-16, 25-23, 25-13 sweep of in-state rival Utah State on Friday night, first-year head coach Shay Goulding's first career Div. I victory. BYU followed up that performance with a four-set win (21-25, 26-24, 27-25, 25-21) over Tulane on Saturday followed by a thrilling five-set triumph (25-20, 19-25, 25-10, 22-25, 17-15) against Missouri.

Molten Classic All-Tournament

Two Cougars were named to the BYU Molten Classic All-Tournament Team last weekend. True freshman Malia Marquardt earned all-tournament honors in her first weekend of collegiate volleyball after averaging 2.75 kills, 1.50 digs and 1.25 blocks per set on .356 hitting. She posted double-digit kills in all three matches and tallied her first career double-double against Missouri with 12 putaways and 10 digs. Senior Bryn Porter became the 14th Cougar in program history to earn Molten Classic MVP honors as she averaged a team-best 3.67 kps with 2.33 dps and 1.17 bps. The outside hitter notched career highs with 19 kills and 16 digs against Missouri, her first double-double of the year, while recording a personal-best six blocks against Tulane and also posted double-digit kills in all three matches. She earned her second career MWC Player of the Week award for her efforts on the weekend.

Making Milestones

With the Cougars' three-set win over Utah State on Friday night, BYU head coach Shay Goulding achieved her first career Division I victory. Goulding spent the last five years as the head coach at Salt Lake Community College after one season guiding the Solano Community College women's volleyball program, compiling a 188-73 (.720) record at the NJCAA level. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

Here Comes The Bride

Two Cougars are sporting different last names this season after getting married in the off-season. Junior rightside hitter Marisa Vandersteen Boaz tied the knot in May while Ashton Hansen Hosford quickly followed suit in June.

2008 Rule Changes

Volleyball fans will notice two significant rule changes in 2008. The first major change approved by the NCAA Rules Committee changes the name of games to sets. The second change shortens matches from 30 points to 25 points, changing the collegiate version of the sport to be more in line with international standards.

Team Captains

The 2008 women's volleyball team has selected its two seniors - outside hitter Bryn Porter and middle blocker Rachel Dyer - as captains for the season. Both players have been at BYU their entire collegiate careers and started as juniors last season.

Redshirts

BYU head coach Shay Goulding has asked three players to redshirt the 2008 season. Sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell, who transferred from Sacramento State this offseason, and freshman middle blocker Nicole Warner will wait one more season to make their Cougar debuts. Sophomore outside hitter Christie Carpenter, who played in three matches and 10 games as a true freshman last year, will also redshirt the season.

Cougars in the Polls

BYU In the Polls

After beginning the season ranked No. 20 in the CBS College Sports/ AVCA Division I Coaches Top 25 Poll, the Cougars moved up four spots this week to No. 16. BYU has a rich history of rankings in the AVCA Top 25 Poll. Among NCAA Division I programs, the Cougars are ninth all-time in total number of weeks ranked (288) and 11th in weeks ranked in the top 10 (123) and weeks ranked No. 1 (4). The Cougars have also traditionally finished strong, coming in eighth all-time in number of times ranked in the final poll (21), 10th in top-five final rankings (3) and seventh in weeks ranked No. 1 in the final poll (1). The Cougars began last season ranked No. 17 in the preseason poll and rose as high as No. 9 in the rankings before ending the year at No. 12.

Rivals in the Rankings

Three Cougar opponents also appear in the latest rankings. Wisconsin has moved up three spots to No. 10 and will host BYU on Sept. 13 at the Inntowner Invitational. The Texas Longhorns, who will host the Cougars on Oct. 24, are ranked No. 4 in the nation while Mountain West Conference foe Colorado State is ranked 17th. BYU will face the defending league champions on Sept. 20 in Fort Collins, Colo., and on Nov. 20 at home. Three other Cougar opponents received votes (Utah, Missouri, Tulane). Defending NCAA Champion Penn State tops the preseason poll.

Newcomers

Several new faces will contribute to the Cougars' success this year both on and off the court as BYU welcomes a new coaching staff and seven newcomers for the 2008 season. Former Salt Lake Community College Head Coach Shay Goulding will guide the BYU program this year, becoming just the fifth head coach in Cougar history. On the sidelines with Goulding will be former BYU men's volleyball standout Shawn Olmstead and recently graduated All-American Chelsea Goodman, who hopes to build on her tremendous on-court success over the past four years by helping the Cougars from the bench. In addition to three incoming freshmen – setter Markelle Malone, rightside hitter Malia Marquardt and middle blocker Nicole Warner – and one walk-on, defensive specialist Melissa Lake, three transfers have made their way to BYU. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding while junior outside hitter Kayla Walker comes to BYU after two years at Pepperdine and sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell spent her freshman year at Sacramento State. All seven newcomers could contribute significantly for the Cougars this year.

Cougars Picked To Finish Third In MWC

A voting panel including the nine Mountain West Conference head coaches and selected media has picked the BYU women's volleyball team to finish third in the MWC this season with a total of 82 points and one first-place vote. Defending league-champion Colorado State was tabbed as the favorite to win the 2008 regular-season title while Utah was selected second and New Mexico was slotted just behind BYU in fourth. "It's an honor to be included among the top teams in what will be a very competitive conference this season," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "We're excited to get the season started." The Rams collected 13 first-place votes and 125 total points. Utah tallied 95 points to claim second-place in the poll, while BYU edged New Mexico by one point for third place. The Lobos collected 81 points for fourth place in the poll. UNLV (63 points) and TCU (56 points) claimed fifth and sixth place, respectively, followed by San Diego State (seventh, 48 points), Wyoming (eighth, 28 points) and Air Force (ninth, 15 points).

Cougars Travel to Argentina

In an occurrence as rare as the Summer Olympic Games, the BYU women's volleyball team embarked on a 13-day tour of Argentina from May 1-13. Due to the NCAA's Intuitional Foreign-Tour Limitations policy (17.30.2.1), Division I teams in every sport are only able to conduct a foreign tour once every four years. The trip marked the team's seventh foreign tour, stretching back to 1983, but first to South America. BYU's last foreign tour was in the spring of 2004 when the Cougars traveled through Europe. This year's tour took the Cougars throughout Argentina, including stops in Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, Resistencia, Rosario and the world-famous Iguazu Falls. BYU played five matches along the way, including three contests against the Argentine Junior National Team.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

BYU is a member of the Mountain West Conference. The Cougars own a 100-32 (.758) league record in the nine seasons of the MWC after finishing 2007 tied for second place with a 12-4 mark.

BYU won the inaugural regular season title in 1999 with a 13-1 record and won again in 2005 with a 14-2 mark. BYU appeared in the MWC Tournament title match in each of the first two seasons, winning the title over Colorado State in Fort Collins in 2000 after losing the 1999 title to the Rams in Provo. Utah won the 2001 and 2002 crowns, in Provo and Fort Collins, respectively while Colorado State captured the 2003 title in San Diego and the 2004 crown on its home court. Utah won the 2005 title, Colorado State took home the crown in 2006 and UNLV earned the title in 2007, all in Las Vegas.

Six of the nine MWC programs have competed in postseason action in the seven years since the league was formed. In 2007, three MWC teams earned NCAA bids, including BYU (at-large), Colorado State (automatic) and UNLV (at-large). Since the MWC was founded in 1999, BYU and Colorado State have represented the conference in the NCAA Tournament each season. Overall, BYU has made 24 NCAA appearances, followed by Colorado State with 19, SDSU with 13, Utah with nine, New Mexico with seven, Wyoming with four and UNLV with one.

Three MWC teams were ranked in 2007 as BYU, Colorado State and UNLV represented the league in the AVCA Coaches' Top 25 Poll.

BYU has a winning record over every MWC team with an overall conference winning percentage of .808.

Goulding Earns First Div. I Victory

First-year BYU head coach Shay Goulding celebrated her first career Division I victory Friday night as the BYU women's volleyball team swept Utah State (25-16, 25-23, 25-13) in the 2008 season opener for both teams. Action Friday night from the BYU Molten Classic also saw Missouri defeat Tulane in four games.

"I'm very pleased with our result tonight," said Goulding. "Utah State did a great job, but we showed a lot of maturity and composure. We have a lot of work to do, but overall, it was a great way to start our season."

The first match of the year saw several new Cougars in action as true freshman Malia Marquardt and junior transfers Kayla Walker (Pepperdine) and Morgan Lloyd (Salt Lake Community College) made their first BYU starts. All three made the most of the opportunity as Marquardt tied for team-high honors with 10 kills on .421 hitting while Walker added nine putaways on .353 hitting and Lloyd tallied 14 digs. Senior Bryn Porter also posted 10 kills and tied her career high with five blocks while junior Ashton Hansen Hosford paced the Cougars with seven rejections. Senior Rachel Dyer notched seven kills on .545 hitting.

"All of our newcomers did a great job tonight," said Goulding. "They've integrated well with our returning players. They were a huge factor."

Career Highs Lead to BYU Victory

The No. 20 BYU Cougars chalked up a four-set win (21-25, 26-24, 27-25, 25-21) against the Tulane Green Wave, bringing them to 2-0 on the season.

"I like the maturity we showed in tight sets," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "It's good to defend the Smith Fieldhouse. We learned things and got progressively smarter as the match went on."

Playing smart for the Cougars was sophomore setter Kiana Rogers, who notched her sixth career double-double, and junior Ashton Hansen Hosford, who tied her career high of 13 blocks. Senior Bryn Porter also had a career high of six blocks, while the team notched 15.5 team blocks.

Pepperdine transfer Kayla Walker posted a .409 hitting percentage with 11 kills as Porter led the team in kills with 15 on a hitting percentage of .154. On the defensive side, Rogers led in digs with 14 while junior Morgan Lloyd added 11.

Tulane was led by senior Croatian native Sara Radosevic, who had 17 kills and a hitting percentage of .333; junior Rachel Lindelow led the defense with 11 digs.

Hard-Fought Victory for the Cougars

The No. 20 BYU women's volleyball team took home the Molten Classic Tournament title Saturday night after a thrilling five-set victory (25-20, 19-25, 25-10, 22-25, 17-15) in the Smith Fieldhouse. Senior Bryn Porter earned MVP honors and true freshman Malia Marquardt was named to the All-Tournament team for their efforts.

"The theme of this weekend was maturity, and I'm very excited for this season based on what I saw," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "Missouri gave us an amazing effort, and I'm glad they played the way they did and we were able to respond. This match gives us great momentum for the rest of the year."

Porter led BYU with a career-high 19 kills on the night while also setting a personal best with 16 digs. Marquardt tallied the first double-double of her career with 12 kills and 10 dig while sophomore setter Kiana Rogers posted her second of the day with 45 assists and a career-high 21 digs. Senior middle blocker Rachel Dyer also notched double-digit kills with 11 while tying with junior outside hitter Kayla Walker for team-high blocking honors with eight rejections.

Marquardt got BYU going in the fifth set, but the two teams battled back and forth to a 5-5 tie. Missouri became the first team to take a two-point lead with a 7-5 advantage, but Walker answered with a kill. A BYU service error gave the Tigers an 8-6 lead when the two teams traded sides. Things looked bleak for BYU with Missouri leading 13-11 in the shortened fifth set but junior Ashton Hansen Hosford sparked a 3-0 Cougar that gave BYU match point at 14-13. However, the Tigers responded with two straight scores to earn their own match point. But the senior leadership of Porter came through as she put one away to stave off the Tigers and then helped BYU score the next two points to take set five, 17-15.

COUGARS READY FOR NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT IN 2008

After finishing last season ranked No. 12 in the nation with a 24-8 overall record, the 2008 Cougars are looking to build upon the success of last year, which culminated with an appearance in the Regional Finals of the NCAA Tournament. With 39 years of storied volleyball tradition providing the background, BYU hopes to once again challenge for the Mountain West Conference title in 2008 while making another NCAA Tournament run.

"I'm very excited for this season," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding, who begins her first year with the Cougars in 2008. "Our returning players have matured a great deal, and our newcomers will be wonderful assets to what is BYU volleyball. I expect us to pull together and accomplish great things this year."

With three starters among eight letterwinners returning, BYU will have talent and experience to draw on throughout the year as the Cougars overcome the challenge of losing four starters, including All-American Chelsea Goodman. Returning AVCA All-America honorable mention recipient Rachel Dyer is back for her final season and will be part of a tremendous one-two punch in the middle for BYU along with junior Ashton Hansen Hosford. Senior outside hitter Bryn Porter rounds out the returning starters for the Cougars. Several younger players will also be looked to for success as sophomores Christina Measom on the rightside, Kiana Rogers at the setter position and Christie Carpenter on the outside will also be competing for time after gaining valuable experience last year.

"We lost a lot of offensive production from last year, but we expect our returning players to step it up," said Goulding. "Many players will have opportunities to take on new roles as team leaders. We have a lot of great talent and volleyball knowledge on this team. We expect everyone to push each other and keep us focused on the goals we've set."

Several new faces will contribute to the Cougars' success this year both on and off the court as BYU welcomes a new coaching staff and seven newcomers for the 2008 season. Former Salt Lake Community College Head Coach Goulding will guide the BYU program this year, becoming just the fifth head coach in Cougar history. Goulding had tremendous success in her five seasons at SLCC, leading her teams to top-10 finishes at the NJCAA National Tournament in three of the past four years while earning four district and two region coach-of-the-year awards. On the sidelines with Goulding will be former BYU men's volleyball standout Shawn Olmstead and the recently graduated Goodman, who hopes to build on her tremendous on-court success over the past four years by helping the Cougars from the bench.

In addition to three incoming freshmen – setter Markelle Malone, rightside hitter Malia Marquardt and middle blocker Nicole Warner – and one walk-on, defensive specialist Melissa Lake, three transfers have made their way to BYU. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding while junior outside hitter Kayla Walker comes to BYU after two years at Pepperdine and sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell spent her freshman year at Sacramento State. All seven newcomers could contribute significantly for the Cougars this year.

"I have no doubt that our newcomers will fit into our systems and our program not only as outstanding volleyball players but as classy young ladies," said Goulding. "Our transfers especially have valuable experience that will add to the experience of our returning players."

A breakdown by position follows.

MIDDLE BLOCKER

All-American Rachel Dyer returns in 2008 to headline a strong group in the middle. The senior middle blocker ranked 11th in the country and fourth all-time at BYU with a .411 hitting percentage last season while posting 1.31 blocks per game, fifth in the league and 66th nationally. She earned all-tournament honors at all three of the Cougars' preseason tournaments last year and was numbered with the first group of Cougars to receive NCAA Regional All-Tournament accolades since 1998. A dominating presence inside, she posted double-digit kills in 24 matches and hit at least .500 in 12 contests.

Dyer will be joined in the middle by junior Ashton Hansen Hosford, who ranked third in the MWC and seventh all-time at BYU with a .389 hitting percentage as a sophomore starter last season. She also led the Cougars, ranked third in the league and 33rd nationally with 1.42 bpg. Known for her focus and intensity, she led BYU in blocks 17 times and hitting percentage in 10 matches, hitting .500 or above 10 times. Freshman Nicole Warner joins BYU in the middle this season after earning first-team all-state honors at Rigby High School in Rigby, Idaho, as a senior while tallying 332 kills and 197 blocks.

OUTSIDE HITTER

With the loss of Goodman on the outside, senior Bryn Porter is ready to step up as the Cougars' primary offensive weapon at the antennae this year. She posted 2.79 kills per contest in 2007 while notching double-digit kills in 19 matches and tallying five double-doubles. Her leadership and experience will also be a valuable asset to a relatively young Cougar squad. Also returning on the outside for BYU this year is sophomore Christie Carpenter. Carpenter saw action in 10 games as a true freshman last season and has already matured noticeably during her time as a Cougar. Junior Stephanie Lau may also contribute for BYU on the outside this year. Despite playing primarily as a defensive specialist during her first two seasons in a Cougar uniform, Lau saw more time on the outside during the spring and may continue that transition in the fall.

New to BYU's outside hitting core this season is junior Kayla Walker – the tallest Cougar on the roster this year at 6-foot-5. Walker played two years for the Pepperdine Waves before coming to BYU, earning West Coast Conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 2007 after being named to the WCC All-Freshman Team in 2006.

RIGHTSIDE

The Cougars have plenty of options on the rightside this season beginning with sophomore Christina Measom, who played in 11 games as a true freshman last year. Measom averaged 1.09 kills and 1.09 blocks per game while leading the Cougars in blocks three times and hitting percentage once. Fellow returning letterwinner Marisa Vandersteen Boaz could also compete for time on the rightside after playing in two matches last year. Returning red-shirt Casey Spredon and incoming freshman Malia Marquardt will both look to make their Cougar debuts this season in that position.

SETTER

The setter position is shaping up to be a battle as the Cougars return sophomore Kiana Rogers while adding talented freshman Markelle Malone to the mix. Rogers played in 14 matches last year while sharing time with injured Amy Schlauder. She averaged 12.66 assists per game and led BYU to a win over No. 10 Wisconsin but is coming off of offseason surgery that held her out of spring competition. Malone comes to BYU out of Durango High School in Las Vegas, Nev., where she was the starting varsity setter all four years, earning Sunset Division All-Conference all four seasons.

LIBERO

Perhaps BYU's deepest position this season, the libero spot will feature plenty of competition. In addition to Lau returning as a possible defensive specialist and outside hitter, three new faces will hope to join the rotation in 2008. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding and was named All-Region 18 First Team in 2007 after averaging 4.13 digs per game, which led the Scenic West Athletic Conference. Sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell, who played her freshman year at Sacramento State under legendary head coach Debbie Colberg, played every match for the Hornets and ranked second on the team with 4.37 digs per game. And finally, sophomore Melissa Lake joined the Cougars as a walk-on last winter and made significant strides in the back row during the spring. All three could contribute right away for BYU.

2008 COUGAR SCHEDULE

Continuing its tradition of competitive scheduling, BYU will play seven teams this season that qualified for the 2007 NCAA Tournament, including two that were ranked in final CSTV/AVCA Top 25 Poll. In addition to a full slate of Mountain West Conference action, the Cougars will play in three preseason tournaments. BYU will open the year hosting the annual Molten Classic on Aug. 29 and 30 featuring in-state rival Utah State, Tulane and 2007 NCAA Tournament-qualifier Missouri. The Cougars will then travel to College Station, Texas, to compete in a tournament hosted by Texas A&M where BYU will face the Aggies along with NCAA Tournament-participants American and Siena. Preseason action wraps up the following week at the University of Wisconsin. In addition to facing the Badgers, who finished 2007 ranked No. 14 nationally, the Cougars will also take on Boise State and Central Michigan. After starting the 16-match MWC schedule on Sept. 18, BYU will step out of league play on Oct. 24 for a match at Texas. The Longhorns advanced to the Elite Eight of last year's NCAA Tournament along with BYU while finishing the year ranked No. 6 in the country. This season will mark the first year that the MWC will not host a volleyball championship. The league's regular-season champion will receive an automatic bid to the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

BYU has a winning record against all of its 2008 opponents with first meetings against Tulane and Missouri set for this season. The Cougars' all-time record versus this year's competition is a dominating 399-97-1 (.804).

Shay Goulding Head Women's Volleyball Coach

Shay Goulding was named the head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program on Feb. 27, 2008.

COACHING CAREER

Goulding has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience, including five seasons as the head coach at SLCC where she cultivated the Bruins into one of the elite junior college programs in the country. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams have earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

Goulding's 2007 team earned a 44-2 record while finishing third at the NJCAA National Tournament with both losses coming against eventual national champion Western Nebraska. Goulding was honored with her second AVCA West Region Coach of the Year award and fourth District I honor and graduated her fifth All-American. The Bruins made their third consecutive national tournament appearance in 2006 while Goulding garnered her third District Coach of the Year accolade and graduated her third NJCAA All-American. After placing third in the Scenic West Athletic Conference, Goulding led the Bruins to the Region 18 Championship and a bid to the NJCAA Tournament, where the team finished in 11th place.

The 2005 Bruins also finished third in the SWAC and rallied to win the region and district championships. The Bruins ended the year ninth nationally after Goulding received her second District Coach of the Year award. In 2004, she guided the Bruins to a second-place finish at the NJCAA Tournament, producing her first two All-Americans in just her second season as head coach. As a result, she was named the District I and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year.

Prior to coaching at SLCC, Goulding spent one year at Solano Community College in Fairfield, Calif., and three years as part of the coaching staff at Utah State University. During her time as an assistant coach at USU, the Aggies went to the NCAA Tournament twice and were ranked in the top 25 in the country for two consecutive years. The Aggies' climb to the top included back-to-back 20-win seasons and 10 Big West All-Conference selections.

Goulding's coaching experience also includes coaching at the high school and club levels in both California and Utah for the past 10 years. Goulding has directed and coached at camps throughout the western states and has become known as a sound clinician and excellent teacher of motor skills. She was a featured speaker at the 2007 AVCA convention and has served as the Chairman of the AVCA Awards Committee since 2004.

PLAYING CAREER

Goulding played collegiate volleyball at Coastal Carolina University in South Carolina. A middle blocker/outside hitter, she was named team captain and the Chanticleers Most Valuable Player in 1994 while being selected to several all-tournament teams.

PERSONAL

A native of Visalia, Calif., Goulding received her Master of Education degree in Exercise Science with an emphasis in Motor Learning from Utah State University in 2001 and her Bachelor of Arts degree in History from BYU in 1998. She served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Santiago, Chile, from 1996-97.

2007 SEASON REVIEW

Despite a season of ups and downs, the BYU women's volleyball team maintained its position among the nation's elite in 2007, advancing to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 while earning a No. 12 final national ranking, the program's highest final poll position since 1998.

BYU finished the season 24-8 overall and 12-4 in the Mountain West Conference, tied for second place. Along the way, the Cougars defeated four ranked teams, including No. 10 Wisconsin, No. 25 UNLV, No. 6 Washington and No. 16 Middle Tennessee State. BYU's wins at the Huskies and against the Blue Raiders propelled the Cougars to their first Regional Semifinals appearance in a decade. One of the last eight teams still playing in December, the Cougars bowed out of the NCAA Tournament at No. 1 Penn State, who went on to win the national championship. Overall, BYU has now played in 24 NCAA tournaments in the 27-year history of the event.

Experience and leadership proved to be the determining factors for the Cougars in 2007 as three seniors – Chelsea Goodman, Erica Lott and Annie Pinegar – anchored the team on the court. All three contributed significantly to a BYU team that finished among the top 40 in the nation in hitting percentage (15th - .271), assists per game (21st – 15.35), blocks per game (27th – 3.02), match win/loss percentage (36th - .750) and kills per game (38th – 16.24). After beginning the year ranked No. 17 in the AVCA/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll, the Cougars climbed as high as No. 9 before finishing the year ranked No. 12.

The Smith Fieldhouse once again proved dominant for the Cougars as they went 10-2 on Elaine Michaelis Court while averaging 1,739 fans per match, 17th in the nation. A BYU women's volleyball record crowd of 4,509 saw BYU sweep Utah on Nov. 9. The Cougars area now 470-84 all-time at home and 32-3 on Elaine Michaelis Court over the past three seasons.

Perhaps the defining moment of the season came on Sept. 15 in a five-game come-from-behind win at San Diego State. The victory marked the program's 1,000th all-time win, making BYU just the fourth program in NCAA history to achieve that milestone. Though it did not come easily, the triumph epitomized the self-sacrifice, steely determination and elite performance that defines years of Cougar volleyball.

BYU began the year earning back-to-back tournament titles with victories at the Hawkeye Challenge hosted by Iowa and the BYU Molten Classic. The Cougars' home opener on Aug. 31 in the Classic featured an epic battle between the Cougars and No. 10 Wisconsin. BYU emerged victorious with a 3-2 win in front of 3,880 fans in the Smith Fieldhouse, vaulting to the No. 9 spot in the national poll. The following week, the Cougars went 1-2 at the Stanford Invitational with losses to No. 17 Cal Poly and No. 2 Stanford.

Sporting a 6-2 record entering Mountain West Conference play and searching for their 1,000th all-time victory, the Cougars were stunned at UNLV with a three-game loss. The Rebels proved to be the surprise team in the MWC in 2007, earning their best overall record and MWC finish in school history while making their first NCAA Tournament appearance. Two days after the UNLV setback, the Cougars seemed once again headed for defeat at SDSU after losing the first two games. But a monumental comeback effort spurred BYU to victory, the historic 1000th win.

A 6-3 record over the next five weeks offered little in the way of highlights as the Cougars dominated likely suspects TCU, Wyoming, Air Force and Utah Valley but dropped two matches to Colorado State and suffered a surprising home loss to New Mexico. But even in the midst of relative mediocrity, the team still managed to make a little history, getting a 3-2 win at Utah to record the first triumph at Crimson Court since 2000. Goodman led the way for BYU, posting the first Cougar triple-double since 2004 with 21 kills, 11 digs and a career-high 12 blocks, doubling her previous rejection tally.

Goodman had also been steadily increasing her career double-double tally, and with 20 kills and 16 digs at Colorado State on Oct. 18, she became the MWC's career record-holder in that category. The achievement was somewhat bittersweet as it came in a losing effort, but the three-game defeat proved to be the last the Cougars would taste for sometime.

After that point, BYU turned things around in the final four weeks of the regular season, winning eight straight matches. The victory streak included three significant wins as the Cougars exacted revenge on the Lobos in Albuquerque after the earlier home loss and defeated Utah and UNLV in the Smith Fieldhouse. The three-game win over the Utes was the first Cougar sweep over their rivals since 2001 and came in front of a BYU women's volleyball record crowd of 4,509 fans. Combined with the earlier win in Salt Lake City, the Cougars swept the season series against Utah for the first time since 1999 and earned the inaugural Deseret First Duel Rivalry Series volleyball trophy. The final match of the regular season saw BYU once again get some pay back, beating No. 25 UNLV in four games.

A semifinal loss to UNLV in the MWC Tournament on the Rebels' home floor the following week left BYU hoping for an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament. The Cougars were indeed invited to their 24th Tournament in the 27-year history of the event, opening with a sweep of Ole Miss in the first round. BYU then faced No. 6 Washington in the second round on the Huskies' home court. Looking to advance to the Regionals for the first time since 1999, the Cougars pulled off a spectacular five-game upset, coming from behind to win the last two games and continue their season. After sweeping No. 16 Middle Tennessee State in the Regional Semifinals held at Penn State to become one of the final eight teams playing, the Cougars ended their season with a three-game loss to the top-ranked Nittany Lions, who went on to win the national championship.
