Cougars to Host BYU Mizuno Classic BYU to Make Home Debut Against Ohio State, Rice and No. 8 Penn State

PROVO, Utah (Sept. 11, 2003) – After two consecutive weeks on the road to open its season, the BYU women's volleyball team is home Friday and Saturday to host the BYU Mizuno Classic presented by Courtyard Marriott. Ohio State, Rice and No. 8 Penn State will take part in the two-day tournament.

BYU (4-3) will face Ohio State (3-1) at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, and on Saturday the Cougars will take on Rice (6-2) at Noon and Penn State (7-0) at 7:30 p.m.

"With back-to-back road trips to open the season, we've been a little road weary," BYU coach Karen Lamb said. "But we're excited to be home and play in front of our fans."

Sophomore outside hitter Kim Wilson is coming off a stellar performance against Saint Louis last week, when she recorded a career-high 29 kills. She also posted career highs of five assists and 13 digs, en route to being the only Cougar named to the SMS Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational All-Tournament team.

This week, the Cougars face stiff competition in Ohio State, Rice and Penn State. While Penn State is the No. 8 team in the nation, Ohio State is just outside the top 25, while Rice has enjoyed quality wins over San Diego State and Purdue.

"As the season goes on and as we approach conference play, we have to keep raising our level of play," Lamb said. "That's why we schedule quality opponents each year, and this year is no different.

"In the end that might give us a couple of more losses than we want, but I want to be in the Final Four, and that's what we're building towards."

LOOKING AT OHIO STATE

Ohio State is just out of the AVCA Top 25 poll released Monday and is listed 26th among those receiving votes. The Buckeyes added another victory since the poll game out with a 3-1 win over Cleveland State on Tuesday. Ohio State is now 3-1 on the year with four-game wins over Ball State and Temple along with a 3-1 loss to Western Michigan. All four matches have been at home.

Weekly Notes:

Week #2 in Review ...

BYU traveled to the SMS Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational in Springfield, Mo., last weekend. The Cougars played four grueling matches in two days. On Friday, BYU opened their slate of matches with a tough five-game loss against Arkansas. In that match, the Cougars lost the first two games, before storming back to win the next two. In the fifth and deciding game, the Ladybacks edged the Cougars 15-13. Later that night, BYU defeated North Texas to even its tournament record.

The next day, sophomore outside hitter Kim Wilson set a career high with 29 kills in a win against Saint Louis. Later that night, in the tournament's final match, the Cougars lost to host Southwest Missouri State in three games.

Wilson Wows

Kim Wilson is fast becoming the Cougars' focus on the offensive side of the ball. She tallied a career-high 29 kills against Saint Louis on Saturday. In the same match against the Bilikens, she set career highs of five service aces and 13 digs. In doing so, she recorded her first career double-double. For the week, Wilson had 66 kills (4.12 kills per game) and hit .301. She was the lone Cougar to be named to the SMS Dr. Mary Jo Wynn Invitational All-Tournament team.

Debut of Another Rightside

Mandi Kiholm, a junior transfer from Utah Valley State College, made her Division I debut against North Texas on Friday. She came in for Carrie Bowers and had a kill on her only attempt to go along with two blocks.

Cougars to Make Home Debut

BYU will make its 2003 home debut this weekend (Sept. 12-13) in the BYU Mizuno Classic presented by Courtyard Marriott. The Cougars have matches slated against Ohio State on Friday at 7:30 p.m., and on Saturday against Rice at Noon and against No. 8 Penn State at 7:30 p.m.

On Television, Radio and Online

The Cougars will have their match against Ohio State televised on KBYU-TV and BYUTV, while their match against Penn State will be available via BYU-Radio. Additionally, both matches will be available online. There will be a video/audio stream of the match against the Buckeyes and an audio stream of the match against the Nittany Lions. Links to these matches will be available via the BYU women's volleyball home page at www.byucougars.com

Injury Update

It is relatively quiet on the injury front. Lindsey Kearl had been bothered by recurring back pain, and has been hobbled by a sprained ankle. Erica Lott continues to be bothered by lower back pain and has not practiced for a second consecutive week.

Karen Curtis Lamb Head Women's Volleyball Coach

Entering her second year as head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program, Karen Lamb replaced the legendary Elaine Michaelis on July 9, 2002. An assistant to Michaelis for eight seasons preceding her promotion, Lamb has 19 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 10 years as a head coach, and two years coaching with the U.S. National Team.

Lamb is only the third person to head BYU's program, joining Michaelis (1962-2002) and JoAnne Calderwood (1956-61). Michaelis retired in May 2002 after 40 years at the Cougar helm ranked No. 2 all-time in NCAA Division I women's volleyball wins with an 887-225-5 (.796) record.

In 10 years as a head coach, four in junior college and five at the Division I level, Lamb has totaled a 209-142 (.595) overall record while bringing success to each program. Her accomplishments include an NJCAA national championship and national coach of the year honors. As an assistant coach at BYU for eight seasons, she helped coach seven All-Americans while the Cougars won five conference titles, achieved a 207-51 (.802) overall record, and played in eight NCAA tournaments, including three regional final appearances among five trips to the regional semifinals.

Lamb's opportunity at BYU is her second with a well-established program. In her five prior seasons as a Division I head coach, Lamb took over new or struggling programs and turned them into winners. She owns a 104-113 (.479) record in her six seasons as a Division I head coach at UNLV, Washington State and BYU.

Lamb began her coaching career in 1978, serving as an assistant to Michaelis after completing her All-American playing career (1974-77) at BYU. After teaching math at Casa Grande High School in Casa Grande, Ariz., for one year, Lamb took her first volleyball head coaching job in 1980 at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz. During her four years (1980-83) at the helm, she achieved a 105-29 (.784) record and was named 1983 NJCAA Coach of the Year after guiding her team to the 1983 NJCAA title.

In 1984, Lamb was hired at UNLV, accepting the challenge of restarting the Rebels' volleyball program after its three-year absence. She coached two seasons in Las Vegas, earning a 39-34 (.534) mark, including a 23-17 record in her first season in 1984. In 1986, she accepted another daunting task when she took over a Washington State program that was just entering the Pac-10 Conference after suffering through four consecutive single-digit victory seasons. In spite of the challenging circumstances, she posted a 51-60 (.460) record in her three seasons (1986-88) in Pullman, culminated with the program's first winning season in 10 years with a 22-17 record in 1988. Despite her success, Lamb decided to leave her position to care for her young family, moving to San Diego where her husband Barry was hired as an assistant football coach.

While in San Diego, Lamb worked as a clinician (1989), clinic director (1990) and assistant coach (1990-92) for the U.S. Women's National Team, which went on to earn the Bronze Medal in the 1992 Barcelona Summer Olympics. In 1994, Lamb returned to BYU as a volunteer assistant before being hired as an assistant coach in 1997.

In addition to her college and national-level coaching experience, Lamb has been a pioneer in developing grass-roots volleyball. She founded the first junior volleyball programs in both Arizona and Nevada and has served as the director and owner of Excel Volleyball Camps since the program's inception in 1975. Lamb's camps are administered each summer to more than 500 girls age 12 and older in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

As a player, Lamb was the top of her class. She holds the distinction of being BYU's first female scholarship athlete and was the school's first volleyball All-American, earning second-team honors in 1977. She still holds the BYU single-season hitting percentage record of .485 in 1976, and has a personal-best .777 single-match attack percentage. She once served 15 straight points to deliver a start-to-finish game victory against Weber State. In 1989, Lamb was recognized by her alma mater for her many accomplishments, being inducted into the BYU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Lamb has served as a member of the BYU Coaches Advisory Committee and as an executive board member of Intermountain Volleyball Association High Performance since 1999. She also currently serves as an executive board member of the BYU Varsity Club, a position she has held since 1996. She served on the board of the Cougar Club from 1995-98 and in 1996 taught a volleyball class in the university's department of Health and Human Performance. From 1987-88 she was a member of the AVCA's Russell Advisory National Committee.

Lamb received a bachelor's degree in physical education with a coaching emphasis from BYU in 1978. She earned a master's degree in educational administration with an athletics emphasis from Arizona State in 1984. She has finished her PhD course work at BYU and is currently working on her dissertation.

A Safford, Ariz., native, Lamb is married to Barry Lamb, a linebacker coach on the BYU football team. They have three sons: Mackenzie (18), Tanner (15) and Tucker (13). She is the daughter of Brooks and Myrna Curtis.

2003 Season Outlook

Coming off the most injury-plagued season in team history, the BYU women's volleyball team is poised to become the nation's most improved team in 2003. A healthy squad combined with a talent-laden lineup should return the Cougars to the top echelon of teams in the country.

After seeing its lineup decimated by injuries – a total of 12 Cougars drew starting assignments in 2002 – BYU returns nine letterwinners and eight players with significant starting experience.

The positive side of BYU's injury struggles last year is manifested in its suddenly experienced lineup. Despite the Cougars' 14-19 record in 2002, they were an impressive 7-2 in five-game matches with a perfect 6-0 record versus Mountain West Conference opponents. BYU's improvement as the season wore on was manifested in its run to the MWC Tournament finals.

"Last year will never happen again," BYU head coach Karen Lamb said. "Only one of the injuries happened in practice and the rest were freak injuries. Last season made us really tough, though. The result is we have a lot of tough individuals on our team. We need to be in that mindset to compete at the highest levels."

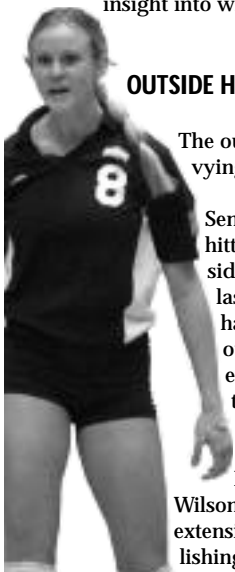

Lauren Richards, Carrie Bowers, Laura Nielsen, Uila Crabbe, April Varner, Lindsey Metcalf, Lexi Brown and Kimberly Wilson are the eight Cougars that return with starting experience.

BYU lost three players from its 2002 roster. All-MWC rightside hitter Allison Larson and defensive specialist Michelle Mahaffey were the two departing seniors while two-time All-MWC setter Karina Puikkonen graduated with a degree in Zoology and will not return for her final year of eligibility. As well, All-America candidate Sunny Mahe, who red-shirted last year, will not return to the team.

The young and well-balanced 2003 BYU roster features four seniors, four juniors, four sophomores and nine freshmen. In all, the Cougar roster is comprised of nine returning letterwinners, two junior college transfers, one redshirt freshman and nine incoming high school recruits.

"This will be an exciting season for us," Lamb said. "We have a lot of talent coming back and with three key redshirts returning. We expect to be a top-20 team throughout the season."

The following position-by-position look at the Cougars gives further insight into what might transpire on the court for BYU in 2003.

OUTSIDE HITTERS

The outside hitting position has possibly five players vying for playing time at three positions.

Senior Carrie Bowers leads the parade of outside hitters, as she shifts from the middle to the right-side. Bowers, one of the top blockers in the nation last season, before injuries slowed her, has worked hard to train in the off-season. As a result of rigorous weight training, she is stronger and is expected to once again be among the best blockers in the country. She is an intelligent player and has the savvy to be a strong offensive contributor.

BYU's leftside hitting triumvirate of Kimberly Wilson, April Varner and Lindsey Metcalf each saw extensive playing time last season, with Wilson establishing herself as a premier attacker as the season progressed.

Wilson, one of the Cougars' most gifted leapers, improved with each successive match in 2002, and she is expected to be a focal point of the BYU attack this season. She posted 14 double-digit kill efforts in BYU's last 19 matches.

Metcalf is perhaps the Cougars' most complete player and best overall athlete. In 2002 she posted career highs of 17 kills, 20 digs, 17 blocks and 15 assists. Her 17-block effort at UNLV on Sept. 28 established a new MWC record and is fourth all-time at BYU. She is also an All-American high jumper on the BYU women's track and field team.

A highly regarded transfer from Long Beach State before the 2002 season, Varner started the season as BYU's main offensive threat. She improved over the course of the season, which peaked with a career-high 23 kills at Wyoming on Oct. 19. The following week during a practice, April severely sprained an ankle, which virtually kept her out of the lineup for the rest of the season. She should again be a key member of the Cougar attack in 2003.

Sahara Castillo is one of four seniors on this year's squad. In 2002, she was BYU's top server, with a lethal jump serve. She is a hardworking competitor and might also see time as a defensive specialist.

The Cougars have two incoming freshman at the outside hitting position in Erica Lott and Kimberly Dabo. Lott is a 'Fab 50' recruit and is also listed as a middle blocker. She has the opportunity to play and make an offensive impact this season.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

The position most affected by injury in 2002, BYU has a talented core of middle blockers this season that should continue to provide BYU with the foundation of a great offense and defense.

Laura Nielsen is the lone returning All-MWC player on the Cougars. After starting last year as a reserve, Nielsen gained playing time as a result of an injury to Lexi Brown. She took advantage of her opportunity and was second on the team with a .298 attack percentage. Besides being the Cougars' most efficient attacking player, Nielsen also set career highs with 11 blocks and eight digs. She will be looked on to provide leadership while playing an all-around game.

Lindsay Lewis-Hartsock will be looked on to provide an immediate impact as a redshirt freshman. A former Idaho Gatorade Player of the Year, Lewis-Hartsock participated with the U.S. National Women's A2 Team this past summer and has vastly improved in her year as a red-shirt. At 6-foot-4, she has the ability to dominate on both sides of the ball and is a freshman All-America candidate.

Sophomore Lexi Brown made a splash in her collegiate debut last season against Gonzaga with 14 kills, eight blocks, two service aces and a .619 hitting percentage. In the season's eighth game against Weber State, however, she tore her ACL shelving her for the remainder of the season. At the time of her injury she was the Cougars' second leading blocker. A starter last season, Brown will be looked upon to compete for playing time this season.

Mandi Kiholm, a transfer from Utah Valley State College, is a quick and intelligent player. At UVSC she was second in the Scenic West Athletic Conference with a .388 attack percentage and third in blocks per game (1.40). She is a competitive player that will push for playing time.

Incoming freshman Erica Lott, also listed as an outside hitter, might see time in the middle as well. Other incoming freshmen middle blockers include Catherine Parker and Amy Hulse.

SETTERS

Lauren Richards, one of the most athletic setters in the country, quarterbacks the attack. After coming out of redshirt in 2001 as an outside hitter, she will make her collegiate debut as a setter this season. A sophomore, Richards has participated with the U.S. National Women's A2 Team for two consecutive summers. One of the most athletic setters in BYU history, Richards will be expected to lead BYU's offense back to one of the nation's best.

Jenna Judkins led Skyline High School in Salt Lake City to the 2002 Utah State 5A Championship. She will serve as a back up to Richards this season.

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

Despite only one returning player, this is perhaps BYU's deepest position.

Senior Uila Crabbe returns and is expected to be the main libero for the Cougars. Last season she led the team with 376 digs, the fourth-highest season total in team history. Crabbe also set a career high with 25 digs against UNLV in the MWC Tournament. She will not only be looked upon to provide solid defense, but to be a leader as well.

Lindsey Kearl comes to the Cougars from Utah Valley State College, where she was the team's starting defensive specialist for two years. She brings a competitive drive to the court with athleticism and intelligence. She fared well in spring play and should see court action this season.

Melanie Togo joins BYU as a sophomore and she was impressive in spring play. Togo displayed a great degree of athleticism and court sense. With her knack for getting to the ball, Togo will be in the mix as a defensive dynamo.

TRADITIONALLY TOUGH SCHEDULE FOR COUGARS IN 2003

Never a team to shy away from a challenge, BYU again features a tough schedule for the 2003 season. Of the Cougars' 22 opponents 17 teams had a winning record and 15 of those teams were 20-win teams in 2002. Overall, eight of BYU's opponents for the upcoming season qualified for the NCAA Tournament last year.

The Cougars will face three teams that finished 2002 ranked in the top 25: No. 4 Florida, No. 13 Ohio State and No. 16 Penn State. Additionally Utah and Arkansas received votes finishing No. 32 and No. 33, respectively.

Of the Cougars' 2003 opponents, BYU has a losing record against only three teams: Arkansas (0-1), Florida (3-4) and Penn State (3-4). BYU's all-time record versus this season's opponents is a dominating 371-75-1 (.830).

2002 SEASON REVIEW

Although it ended the season a better team than it started, the Cougar season mirrored the ups and downs of its lineup. With 12 different players drawing starting assignments over the course of the season, the Cougars were never able to establish an identity of consistency and cohesiveness.

"We expect to win on a consistent basis," Lamb said. "Obviously there were extenuating circumstances this past season. I'm not making any excuses, though, this season was tough. But it was not indicative of what BYU volleyball is about. We are going to win and carry on the tradition of BYU volleyball."

A tradition-rich women's volleyball program, leading into 2002, the Cougars had recorded 28 consecutive 20-win seasons and had never experienced a losing year. Many factors combined to send the Cougars to their first non-winning season (sub .500 record) in school history (14-19). Nineteen losses represent the most of any season in school history, but BYU also endured the most injuries it has ever had in a single season.

The emergence of true freshman outside hitter Kim Wilson was instrumental to a team that needed a steady offensive force. Wilson, a hometown product hailing from Provo High School, slowly worked her way into the lineup as the season progressed, and by the end of it she was BYU's most looked to offensive force. Starting the season as a reserve didn't have the opportunity to register her first double-digit kill effort until midway through the season, but she caught fire down the stretch as she recorded double-digit kill efforts in 14 of BYU's final 19 matches, proving she was one of the Mountain West Conference's top first-year players.

Despite a lineup that was besieged by injury, the Cougars never gave up and broke through in pressure situations time and time again. Although BYU endured two four-match losing streaks in the first half of the season, each time the team would avoid the dubious distinction of being the first squad in BYU history of losing five in a row by narrowly escaping with five-game wins over Wake Forest and UNLV.

At 7-12 the Cougars headed on the annual Front Range road trip on Oct. 18 with the prospects of becoming the only Cougar team to ever drop to as many as seven matches below .500. Indicative of its season and with its backs against the wall, BYU came through with five-game wins over MWC leader CSU and a Wyoming team that was in the midst of a 20-win campaign. In the MWC Tournament the Cougars would not disappoint as they earned a pair of five-game wins over UNLV and CSU before falling to Utah in the final.

2002 SEASON NOTABLESBYU ROSTER HIT HARD

Entering this season BYU had 16 players on its roster. Nine of those players were affected in some way that has prevented them from playing or hindered their ability. All-America candidate Sunny Mahe redshirted because of a pregnancy, and Lauren Richards and Lindsay Lewis are sat out the season as redshirts. Carrie Bowers played with two stress fractures in her feet and was unable to practice as the season progressed. Lexi Brown tore her ACL in the eighth match of the season was lost for the year. As well, Lindsey Metcalf, Becky Warnick, Laura Nielsen and April Varner were all bitten by the injury bug in 2002. In all, 12 different Cougars drew starting assignments.

THE PROCESS OF REBUILDING A WINNER

Of the 13 active players on the BYU roster in 2002, Karina Puikkonen and Uila Crabbe were the only returning starters with a combined 350 games of experience entering the season. The remaining 11 players on the active roster came into the season with a combined 117 games of experience (the rough equivalent of a normal season). Thus far this season the 11 returning non-starters have played in a combined 624 games. Due to a myriad of injuries on the team, more of the Cougars are seeing extended playing time. Ten of the 11 players have seen action in at least 24% or more of BYU's games. Nine of the 11 have seen action in 35% or more of the Cougars games. Eight of the 11 have seen action in 57% or more of BYU's games.

A TEAM OF ENDURANCE

The Cougars had losing records in three-game (5-12) and four-game (2-5) matches, but their record in five-game matches was an impressive 7-2 on the season. That includes a perfect 6-0 record against MWC teams.
