On The Road Again For BYU Volleyball

The No. 23 BYU women's volleyball team (5-1) will hit the road again this weekend for three matches at the InnTowner Invitational hosted by the University of Wisconsin.

The Cougars will begin play on Friday at 12 p.m. CT (11 a.m. MT) against Boise State. BYU will then play two matches on Saturday – one at 10 a.m. CT (9 a.m. MT) against Central Michigan and then the tournament finale at 7 p.m. CT (6 p.m. MT) against the No. 14 Badgers.

"We learned a lot last week," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "It is important that we use this next weekend to really figure out how to control what happens on our side of the net. I believe that when we can maintain our systems we are difficult to stop. We will continue to see some great competition this weekend, and it will prepare us well to begin conference play next week."

BYU went 2-1 last weekend to finish second at the Texas A&M Invitational with wins over Siena and American and a loss to the host Aggies. BYU senior middle blocker Rachel Dyer and junior outside hitter Kayla Walker were named to the All-Tournament Team after outstanding performances. Sophomore setter Kiana Rogers ran her double-double streak to five straight matches after tallying three on the weekend while senior outside hitter Bryn Porter posted two to bring her season total to three.

Including three matches last weekend, three matches this weekend and the start of Mountain West Conference play at Wyoming on Sept. 18 and at Colorado State on Sept. 20, the Cougars are currently in the middle of an eight-match road stretch. All in all, BYU will play 10 of its first 14 matches of the 2008 season away from the Smith Fieldhouse.

All three matches of the InnTowner Invitational will be available via live stats and live video online. The Wisconsin match will also have a Wisconsin radio broadcast available over the Internet. Links to all of these options can be found by going to the schedule page of the BYU women's volleyball homepage at http://www.byucougars.com/volleyball\_w/.

WISCONSIN IN 2008

The Wisconsin Badgers are ranked No. 14 this week after going 2-1 over the weekend to move to 5-1 on the year. After four straight victories to open the season, including a five-set win at UNLV, the Badgers dropped their first match of the year vs. Miami before rebounding with a sweep of CS Fullerton. Junior rightside hitter Katherine Dykstra paces the Badgers with 3.43 kills per set on a team-best .348 hitting percentage. She posted 21 kills in Wisconsin's win over the Rebels. Junior outside hitter Brittney Dolgner is right behind Dykstra with 3.35 kps while pacing the Badgers with 0.35 aces per set and adding 1.45 digs per set. Sophomore libero Kim Kuzma boasts 4.29 dps to lead the way for Wisconsin while senior middle blocker Audra Jeffers tallies a team-high 1.00 bps. On the year, the Badgers are averaging 14.33 kps on .253 hitting. Wisconsin almost doubles its opponents on the block at 2.57-1.38.

WISCONSIN'S LAST OUTING

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (Sept. 6, 2008) - The 10th-ranked Wisconsin volleyball team rebounded from their first loss of the season with a 3-0 win over Cal State Fullerton in the final round of the UNLV Invitational. The Badgers downed the Titans 25-16, 25-21, 25-22 to improved to 5-1 on the season.

"I was happy with the way the team rebounded from the match this morning," said UW coach Pete Waite. "We really have to look at this morning as a fluke - late trip the first night, long match the next night and just flat the next morning. Obviously we have things to work on but they responded well."

Freshman Elle Ohlander earned the start at middle blocker and came up big with a match-high 13 kills. She also hit a team-best .550 and added four block assists. The Badgers passed much better than this morning's match and their offense proved it. In addition to Ohlander, Brittney Dolgner, Katherine Dykstra and Audra Jeffers each put down nine kills for Wisconsin. UW dominated at the net, putting down 46 team kills while hitting .264. The Badgers also had 12 team blocks, led by Dykstra with seven. The Titans had just 29 kills and six blocks, while hitting .065, including a negative .125 in the first set.

Wisconsin's setters both recorded double-doubles as Janelle Gabrielsen had 20 assists and 10 digs while Nikki Klingsporn put up 17 assists and had 11 saves. Kim Kuzma shared match-high honors with 13 digs.

BYU senior middle blocker Rachel Dyer and junior outside hitter Kayla Walker were named to the All-Tournament Team after outstanding performances (see below). Sophomore setter Kiana Rogers ran her double-double streak to five straight matches after tallying three on the weekend while senior outside hitter Bryn Porter posted two to bring her season total to three. Freshman Malia Marquardt recorded career highs in kills (15) and digs (15) on the weekend.

Texas A&M Invite All-Tournament

Senior middle blocker Rachel Dyer and junior outside hitter Kayla Walker were named to the Texas A&M Invitational All-Tournament Team last weekend, bringing the total number of Cougar All-Tournament honorees this season to four (see below). Walker led BYU in kills in two matches on the weekend with a career-high 18 against American and 11 vs. Texas A&M. Against the Eagles, she also paced the Cougars with six kills and a .438 hitting percentage. On the weekend, she averaged 3.25 kills per set while hitting .322, leading the team in both categories. Dyer posted 10 kills against both Texas A&M and Siena while also tying her personal best with seven digs vs. the Saints and leading BYU with five blocks against the Aggies. She averaged 2.25 kps, 1.17 bps and .317 hitting on the weekend.

Molten Classic All-Tournament

Two Cougars were named to the BYU Molten Classic All-Tournament Team in the first week of the season. True freshman Malia Marquardt earned all-tournament honors in her first weekend of collegiate volleyball after averaging 2.75 kills, 1.50 digs and 1.25 blocks per set on .356 hitting. She posted double-digit kills in all three matches and tallied her first career double-double against Missouri with 12 putaways and 10 digs. Senior Bryn Porter became the 14th Cougar in program history to earn Molten Classic MVP honors as she averaged a team-best 3.67 kps with 2.33 dps and 1.17 bps. The outside hitter notched career highs with 19 kills and 16 digs against Missouri, her first double-double of the year, while recording a personal-best six blocks against Tulane and also posted double-digit kills in all three matches. She earned her second career MWC Player of the Week award for her efforts on the weekend.

On The Road Again

For the second year in a row, BYU will begin the season playing 10 of its first 14 matches on the road. The Cougars began the year with three home matches last weekend in the BYU Molten Classic but are currently in the middle of a stretch of eight straight matches away from the Smith Fieldhouse. In addition to three contests last weekend at the Texas A&M Invitational, BYU will also play three matches at the Inntowner Invitational hosted by Wisconsin this weekend before beginning Mountain West Conference play at Wyoming and Colorado State on Sept. 18 and 20. The Cougars end the month of September with a home contest against Air Force on Sept. 27 but then hit the road again on Oct. 2 at New Mexico and Oct. 4 at TCU. BYU went 10-4 in its first 14 matches last season. Prior to that, the Cougars had not begun the season with so many matches away from home since playing 10 of their first 14 on the road in 1997.

Making Milestones

With the Cougars' three-set win over Utah State to open the 2008 season, BYU head coach Shay Goulding achieved her first career Division I victory. Goulding spent the last five years as the head coach at Salt Lake Community College after one season guiding the Solano Community College women's volleyball program, compiling a 188-73 (.720) record at the NJCAA level. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

BYU In the Polls

After beginning the season ranked No. 20 in the CBS College Sports/ AVCA Division I Coaches Top 25 Poll, the Cougars are No. 23 this week after suffering their first loss of the season. BYU has been ranked as high as No. 16 in 2008. BYU has a rich history of rankings in the AVCA Top 25 Poll. Among NCAA Division I programs, the Cougars are ninth all-time in total number of weeks ranked (288) and 11th in weeks ranked in the top 10 (123) and weeks ranked No. 1 (4). The Cougars have also traditionally finished strong, coming in eighth all-time in number of times ranked in the final poll (21), 10th in top-five final rankings (3) and seventh in weeks ranked No. 1 in the final poll (1). The Cougars began last season ranked No. 17 in the preseason poll and rose as high as No. 9 in the rankings before ending the year at No. 12.

Rivals in the Rankings

Three Cougar opponents also appear in the latest rankings. Wisconsin is ranked No. 14 this week after also suffering its first loss of the season last weekend and will host BYU on Saturday at the Inntowner Invitational. The Texas Longhorns, who will host the Cougars on Oct. 24, are ranked No. 3 in the nation while Mountain West Conference foe Colorado State is ranked 21st. BYU will face the defending league champions on Sept. 20 in Fort Collins, Colo., and on Nov. 20 at home. One other Cougar opponent – Utah – received votes. Defending NCAA Champion Penn State tops the poll.

2008 Rule Changes

Volleyball fans will notice two significant rule changes in 2008. The first major change approved by the NCAA Rules Committee changes the name of games to sets. The second change shortens matches from 30 points to 25 points, changing the collegiate version of the sport to be more in line with international standards.

Here Comes The Bride

Two Cougars are sporting different last names this season after getting married in the off-season. Junior rightside hitter Marisa Vandersteen Boaz tied the knot in May while Ashton Hansen Hosford quickly followed suit in June.

Team Captains

The 2008 women's volleyball team has selected its two seniors - outside hitter Bryn Porter and middle blocker Rachel Dyer - as captains for the season. Both players have been at BYU their entire collegiate careers and started as juniors last season.

Redshirts

BYU head coach Shay Goulding has asked three players to redshirt the 2008 season. Sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell, who transferred from Sacramento State this offseason, and freshman middle blocker Nicole Warner will wait one more season to make their Cougar debuts. Sophomore outside hitter Christie Carpenter, who played in three matches and 10 games as a true freshman last year, will also redshirt the season.

Newcomers

Several new faces will contribute to the Cougars' success this year both on and off the court as BYU welcomes a new coaching staff and seven newcomers for the 2008 season. Former Salt Lake Community College Head Coach Shay Goulding will guide the BYU program this year, becoming just the fifth head coach in Cougar history. On the sidelines with Goulding will be former BYU men's volleyball standout Shawn Olmstead and recently graduated All-American Chelsea Goodman, who hopes to build on her tremendous on-court success over the past four years by helping the Cougars from the bench. In addition to three incoming freshmen – setter Markelle Malone, rightside hitter Malia Marquardt and middle blocker Nicole Warner – and one walk-on, defensive specialist Melissa Lake, three transfers have made their way to BYU. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding while junior outside hitter Kayla Walker comes to BYU after two years at Pepperdine and sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell spent her freshman year at Sacramento State. All seven newcomers could contribute significantly for the Cougars this year.

Cougars Picked To Finish Third In MWC

A voting panel including the nine Mountain West Conference head coaches and selected media has picked the BYU women's volleyball team to finish third in the MWC this season with a total of 82 points and one first-place vote. Defending league-champion Colorado State was tabbed as the favorite to win the 2008 regular-season title while Utah was selected second and New Mexico was slotted just behind BYU in fourth. "It's an honor to be included among the top teams in what will be a very competitive conference this season," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "We're excited to get the season started." The Rams collected 13 first-place votes and 125 total points. Utah tallied 95 points to claim second-place in the poll, while BYU edged New Mexico by one point for third place. The Lobos collected 81 points for fourth place in the poll. UNLV (63 points) and TCU (56 points) claimed fifth and sixth place, respectively, followed by San Diego State (seventh, 48 points), Wyoming (eighth, 28 points) and Air Force (ninth, 15 points).

Preseason All-MWC

BYU's Rachel Dyer, a senior middle blocker, was named to the preseason All-MWC Team representing the Cougars. Colorado State senior middle blocker and 2007 MWC Player of the Year Mekana Barnes highlighted the preseason team as she was tabbed the preseason MWC Player of the Year. Four MWC teams were represented on the 2008 preseason All-MWC Team, which also was chosen by the coaches and selected media. "It's an honor to be recognized on the preseason team," said Dyer. "We're looking forward to a great year. We have high expectations for ourselves and expect everyone to contribute to our success."

Cougars Travel to Argentina

In an occurrence as rare as the Summer Olympic Games, the BYU women's volleyball team embarked on a 13-day tour of Argentina from May 1-13. Due to the NCAA's Intiutional Foreign-Tour Limitations policy (17.30.2.1), Division I teams in every sport are only able to conduct a foreign tour once every four years. The trip marked the team's seventh foreign tour, stretching back to 1983, but first to South America. BYU's last foreign tour was in the spring of 2004 when the Cougars traveled through Europe. This year's tour took the Cougars throughout Argentina, including stops in Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, Resistencia, Rosario and the world-famous Iguazu Falls. BYU played five matches along the way, including three contests against the Argentine Junior National Team.

Broadcast Schedule

BYU fans have plenty of options to follow the Cougars this year. BYU-TV and The Mtn. -- MountainWest Sports Network -- will be teaming up to bring fans nine women's volleyball matches this season, more than ever before. BYU Radio will be providing broadcasts of five more matches this season after airing all three matches of the Texas A&M Invitational last weekend.

In 2007, three MWC teams earned NCAA bids, including BYU (at-large), Colorado State (automatic) and UNLV (at-large). Since the MWC was founded in 1999, BYU and Colorado State have represented the conference in the NCAA Tournament each season. Overall, BYU has made 24 NCAA appearances, followed by Colorado State with 19, SDSU with 13, Utah with nine, New Mexico with seven, Wyoming with four and UNLV with one.

Three MWC teams were ranked in 2007 as BYU, Colorado State and UNLV represented the league in the AVCA Coaches' Top 25 Poll.

Balanced Effort Leads to Victory

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (Sept. 5, 2008) – The No. 16 BYU women's volleyball team fended off a feisty Siena team Friday night at the Texas A&M Invitational to record a four-set victory (25-13, 24-26, 25-9, 25-20). The win improves the Cougars to 4-0 on the year.

"We're very happy to come out of that match with a win," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "Siena brought everything they had, but our maturity really pulled us through."

Four Cougars recorded double-digit kills in another balanced offensive outing. Senior Bryn Porter and true freshman Malia Marquardt led the way with 15 kills apiece while senior Rachel Dyer and junior Kayla Walker each tallied 10. Porter also notched her second double-double of the year with 11 kills along with sophomore setter Kiana Rogers, who had 45 assists and 12 digs. Junior Morgan Lloyd led the way with 16 digs while Dyer tied her career high with seven. The Cougars posted 12 team blocks in the match led by six each from Ashton Hansen Hosford and Marquardt, tying her personal best. Dyer's all-around effort garnered her five blocks on the night along with a match-high .409 hitting percentage.

"I'm really pleased with our offensive balance, especially in these shorter sets," said Goulding. "We're scoring in all of our rotations, which is a good sign for us going forward."

Texas A&M Invitational

BYU, 3-1

Walker, Porter Pace Cougar Win

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (Sept. 6, 2008) – A good morning was the order of the day for the No. 16 BYU women's volleyball team as the Cougars improved to 5-0 on the year with a four-set win over American. The match was the first of two Saturday matches for BYU at the Texas A&M Invitational and went 25-22, 22-25, 25-23, 25-15 in the Cougars' favor.

"I was very impressed with American," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "It says a lot that we were able to take a good team like the Eagles completely out of their game. We took away their best hitter and did a good job of following instructions and serving tough."

Junior transfer Kayla Walker led the way for the Cougars with 18 kills on .438 hitting and six blocks. Senior Bryn Porter also reached double-digits with 16 kills and posted her third straight double-double with 10 digs. Sophomore setter Kiana Rogers notched a career-high five kills and tallied her fourth consecutive double-double with 40 assists and 13 digs while Morgan Lloyd (16) and Malia Marquardt (10) also recorded double figures in that category.

BYU Suffers First Loss of 2008

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (Sept. 6, 2008) – The No. 16 BYU women's volleyball team dropped its first match of the season on Saturday falling in four sets (16-25, 26-24, 18-25, 16-25) to Texas A&M in the championship match of the Texas A&M Invitational. Junior Kayla Walker and senior Rachel Dyer were each named to the All-Tournament Team.

"I'm obviously disappointed with how we lost, but Texas A&M is a great team playing on their floor in front of their fans in their tournament," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding. "I don't think it's a bad thing to be a little bit humbled during this point of our season. There's a lot we can learn from this weekend, and I think it will prove valuable going forward."

Walker led the way for the Cougars with 11 kills while senior co-captains Bryn Porter and Dyer each posted 10. Sophomore setter Kiana Rogers kept her double-double streak alive at five straight with 33 assists and 11 digs. Junior Morgan Lloyd paced BYU with 17 digs while freshman Malia Marquardt added 15. The Cougars outblocked the Aggies, 9-5-8-0, thanks in part to five rejections each from Dyer and Marquardt, but the BYU offense struggled all night, hitting just .133 in the match.

COUGARS READY FOR NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT IN 2008

After finishing last season ranked No. 12 in the nation with a 24-8 overall record, the 2008 Cougars are looking to build upon the success of last year, which culminated with an appearance in the Regional Finals of the NCAA Tournament. With 39 years of storied volleyball tradition providing the background, BYU hopes to once again challenge for the Mountain West Conference title in 2008 while making another NCAA Tournament run.

"I'm very excited for this season," said BYU head coach Shay Goulding, who begins her first year with the Cougars in 2008. "Our returning players have matured a great deal, and our newcomers will be wonderful assets to what is BYU volleyball. I expect us to pull together and accomplish great things this year."

With three starters among eight letterwinners returning, BYU will have talent and experience to draw on throughout the year as the Cougars overcome the challenge of losing four starters, including All-American Chelsea Goodman. Returning AVCA All-America honorable mention recipient Rachel Dyer is back for her final season and will be part of a tremendous one-two punch in the middle for BYU along with junior Ashton Hansen Hosford. Senior outside hitter Bryn Porter rounds out the returning starters for the Cougars. Several younger players will also be looked to for success as sophomores Christina Measom on the rightside, Kiana Rogers at the setter position and Christie Carpenter on the outside will also be competing for time after gaining valuable experience last year.

"We lost a lot of offensive production from last year, but we expect our returning players to step it up," said Goulding. "Many players will have opportunities to take on new roles as team leaders. We have a lot of great talent and volleyball knowledge on this team. We expect everyone to push each other and keep us focused on the goals we've set."

Several new faces will contribute to the Cougars' success this year both on and off the court as BYU welcomes a new coaching staff and seven newcomers for the 2008 season. Former Salt Lake Community College Head Coach Goulding will guide the BYU program this year, becoming just the fifth head coach in Cougar history. Goulding had tremendous success in her five seasons at SLCC, leading her teams to top-10 finishes at the NJCAA National Tournament in three of the past four years while earning four district and two region coach-of-the-year awards. On the sidelines with Goulding will be former BYU men's volleyball standout Shawn Olmstead and the recently graduated Goodman, who hopes to build on her tremendous on-court success over the past four years by helping the Cougars from the bench.

In addition to three incoming freshmen – setter Markelle Malone, rightside hitter Malia Marquardt and middle blocker Nicole Warner – and one walk-on, defensive specialist Melissa Lake, three transfers have made their way to BYU. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding while junior outside hitter Kayla Walker comes to BYU after two years at Pepperdine and sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell spent her freshman year at Sacramento State. All seven newcomers could contribute significantly for the Cougars this year.

"I have no doubt that our newcomers will fit into our systems and our program not only as outstanding volleyball players but as classy young ladies," said Goulding. "Our transfers especially have valuable experience that will add to the experience of our returning players."

A breakdown by position follows.

MIDDLE BLOCKER

All-American Rachel Dyer returns in 2008 to headline a strong group in the middle. The senior middle blocker ranked 11th in the country and fourth all-time at BYU with a .411 hitting percentage last season while posting 1.31 blocks per game, fifth in the league and 66th nationally. She earned all-tournament honors at all three of the Cougars' preseason tournaments last year and was numbered with the first group of Cougars to receive NCAA Regional All-Tournament accolades since 1998. A dominating presence inside, she posted double-digit kills in 24 matches and hit at least .500 in 12 contests.

Dyer will be joined in the middle by junior Ashton Hansen Hosford, who ranked third in the MWC and seventh all-time at BYU with a .389 hitting percentage as a sophomore starter last season. She also led the Cougars, ranked third in the league and 33rd nationally with 1.42 bpg. Known for her focus and intensity, she led BYU in blocks 17 times and hitting percentage in 10 matches, hitting .500 or above 10 times. Freshman Nicole Warner joins BYU in the middle this season after earning first-team all-state honors at Rigby High School in Rigby, Idaho, as a senior while tallying 332 kills and 197 blocks.

OUTSIDE HITTER

With the loss of Goodman on the outside, senior Bryn Porter is ready to step up as the Cougars' primary offensive weapon at the antennae this year. She posted 2.79 kills per contest in 2007 while notching double-digit kills in 19 matches and tallying five double-doubles. Her leadership and experience will also be a valuable asset to a relatively young Cougar squad. Also returning on the outside for BYU this year is sophomore Christie Carpenter. Carpenter saw action in 10 games as a true freshman last season and has already matured noticeably during her time as a Cougar. Junior Stephanie Lau may also contribute for BYU on the outside this year. Despite playing primarily as a defensive specialist during her first two seasons in a Cougar uniform, Lau saw more time on the outside during the spring and may continue that transition in the fall.

New to BYU's outside hitting core this season is junior Kayla Walker – the tallest Cougar on the roster this year at 6-foot-5. Walker played two years for the Pepperdine Waves before coming to BYU, earning West Coast Conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 2007 after being named to the WCC All-Freshman Team in 2006.

RIGHTSIDE

The Cougars have plenty of options on the rightside this season beginning with sophomore Christina Measom, who played in 11 games as a true freshman last year. Measom averaged 1.09 kills

2008 COUGAR SCHEDULE

Continuing its tradition of competitive scheduling, BYU will play seven teams this season that qualified for the 2007 NCAA Tournament, including two that were ranked in final CSTV/AVCA Top 25 Poll. In addition to a full slate of Mountain West Conference action, the Cougars will play in three preseason tournaments. BYU will open the year hosting the annual Molten Classic on Aug. 29 and 30 featuring in-state rival Utah State, Tulane and 2007 NCAA Tournament-qualifier Missouri. The Cougars will then travel to College Station, Texas, to compete in a tournament hosted by Texas A&M where BYU will face the Aggies along with NCAA Tournament-participants American and Siena. Preseason action wraps up the following week at the University of Wisconsin. In addition to facing the Badgers, who finished 2007 ranked No. 14 nationally, the Cougars will also take on Boise State and Central Michigan. After starting the 16-match MWC schedule on Sept. 18, BYU will step out of league play on Oct. 24 for a match at Texas. The Longhorns advanced to the Elite Eight of last year's NCAA Tournament along with BYU while finishing the year ranked No. 6 in the country. This season will mark the first year that the MWC will not host a volleyball championship. The league's regular-season champion will receive an automatic bid to the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

BYU has a winning record against all of its 2008 opponents with first meetings against Tulane and Missouri set for this season. The Cougars' all-time record versus this year's competition is a dominating 399-97-1 (.804).

and 1.09 blocks per game while leading the Cougars in blocks three times and hitting percentage once. Fellow returning letterwinner Marisa Vandersteen Boaz could also compete for time on the rightside after playing in two matches last year. Returning red-shirt Casey Speredon and incoming freshman Malia Marquardt will both look to make their Cougar debuts this season in that position.

SETTER

The setter position is shaping up to be a battle as the Cougars return sophomore Kiana Rogers while adding talented freshman Markelle Malone to the mix. Rogers played in 14 matches last year while sharing time with injured Amy Schlauder. She averaged 12.66 assists per game and led BYU to a win over No. 10 Wisconsin but is coming off of offseason surgery that held her out of spring competition. Malone comes to BYU out of Durango High School in Las Vegas, Nev., where she was the starting varsity setter all four years, earning Sunset Division All-Conference all four seasons.

LIBERO

Perhaps BYU's deepest position this season, the libero spot will feature plenty of competition. In addition to Lau returning as a possible defensive specialist and outside hitter, three new faces will hope to join the rotation in 2008. Junior libero Morgan Lloyd played two seasons at SLCC under Goulding and was named All-Region 18 First Team in 2007 after averaging 4.13 digs per game, which led the Scenic West Athletic Conference. Sophomore libero Chelsea Goodsell, who played her freshman year at Sacramento State under legendary head coach Debbie Colberg, played every match for the Hornets and ranked second on the team with 4.37 digs per game. And finally, sophomore Melissa Lake joined the Cougars as a walk-on last winter and made significant strides in the back row during the spring. All three could contribute right away for BYU.

Shay Goulding Head Women's Volleyball Coach

Shay Goulding was named the head coach of the BYU women's volleyball program on Feb. 27, 2008.

COACHING CAREER

Goulding has 10 years of collegiate coaching experience, including five seasons as the head coach at SLCC where she cultivated the Bruins into one of the elite junior college programs in the country. A four-time NJCAA District I Coach of the Year and two-time American Volleyball Coaches Association West Region Coach of the Year, Goulding guided her SLCC teams to four NJCAA Tournament berths, placing as high as second. Her teams have earned a top-10 NJCAA ranking in each of the last four seasons.

Goulding's 2007 team earned a 44-2 record while finishing third at the NJCAA National Tournament with both losses coming against eventual national champion Western Nebraska. Goulding was honored with her second AVCA West Region Coach of the Year award and fourth District I honor and graduated her fifth All-American. The Bruins made their third consecutive national tournament appearance in 2006 while Goulding garnered her third District Coach of the Year accolade and graduated her third NJCAA All-American. After placing third in the Scenic West Athletic Conference, Goulding led the Bruins to the Region 18 Championship and a bid to the NJCAA Tournament, where the team finished in 11th place.

The 2005 Bruins also finished third in the SWAC and rallied to win the region and district championships. The Bruins ended the year ninth nationally after Goulding received her second District Coach of the Year award. In 2004, she guided the Bruins to a second-place finish at the NJCAA Tournament, producing her first two All-Americans in just her second season as head coach. As a result, she was named the District I and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year.

Prior to coaching at SLCC, Goulding spent one year at Solano Community College in Fairfield, Calif., and three years as part of the coaching staff at Utah State University. During her time as an assistant coach at USU, the Aggies went to the NCAA Tournament twice and were ranked in the top 25 in the country for two consecutive years. The Aggies' climb to the top included back-to-back 20-win seasons and 10 Big West All-Conference selections.

Goulding's coaching experience also includes coaching at the high school and club levels in both California and Utah for the past 10 years. Goulding has directed and coached at camps throughout the western states and has become known as a sound clinician and excellent teacher of motor skills. She was a featured speaker at the 2007 AVCA convention and has served as the Chairman of the AVCA Awards Committee since 2004.

PLAYING CAREER

Goulding played collegiate volleyball at Coastal Carolina University in South Carolina. A middle blocker/outside hitter, she was named team captain and the Chanticleers Most Valuable Player in 1994 while being selected to several all-tournament teams.

PERSONAL

A native of Visalia, Calif., Goulding received her Master of Education degree in Exercise Science with an emphasis in Motor Learning from Utah State University in 2001 and her Bachelor of Arts degree in History from BYU in 1998. She served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Santiago, Chile, from 1996-97.

2007 SEASON REVIEW

Despite a season of ups and downs, the BYU women's volleyball team maintained its position among the nation's elite in 2007, advancing to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998 while earning a No. 12 final national ranking, the program's highest final poll position since 1998.

BYU finished the season 24-8 overall and 12-4 in the Mountain West Conference, tied for second place. Along the way, the Cougars defeated four ranked teams, including No. 10 Wisconsin, No. 25 UNLV, No. 6 Washington and No. 16 Middle Tennessee State. BYU's wins at the Huskies and against the Blue Raiders propelled the Cougars to their first Regional Semifinals appearance in a decade. One of the last eight teams still playing in December, the Cougars bowed out of the NCAA Tournament at No. 1 Penn State, who went on to win the national championship. Overall, BYU has now played in 24 NCAA tournaments in the 27-year history of the event.

Experience and leadership proved to be the determining factors for the Cougars in 2007 as three seniors – Chelsea Goodman, Erica Lott and Annie Pinegar – anchored the team on the court. All three contributed significantly to a BYU team that finished among the top 40 in the nation in hitting percentage (15th - .271), assists per game (21st – 15.35), blocks per game (27th – 3.02), match win/loss percentage (36th - .750) and kills per game (38th – 16.24). After beginning the year ranked No. 17 in the AVCA/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll, the Cougars climbed as high as No. 9 before finishing the year ranked No. 12.

The Smith Fieldhouse once again proved dominant for the Cougars as they went 10-2 on Elaine Michaelis Court while averaging 1,739 fans per match, 17th in the nation. A BYU women's volleyball record crowd of 4,509 saw BYU sweep Utah on Nov. 9. The Cougars area now 470-84 all-time at home and 32-3 on Elaine Michaelis Court over the past three seasons.

Perhaps the defining moment of the season came on Sept. 15 in a five-game come-from-behind win at San Diego State. The victory marked the program's 1,000th all-time win, making BYU just the fourth program in NCAA history to achieve that milestone. Though it did not come easily, the triumph epitomized the self-sacrifice, steely determination and elite performance that defines years of Cougar volleyball.

BYU began the year earning back-to-back tournament titles with victories at the Hawkeye Challenge hosted by Iowa and the BYU Molten Classic. The Cougars' home opener on Aug. 31 in the Classic featured an epic battle between the Cougars and No. 10 Wisconsin. BYU emerged victorious with a 3-2 win in front of 3,880 fans in the Smith Fieldhouse, vaulting to the No. 9 spot in the national poll. The following week, the Cougars went 1-2 at the Stanford Invitational with losses to No. 17 Cal Poly and No. 2 Stanford.

Sporting a 6-2 record entering Mountain West Conference play and searching for their 1,000th all-time victory, the Cougars were stunned at UNLV with a three-game loss. The Rebels proved to be the surprise team in the MWC in 2007, earning their best overall record and MWC finish in school history while making their first NCAA Tournament appearance. Two days after the UNLV setback, the Cougars seemed once again headed for defeat at SDSU after losing the first two games. But a monumental comeback effort spurred BYU to victory, the historic 1000th win.

A 6-3 record over the next five weeks offered little in the way of highlights as the Cougars dominated likely suspects TCU, Wyoming, Air Force and Utah Valley but dropped two matches to Colorado State and suffered a surprising home loss to New Mexico. But even in the midst of relative mediocrity, the team still managed to make a little history, getting a 3-2 win at Utah to record the first triumph at Crimson Court since 2000. Goodman led the way for BYU, posting the first Cougar triple-double since 2004 with 21 kills, 11 digs and a career-high 12 blocks, doubling her previous rejection tally.

Goodman had also been steadily increasing her career double-double tally, and with 20 kills and 16 digs at Colorado State on Oct. 18, she became the MWC's career record-holder in that category. The achievement was somewhat bittersweet as it came in a losing effort, but the three-game defeat proved to be the last the Cougars would taste for sometime.

After that point, BYU turned things around in the final four weeks of the regular season, winning eight straight matches. The victory streak included three significant wins as the Cougars exacted revenge on the Lobos in Albuquerque after the earlier home loss and defeated Utah and UNLV in the Smith Fieldhouse. The three-game win over the Utes was the first Cougar sweep over their rivals since 2001 and came in front of a BYU women's volleyball record crowd of 4,509 fans. Combined with the earlier win in Salt Lake City, the Cougars swept the season series against Utah for the first time since 1999 and earned the inaugural Deseret First Duel Rivalry Series volleyball trophy. The final match of the regular season saw BYU once again get some pay back, beating No. 25 UNLV in four games.

A semifinal loss to UNLV in the MWC Tournament on the Rebels' home floor the following week left BYU hoping for an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament. The Cougars were indeed invited to their 24th Tournament in the 27-year history of the event, opening with a sweep of Ole Miss in the first round. BYU then faced No. 6 Washington in the second round on the Huskies' home court. Looking to advance to the Regionals for the first time since 1999, the Cougars pulled off a spectacular five-game upset, coming from behind to win the last two games and continue their season. After sweeping No. 16 Middle Tennessee State in the Regional Semifinals held at Penn State to become one of the final eight teams playing, the Cougars ended their season with a three-game loss to the top-ranked Nittany Lions, who went on to win the national championship.
